Mitchell Succeeds DeLisle, May Get Four-year Term

MICHAEL MITCHELL
Four-year term assured

Michael Mitchell was appointed Marin County auditor-controller today by unanimous vote of the county supervisors, meeting for the first time in the new Civic Center chamber.

He posted bond and took the oath of office in the presence of the supervisors and his staff of 50 an hour later.

On advice of County Counsel E. Warren McGuire, the appointment was a twofold operation requiring two motions:

1. Mitchell was moved up from assistant auditor-controller to take the top post left vacant by death of Leon A. DeLisle last Thursday night.

2. He was given a "prospective appointment" covering the four-year term to which DeLisle was elected unopposed last June.

Unless there is a change before Jan. 7 in present membership of the board of supervisors, which could occur only by death or resignation, no further action in the four-year term will be required, said McGuire.

Mitchell will observe his 37th birthday Jan. 6.

Today's special meeting began at 9 a.m. and required barely 15 minutes. The county planning commission was meeting for the first time on the other side of the removable partition splitting the administration building auditorium, which proved effectively soundproofed.

Chairman Walter R. Castro declared the meeting necessary to fill the vacancy created by DeLisle's death and the clerk read McGuire's letter covering the legal position. As soon as the necessity for two motions was clear, Supervisor William D. Fusselman made each in turn, George Ludy seconding the first and Castro the second. Both passed unanimously.

Mitchell was not present but Fusselman then asked that he be called in.

"With deep humility," said Mitchell, "I wish to express my appreciation for the vote of confidence you have given me. I have been carefully groomed for the past 11 years by my beloved predecessor and I shall continue to be your fiscal liaison representative."

Mitchell then asked and received permission to take the oath at 10 a.m. in the presence of his staff. On motion of Fusselman, the meeting then adjourned out of respect to the memory of DeLisle, with a resolution of sympathy to be sent to Mrs. DeLisle.

Mitchell later said he will recommend tomorrow that the supervisors appoint George Donaldson, now senior accountant, to take over his former post as assistant auditor.

He said that he expects as usual to attend all meetings of the supervisors, retaining the post of fiscal liaison officer to which he was appointed four

ALCATRAZ ROBBER GETS TO MAINLAND

Felon Captured After Exhausting Swim Across Bay; Buddy Also Returned To Cell

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Two bank robbers sawed their way out of Alcatraz, the foreboding island prison in San Francisco Bay, last night but were retaken alive after losing a battle with the icy water.

One swam only about 100 yards before quitting. The other made it three miles with the help of homemade water wings and became the first escaper known to reach the mainland after breaking from the maximum security institution.

John Paul Scott, 35, from Leitchfield, Ky., made it to shore but the swim proved too much for him. When spotted by two children on a rocky shore he appeared to be dead.

Doctors at the Army's nearby Letterman General Hospital, where Scott was taken, said his body temperature was down to 94 degrees. Waters in the bay average 54 degrees.

Bank robber-kidnaper Darl Dee Parker, 31, of Canton, Ohio, quit sooner because of the cold waters. He made a dash of about 100 yards to a pointed rock off Alcatraz' western end.

Parker just sat waiting on what is known as 'Little Alcatraz' as a searching prison boat spotted him.

Both men were returned to Alcatraz.

Warden Olin Blackwell said the two men worked in the prison kitchen and "somehow cut their way out through a window in the kitchen basement."

It was the second breakout from Alcatraz this year. On June 12 John and Clarence Anglin and Frank Morris, three Southern bank robbers, broke out after long preparation. They are presumed drowned.

Novato Father Of Three Dies As Pole Impales Him In Auto

25th Marin Traffic Fatality During 1962

A Novato father of three was impaled by a fence board as his car ran off Indian Valley Road, only a short distance from his home, at 2:20 a.m. today.

Ernest William Jacobson Jr., 40, salesman for a Berkeley food manufacturing company, became the third to die in Novato traffic and the 25th in Marin County traffic this year. Last year to Dec. 17, there were two traffic deaths in Novato among 17 in the county.

Jacobson was on his way home after taking a guest home from a dinner party at the Jacobson residence at 1778 Indian Valley Road, Novato police were told. Apparently, he dozed.

His new station wagon left the road, traveled 30 feet along the shoulder, then slammed into a board fence in front of the home of Mrs. Josephine M. Marzell at 1459 Indian Valley Road.

The car ripped out 90 feet of the board fence. One board went through the windshield, through Jacobson's chest and neck, and out the rear of the car, police said.

Death was instantaneous, said Deputy Coroner Charles R. Johnson.

The crash awakened Mrs. Marzell, who telephoned police.

Last evening, the Jacobsons had eight guests to dinner. Police said they were told Jacobson had driven one guest home and was returning to his own home when his car left the road. His wife, Jean, under sedation for shock, was unable to give details.

The three children, their Christmas preparations turned to gloom by the tragedy, were being cared for today by a friend, Mrs. Pauline Curry.

Jacobson had returned to the United States a little over a year ago after a seven-year stay in Japan.

He had been employed since Dec. 1 as special sales representative in the food division of American International Development Corp. in Berkeley.

Book Exec To Be New Councilman

Robert I. LaDow, 56, McGraw-Hill Book Co. executive, will be appointed tonight to the Corte Madera Town Council to replace Raymond L. DeYoung, who resigned last month.

Mayor Edward W. Colthurst today said LaDow "was the first choice of all the councilmen, and he has accepted."

The appointment will be voted as first order of business at the council meeting opening at 7:30 p.m. in the town hall, Colthurst said.

LaDow has served three years on the Corte Madera Planning Commission. He is sales manager for the 11 western states of Gregg Publishing Division of McGraw-Hill Book Co., with headquarters in Corte Madera.

He has been with McGraw-Hill for 30 years, and before that taught business subjects at Iowa and Indiana universities. He was born in Oregon and has a B.A. degree from Oregon State University and a master's degree in business administration from University of Iowa.

LaDow has been a Marin resident 13 years and a Corte Madera resident 10 years. His home is at 641 Manzanita Avenue.

He will be appointed to fill out DeYoung's term expiring in April, 1964.

Grand Jury To Hear Span Directors

Two directors of the Golden Gate Bridge District are among witnesses called to testify tomorrow when the Marin County Grand Jury resumes its investigation of charges of mismanagement of the bridge district.

Tomorrow's hearing, another all-day session, is set to start at 9:30 a.m. in the county courthouse in San Rafael.

Directors subpoenaed for tomorrow include Ben K. Lerer of San Francisco and Herbert J. Fehely of Del Norte County.

Also scheduled to face the grand jury are bridge General Manager James Adam and Jerome B. White, attorney for the bridge district.

The grand jury investigation of bridge financial operations was touched off by State Sen. John F. McCarthy and William W. Hendricks of Ross, former administrative assistant to general manager Adam. Senator McCarthy and Hendricks charged the bridge district with mismanagement and disregard of public interest.

Rain Cuts Electric, Phone Lines

Rain caused power and telephone failures, clogged storm drains, and weakened retaining walls in Marin over the weekend, besides bringing another inch or more of rain.

Electric service to about 2,500 homes in Kentfield was disrupted yesterday when four bay trees, their roots loosened in soft ground, fell and knocked down lines on Woodland Avenue near Ridgewood Avenue.

The break occurred at 8:17

County Planners Have New Scenery But Same Old Familiar Problem

There was a change of scenery but a long-familiar problem for the Marin County Planning Commission today.

The commission, holding its first meeting in the Civic Center, soon found itself listening to objections to a proposed Meadowsweet apartment development.

Meadowsweet homeowners, who long have protested multiple housing in the area, wasted little time in reminding the commission that they are not satisfied with the Southerland-Lang plan to build four 29-unit apartment houses on a three-acre site there. Their objections proved fruitless, however.

"It's the responsibility of the commission to protect us from such monstrosities," said Mrs. W. W. Nichols of the Meadowsweet Improvement Assn.

Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Mary Henry, chairman of the association, asked for a delay in action on the plans so their group might study possible changes.

But commissioner Niels Schultz Jr. said the plans had been available for two weeks and he saw no reason for further delay.

Staff planner Sidney Shaw said the long apartment buildings may "look bad in plans" but would be built along the contours of the land, "thus relieving the monotony of sheer length."

Mrs. Nichols also objected to the proposed planting of acacia trees at the development.

On Schultz's motion, the commission approved the development, with commissioner Felix M. Warburg dissenting. Chairman William Upton told protestants that they can take their objections to the board of supervisors Jan. 8.

The commission went through a short pre-Christmas agenda in less than three hours and adjourned before noon.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Child Chokes To Death On Grape

DETROIT (AP)—A 14-month-old child choked to death on a grape last night.

Theresa Lenart, the daughter of Mrs. Elaine Lenart of Detroit, was dead on arrival at a hospital where doctors removed the grape from her throat.

Theresa had taken the grape from a bowl on the table at home, Mrs. Lenart said.

Robber's Mother-In-Law Gets Reward

NEW YORK (AP)—Albert F. Nussbaum's mother-in-law, whose tip to the FBI led to his capture on bank robbery charges, will receive a $10,000 reward from Reader's Digest for information leading to the capture of Nussbaum's alleged partner, Bobby Randell Wilcoxson.

The magazine said yesterday it decided to award the money to Mrs. Alice Majchrowicz after authorities reported that leads supplied by Nussbaum led to Wilcoxson's capture.

The promise of a reward influenced her to give the FBI information she had concerning Nussbaum, she said.

Durante Arrested

CHICAGO (UPI) — Comedian Jimmy Durante was arrested on three counts yesterday after his rented auto touched off a three-car collision.

Durante was charged with having no driver's license, driving too close and damage to city property. He posted a $25 bond and said he would not appear in court.

Durante put on an impromptu show for the policemen during the proceedings.

Business At Vatican

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII resumed business audiences today with high Vatican prelates.

The 81-year-old Roman Catholic Pontiff has not held such audiences since he became seriously ill three weeks ago. He has a stomach ailment and anemia.

He has been returning to work gradually. Sunday he received King Mwambutsa of Buhundi in private audience.

Teen Driver Dies

SUNNYVALE (AP) — A teenager driving a truck with treadless racing tires was killed yesterday when the vehicle veered out of control in the rain, hit a divider strip, overturned and was hit by a car.

Sunnyvale Public Safety officers said Glenn D. Snode, 18, of Santa Clara, was driving too fast for road conditions in El Camino Real.

Chester Dale Dies

NEW YORK (AP) — Chester Dale, 69, multimillionaire investment banker, utilities magnate and art collector, died in New York Hospital yesterday following a heart attack.

Dale, who had one of the nation's most valuable private collections of modern art, was president of Washington's National Gallery of Art and a trustee of the Metropolitan Museum of Art here.

Mound City Battle

MOUND CITY, S.D. (UPI)—Determined ranchers have told the federal government it can not have the embattled Department of Agriculture records in this county seat town of 177 people because it waited too long to act.

Mound City, which fears loss of the county agricultural stabilization and conservation office to neighboring, larger Herreid may eventually lead to loss of the coveted court house, has been feuding with the government for months over the records.

The justice department said two weeks ago it would send marshals to remove the records with force. But after the farmers rallied to the threat, the plan was called off.

Wreck Kills Three

FAIRFIELD (AP)—Three men were killed and nine other persons injured yesterday in a four-car collision on rainswept State Route 12 near here.

Four of the injured included children who were orphaned by the crash.

Fatally Stabbed

SHERMAN OAKS (AP)—Police say film producer Edward Nassour fatally stabbed himself in the heart with a steak knife.

The 45-year-old producer was found dead Saturday in the backyard of his sister's home.

The sister, Mrs. Thomas Maluf, told police Nassour attempted suicide with sleeping pills last Thursday.

He had been in ill health.

Pictures produced at Nassour Studios included "Africa Screams," "Mrs. Mike," and "Tripoli."

'Deal,' Barry Says

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater says he suspects President John F. Kennedy of making a secret "deal" with Soviet Russia over Cuba because, he says, the president is evading questions on the subject.

"I don't like this constant evasion of a simple question—'Did you or did you not, say to Khrushchev we will not invade Cuba?'" Goldwater told a Los Angeles Times newsman yesterday.

The Arizona Republican said he is not convinced Russia removed 42 missiles from Cuba last month. He says he suspects caves there are being used to hide offensive military weapons.

Storm In Europe

LONDON (AP) — Western Europe recovered today from a ferocious winter storm that ripped a wide path of death and destruction.

More than 30 were dead in the wake of hurricane-strength winds that lashed Europe yesterday.

The biggest toll was at sea—at least 23 in the German freighter Nautilus which went down off the Dutch coast. A French fisherman was washed overboard in the English Channel.

In Britain at least eight persons were killed, mostly by falling trees or buildings.

Nation's Weather

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

There were some wet spots in the West and Northeast, but generally dry and fairly seasonable weather was the rule in the major part of the nation today.

The major wet belt was along an almost stationary Pacific frontal zone from the northern Rockies southwestward across central California. Rainfall was light in most areas. Light snow powdered mountain sections.

Snow also fell in areas south and east of the Great Lakes region.

President Sees Rocky As Opponent

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy apparently has reached the conclusion—if he had any doubts—that Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York will be his 1964 opponent for the presidency.

This was the explanation in political circles for Kennedy's aiming a series of barbs at the Republican governor in his Friday night speech to the Economic Club in New York.

Because New York will be one of the principal battlegrounds in the 1964 presidential contest, politicians busied themselves comparing the positions of the two men on major issues. They found them far apart on New York matters but remarkably close on some national economic problems.

Both express concern about the balance of international payments. Both oppose inflationary actions. Both say profit margins must be improved. Both reject deficit spending as a cure for the lagging economy.

Stage Set For JFK, Macmillan Meeting

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan left today for a Bahamas meeting Wednesday and Thursday with President John F. Kennedy which could prove decisive for Britain's future role as a nuclear power.

Fresh from a Paris conference with French President Charles de Gaulle at which "close agreement" on defense views was announced, Macmillan is to meet with U.S. officials who plainly frown on the development of national nuclear deterrents.

While Britain and France have pressed forward with their nuclear programs, the United States has urged a multi-national type force under the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and a build-up in the non-nuclear side of the European military forces.

The controrversy over the U.S.-developed Skybolt missile, which looms as the major subject of the Bahamas talks, may bring this debate to a peak.

The United States says it may scrap the air-launched missile because of a string of test failures and the cost, although Britain has been counting on it to insure its national deterrent role.

Kennedy has described the Skybolt, which is fired from a plane at targets 1,000 miles away, as a very sophisticated missile whose development may require 2.5 billion dollars in addition to the half-billion already spent by his country.

Without the Skybolt or a substitute, Britain could have no modern independent nuclear deterrent of its own.

Skybolt, due for delivery around 1964, was to have been fitted to Britain's force of aging jet bombers, giving them a new lease of life by increasing their hitting range by 1,000 miles.

U.S. Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, who held preliminary talks with the British on the Skybolt issue last week, also is going to Nassau.

The Skybolt affair also kicked up a storm in Washington. Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Me.) said yesterday the powerful Senate Armed Services Committee, of which he is a member, is 2 to 1 against dropping the missile, and "I understand the joint chiefs of staff also oppose any cutback."

Rusk Thinks Allies Need Convincing That NATO Needs Stronger Defense

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk was to report today to President John F. Kennedy that America's Atlantic allies need more time, patience and persuasion to comply with the U. S. request that they contribute more to Europe's defense.

This was the impression Rusk apparently brought last night from the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's Paris meeting where U. S. proposals were reportedly greeted with something less than warmth.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara arrived back in the capital earlier yesterday and submitted his report to the president.

The U. S. delegation, headed by Rusk, McNamara, and Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon, went to Paris determined to persuade the 15-nation defense organization that it must make greater commitments on NATO's vital central front.

The U. S. argument got a chilly reception, reports from Paris indicated. Although the communique issued by the ministers expressed agreement that it was necessary "to increase the effectiveness of conventional forces," it also instructed NATO's permanent council "to review procedures in order to secure a closer alignment between NATO military requirements and national force plans."

This wording, sources explained, was a compromise. While the communique paid lip service to the U. S. request by accepting the necessity to increase conventional forces, it also adopted the opposing position, championed by Peter Thorneycroft, Britain's defense secretary, who was reported as having told the conference that NATO has to live with what the member countries can place at its disposal.

Rusk, talking briefly to reporters on his arrival in Washington, said U. S. thinking remained unchanged and that the manpower "target is still 30 divisions." This target was set several years ago, but NATO has only 23 to 24 divisions on the central sector, a force U. S. officials believe is too small to convince Moscow that a Cuba-like adventure in Berlin or elsewhere in Europe would not work.

Pesticide Bird Deaths

DENVER (UPI)—Heavy traces of pesticides aldrin and dieldrin have been named as the killers of as many as 2,000 wild ducks annually at three small industrial lakes near here.

A team of wildlife biologists and chemists have published a report saying many thousands of ducks carrying sublethal doses of the drugs flew on to nesting areas elsewhere in North America.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Child Chokes To Death On Grape

DETROIT (AP)—A 14-month-old child choked to death on a grape last night.

Theresa Lenart, the daughter of Mrs. Elaine Lenart of Detroit, was dead on arrival at a hospital where doctors removed the grape from her throat.

Theresa had taken the grape from a bowl on the table at home, Mrs. Lenart said.

Robber's Mother-In-Law Gets Reward

NEW YORK (AP)—Albert F. Nussbaum's mother-in-law, whose tip to the FBI led to his capture on bank robbery charges, will receive a $10,000 reward from Reader's Digest for information leading to the capture of Nussbaum's alleged partner, Bobby Randell Wilcoxson.

The magazine said yesterday it decided to award the money to Mrs. Alice Majchrowicz after authorities reported that leads supplied by Nussbaum led to Wilcoxson's capture.

The promise of a reward influenced her to give the FBI information she had concerning Nussbaum, she said.

Durante Arrested

CHICAGO (UPI) — Comedian Jimmy Durante was arrested on three counts yesterday after his rented auto touched off a three-car collision.

Durante was charged with having no driver's license, driving too close and damage to city property. He posted a $25 bond and said he would not appear in court.

Durante put on an impromptu show for the policemen during the proceedings.

Business At Vatican

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII resumed business audiences today with high Vatican prelates.

The 81-year-old Roman Catholic Pontiff has not held such audiences since he became seriously ill three weeks ago. He has a stomach ailment and anemia.

He has been returning to work gradually. Sunday he received King Mwambutsa of Buhundi in private audience.

Teen Driver Dies

SUNNYVALE (AP) — A teenager driving a truck with treadless racing tires was killed yesterday when the vehicle veered out of control in the rain, hit a divider strip, overturned and was hit by a car.

Sunnyvale Public Safety officers said Glenn D. Snode, 18, of Santa Clara, was driving too fast for road conditions in El Camino Real.

Chester Dale Dies

NEW YORK (AP) — Chester Dale, 69, multimillionaire investment banker, utilities magnate and art collector, died in New York Hospital yesterday following a heart attack.

Dale, who had one of the nation's most valuable private collections of modern art, was president of Washington's National Gallery of Art and a trustee of the Metropolitan Museum of Art here.

Mound City Battle

MOUND CITY, S.D. (UPI)—Determined ranchers have told the federal government it can not have the embattled Department of Agriculture records in this county seat town of 177 people because it waited too long to act.

Mound City, which fears loss of the county agricultural stabilization and conservation office to neighboring, larger Herreid may eventually lead to loss of the coveted court house, has been feuding with the government for months over the records.

The justice department said two weeks ago it would send marshals to remove the records with force. But after the farmers rallied to the threat, the plan was called off.

Wreck Kills Three

FAIRFIELD (AP)—Three men were killed and nine other persons injured yesterday in a four-car collision on rainswept State Route 12 near here.

Four of the injured included children who were orphaned by the crash.

Fatally Stabbed

SHERMAN OAKS (AP)—Police say film producer Edward Nassour fatally stabbed himself in the heart with a steak knife.

The 45-year-old producer was found dead Saturday in the backyard of his sister's home.

The sister, Mrs. Thomas Maluf, told police Nassour attempted suicide with sleeping pills last Thursday.

He had been in ill health.

Pictures produced at Nassour Studios included "Africa Screams," "Mrs. Mike," and "Tripoli."

'Deal,' Barry Says

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater says he suspects President John F. Kennedy of making a secret "deal" with Soviet Russia over Cuba because, he says, the president is evading questions on the subject.

"I don't like this constant evasion of a simple question—'Did you or did you not, say to Khrushchev we will not invade Cuba?'" Goldwater told a Los Angeles Times newsman yesterday.

The Arizona Republican said he is not convinced Russia removed 42 missiles from Cuba last month. He says he suspects caves there are being used to hide offensive military weapons.

Storm In Europe

LONDON (AP) — Western Europe recovered today from a ferocious winter storm that ripped a wide path of death and destruction.

More than 30 were dead in the wake of hurricane-strength winds that lashed Europe yesterday.

The biggest toll was at sea—at least 23 in the German freighter Nautilus which went down off the Dutch coast. A French fisherman was washed overboard in the English Channel.

In Britain at least eight persons were killed, mostly by falling trees or buildings.

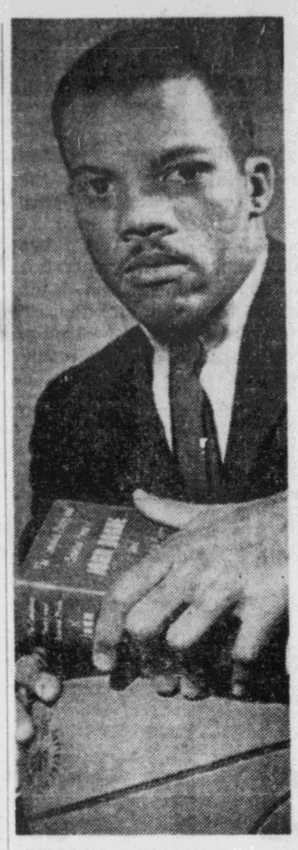

Nation's Weather

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

There were some wet spots in the West and Northeast, but generally dry and fairly seasonable weather was the rule in the major part of the nation today.

The major wet belt was along an almost stationary Pacific frontal zone from the northern Rockies southwestward across central California. Rainfall was light in most areas. Light snow powdered mountain sections.

Snow also fell in areas south and east of the Great Lakes region.

DHODES SCHOLAR — John E. Wideman, 23, of Pittsburgh, Pa., has been named winner of a Rhodes scholarship for study at Oxford University, England. Wideman is captain of the University of Pennsylvania basketball team, and an English literature major. Wideman, one of three Negroes ever to get the scholarship, was one of 32 men from 23 states named Rhodes scholarship winners. (AP Wirephoto)

President Sees Rocky As Opponent

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy apparently has reached the conclusion—if he had any doubts—that Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York will be his 1964 opponent for the presidency.

This was the explanation in political circles for Kennedy's aiming a series of barbs at the Republican governor in his Friday night speech to the Economic Club in New York.

Disc Jockey Colvig's Wife Gets Divorce

Former House of Charm model and free lance writer Pamela B. Colvig, 25, won an interlocutory decree of divorce today from Sausalito disc jockey Robert Colvig, 46.

Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court granted her the divorce and $250 per month support on grounds of extreme cruelty. Colvig did not contest the action.

They were married in Virginia City, Nev., in 1955 and separated last September.

Mrs. Colvig sued for divorce last year but went back to him last December when he was called in for questioning concerning a newborn infant that was found dumped in the garbage can at his home. Model Antoinette (Toni) Wahlen admitted she had stabbed her newborn son and left it in Colvig's garbage can. She cleared Colvig of any connection with the baby death.

Mrs. Colvig's attorney, Jerome Berg of San Francisco, said she lives somewhere in Sausalito. He lives at 121 South Street.

Burglar's Wife Tells Of Burglary

The wife of a convicted burglar, herself the victim of a burglary at her Fairfax home, yesterday gave Fairfax police information leading to the arrest of her husband's former girl friend and a male accomplice.

Mrs. Walter V. Burke of 46 Wreden Avenue told police that a stereo record turntable, a portable television, a high fidelity loudspeaker, a record case with a large number of records and several sweaters were taken from her home Saturday night.

She named as a suspect Caren Louise Louden, 20, of 120 Morning Sun Avenue, Mill Valley. Patrolman William Dooley said he went to Miss Louden's home and found the property Mrs. Burke had reported stolen. Miss Louden and Raymond Virgil Balliet, 24, of San Francisco, were arrested when they returned to her home later.

Dooley said that the victim's husband had just been returned to Marin County jail from Vacaville, where he had been under psychiatric treatment, to await sentencing for a burglary on Madrone Road, Fairfax, in February.

Air Force Hearing Ends In Idaho Slaying Case

MOUNTAIN HOME, Idaho (UPI) — The eight-day military hearing for murder suspect Gerald Anderson ended today with a plea from his attorney for a fast and fair trial if a trial is necessary.

Defense Atty. Robert McLaughlin, Mountain Home, also recommended more cooperation between the Air Force and civilian defense counsel in future felony interrogations and investigations affecting airmen.

Following final arguments by counsel, Maj. James Goddard, hearing officer, took the proceedings under advisements. He will make a preliminary recommendation on the testimony to 15th Air Force headquarters at March Air Force Base, Calif., and there a final decision will be made. Because of the "unusual" nature of the case, Maj. Goddard said it might take the 15th headquarters longer than normal in military hearings to reach a decision.

Anderson, 25, San Diego, Calif., is accused by the Air Force of premeditated murder in the knife slayings last April 9 here of Mrs. Nancy Joy Johnson, 22, and her son, Daniel, 2. Anderson just last month was freed of a first-degree murder charge in Mrs. Johnson's death by civil court after another man, Theodore Thomas Dickie, 22, Boise, confessed the crimes. However, the Air Force arrested Anderson again, and on the following day charged him with the murders.

McLaughlin sought through a writ of habeas corpus in U.S. District Court at Boise to have Anderson freed from military prosecution, contending the Air Force had waived its jurisdiction in the case by turning Anderson over to civilian authorities at Mountain Home last April. The Air Force, however, contended that Anderson was not subject to habeas corpus relief because he was a military prisoner awaiting trial by courts-martial.

Federal Judge Chase A. Clark told both sides to submit written legal briefs on the matter and gave them 10 days each to do it. That was on Dec. 5. However, McLaughlin has discolsed he was given a 10-day extension so his briefs won't be due until Dec. 25.

The judge also urged the Air Force to dispose of its case against Anderson one way or the other as soon as possible. The hearings began last Monday and continued throughout the weekend were an effort to comply with that request. They will determine whether Anderson must stand trial by courts-martial.

Burglar's Wife Tells Of Burglary

The wife of a convicted burglar, herself the victim of a burglary at her Fairfax home, yesterday gave Fairfax police information leading to the arrest of her husband's former girl friend and a male accomplice.

Mrs. Walter V. Burke of 46 Wreden Avenue told police that a stereo record turntable, a portable television, a high fidelity loudspeaker, a record case with a large number of records and several sweaters were taken from her home Saturday night.

She named as a suspect Caren Louise Louden, 20, of 120 Morning Sun Avenue, Mill Valley. Patrolman William Dooley said he went to Miss Louden's home and found the property Mrs. Burke had reported stolen. Miss Louden and Raymond Virgil Balliet, 24, of San Francisco, were arrested when they returned to her home later.

Dooley said that the victim's husband had just been returned to Marin County jail from Vacaville, where he had been under psychiatric treatment, to await sentencing for a burglary on Madrone Road, Fairfax, in February.

Air Force Hearing Ends In Idaho Slaying Case

MOUNTAIN HOME, Idaho (UPI) — The eight-day military hearing for murder suspect Gerald Anderson ended today with a plea from his attorney for a fast and fair trial if a trial is necessary.

Defense Atty. Robert McLaughlin, Mountain Home, also recommended more cooperation between the Air Force and civilian defense counsel in future felony interrogations and investigations affecting airmen.

Following final arguments by counsel, Maj. James Goddard, hearing officer, took the proceedings under advisements. He will make a preliminary recommendation on the testimony to 15th Air Force headquarters at March Air Force Base, Calif., and there a final decision will be made. Because of the "unusual" nature of the case, Maj. Goddard said it might take the 15th headquarters longer than normal in military hearings to reach a decision.

Anderson, 25, San Diego, Calif., is accused by the Air Force of premeditated murder in the knife slayings last April 9 here of Mrs. Nancy Joy Johnson, 22, and her son, Daniel, 2. Anderson just last month was freed of a first-degree murder charge in Mrs. Johnson's death by civil court after another man, Theodore Thomas Dickie, 22, Boise, confessed the crimes. However, the Air Force arrested Anderson again, and on the following day charged him with the murders.

McLaughlin sought through a writ of habeas corpus in U.S. District Court at Boise to have Anderson freed from military prosecution, contending the Air Force had waived its jurisdiction in the case by turning Anderson over to civilian authorities at Mountain Home last April. The Air Force, however, contended that Anderson was not subject to habeas corpus relief because he was a military prisoner awaiting trial by courts-martial.

Federal Judge Chase A. Clark told both sides to submit written legal briefs on the matter and gave them 10 days each to do it. That was on Dec. 5. However, McLaughlin has discolsed he was given a 10-day extension so his briefs won't be due until Dec. 25.

The judge also urged the Air Force to dispose of its case against Anderson one way or the other as soon as possible. The hearings began last Monday and continued throughout the weekend were an effort to comply with that request. They will determine whether Anderson must stand trial by courts-martial.

CLEANUP—A workman gets ready to tow away one of several cars damaged by heat and fire yesterday in Sacramento after a speeding auto and a gasoline-bearing tank truck collided. The fuel spilled out and created a river of flame, burning homes and vehicles. The auto driver died. (AP Wirephoto)

One Perishes As River Of Gasoline Ignites Along Sacramento Street

SACRAMENTO (AP) — More than 50 persons were led to safety by four heroic policemen before dawn yesterday when five ancient frame homes and apartment houses were engulfed by a river of flaming gasoline from a wrecked tanker truck.

The double trailer rig exploded—spilling 8,750 gallons of flaming liquid over the street—after it was rammed by a speeding auto in an old downtown residential section four blocks from the State Capitol.

The driver of the car, Miss Frances Fontana, 41, divorced mother of an 18-year-old son, was burned to death.

James Moore, 32, of West Sacramento, the truck driver, was badly burned and is in critical condition at Sacramento County Hospital.

Seven parked cars were destroyed.

There was only one witness, Mario Betti, 31, of Sacramento. He said Miss Fontana's car sped through a red light at the intersection of Ninth and Q streets and crashed into the truck. He said he had stopped his car for the light.

"I still don't see how the truck driver got out," he said. "I saw him leaping through the flames. His clothes were burning and flesh was falling from his hands.

"I yelled for him to lie down and roll on the ground. He rolled into a puddle of water and put the fire out."

Two teams of city policemen, patrolling in the neighborhood, heard the explosion and saw the flames. Lewis Ban and Joe Harrington and Tom Stark and Paul Heitala sped to the scene.

Even though the blazing liquid was running down both streets and into yards, the four ran from building to building, kicking in doors and breaking windows, rousing residents and bringing them to safety.

Fireman said everyone living in the buildings had escaped uninjured.

Magazine Says Gov. Barnett Made 'Deal' Over Ole Miss

NEW YORK (AP) — Mississippi's Gov. Ross Barnett—despite public vows of defiance—had made a secret deal with U. S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy to enroll Negro James H. Meredith at the University of Mississippi, an article in the surrent issue of Look magazine says.

The article says Barnett conferred by telephone with Kennedy through the four days preceding the Sept. 30 riot at the university and proposed a plan that would allow Meredith to enter Ole Miss.

Reached by telephone for comment on the article, Barnett said:

"I haven't seen it. I don't know anything about it, and I have no comment."

Look reported:

The plan called for Barnett and Lt. Gov. Paul Johnson to stand at the university's gate, backed up by unarmed state patrolmen. Kennedy was to have Chief U. S. Marshal James McShane and 25 to 30 marshals bring Meredith to the gate.

"Barnett would refuse to let Meredith in. At this point, McShane would draw his gun, and the other marshals would slap their hands on their holsters. Barnett would then step aside and allow Meredith to register. The Mississippi highway patrol would maintain law and order.

"In his talk with Kennedy, the governor worried about how the scene would look to 'a big crowd.' If only one man drew his gun, Barnett felt that he could not back down. So Kennedy reluctantly agreed to have all the marshals draw their guns, Ross Barnett could surrender to prevent bloodshed."

The article said that on Sept. 30 Barnett telephoned the attorney general and suggested a new plan. The next morning, according to the plan, Barnett "would wait at the university gate backed by a phalanx of state troopers, who would be backed by sheriffs, who would be backed by citizens and students."

"Meredith should arrive with a large army force," the article went on. "The governor would read a proclamation barring him from Ole Miss. Then, Kennedy's men should draw their guns. Barnett would, he said, step aside."

The attorney general was incensed, said the article, and warned that "unless Barnett cooperated and helped maintain law and order while Meredith went on campus, the president would go on television and tell the country that Barnett had broken his word. To prove it, the president would tell all about the behind-scenes dickering."

The article continued: "This had a devastating effect. The governor's resistance seemed to melt away. Again and again, Barnett asked that the president say nothing on television that would unveil the nature of the secret phone calls."

MEREDITH TREATED LIKE DOG, HE SAYS

OXFORD, Miss. (UPI)—James Meredith returned to classes today following a weekend at home where he charged police trailed him and treated him "like a dog" when they arrested him on a traffic charge.

"They cursed me, called me a 'Nigger,' ordered me to say 'sir' to them and searched my car," the 29-year-old Negro student said.

Meredith said the incident happened in his hometown of Kosciusko, Miss., where he went to spend the weekend with his family. Police officials there refused to comment on the charges.

Meredith said a police car began following him when he left a barbershop and stopped him a short distance from his home. He was charged with failing to yield the right-of-way and posted $10 bond.

Trial on the charge is scheduled for city court Wednesday, and Meredith has indicated he will fight the charges rather than forfeit the fine.

"It was typical of the way Negroes are treated in Mississippi," he said. "This kind of intimidation is deplorable."

He charged that police officials searched his car while he was in the police station.

While Meredith was away for the weekend, handbills proclaiming him "still the most segregated 'kneegrow' in the United States" were distributed on the campus.

The handbills, carrying a replica of the Confederate flag at the top, were signed by the "rebel underground," an organization which claims to have strong support among university students.

"Despite the fact that the student spy ring has been increased, the rebel underground is becoming solider each passing day," the pamphlets said.

The handbills also lashed out at President John F. Kennedy and those advocating friendly acceptance of the Negro student.

Would-Be Thief Takes A Look, Gets No Loot

A would-be burglar made a lot of maneuvers at Zack's by the Bay in Sausalito early yesterday but left, apparently, without any loot.

Owner Sam Zakessian reported to police at 10:40 a.m. that someone had entered his restaurant at Bridgeway and Turney Street sometime between 2:30 and 5:30 a.m. Zakessian said the left drawer of the cash register was forced open, but nothing was kept in the register. The safe in an upstairs office had been moved, on its rollers, to the top of the stairs but was left there unopened.

French doors in the south wing of the building had large pry marks on them, Zakessian said, and one had been pried open. Someone had got onto the roof and broken a window to gain entrance tot he office.

Zakessian said he missed nothing but would make an inventory of his liquor.

Accused Robber Gets Court Date To Answer Charge

Jimmie B. Workman, 26, was re-arraigned in San Francisco Superior Court today and plea was set for 9:30 a.m. Jan. 4 on charges of six Bay Area bank robberies, two of which involved kidnaping of Marin county residents.

Workman faces a possible death penalty because of the kidnapings. The six robberies entailed a total of $150,000 allegedly taken.

Workman and a companion allegedly held Joseph A. Finocchio and his family hostage at their home at 3 Via La Cumbre, Greenbrae, Nov. 10, 1961. This preceded a robbery next day in which the Webster and Union branch of the Bank of America, managed by Finocchio, lost $62,693.

Workman was allegedly involved also in a robbery of the Airport Branch of the Bank of America in which William N. Hartauer of 45 Martens Boulevard, San Rafael, assistant controller of a restaurant next door to the bank was held captive in the trunk of his car. In this affair $6,766 was taken.

Sentence Given Grocery Robber

Dave Harrell Jr., 36, of Los Angeles, who helped rob Rayburn's Grocery in Novato last August, must spend from one to five years in state prison.

Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court sentenced Harrell to state prison today for being an accessory in the $890 holdup which occurred on Aug. 17.

John Henry Hill, 27, Harrell's companion in crime, is already in prison for armed robbery.

Yule Tree Proceeds Going To Rec Center

Thirteen teen-age students have set up a Christmas tree lot on Miller Avenue near Reed Street in Mill Valley to collect funds for the proposed youth center. So far they have collected $100 toward the center to be constructed on Project 17, according to Jim Kott, student.

Most of the students are Tamalpais High School youths and have been given permission by the school to work shifts during the day at the lot.

'Good Guy' Loses Cash To Thieves

A San Rafael baker decided to be a "good guy" yesterday and was promptly rewarded for his efforts by being robbed at gunpoint of about $40.

Gilbert Woodrow Morgan of 45 Harte Avenue owner of the Golden Cream Donut Shop at 1013 B Street was making doughnuts at 3 a.m. when three men, about 25 and 27 years old, walked in the unlocked store and asked for coffee.

Although the shop was not open for business, Morgan told the three neat looking men to "help themselves to coffee" at the self-service coffee dispenser, according to San Rafael police.

The three drank their coffee and walked up to the cash register. Then one drew a .38 caliber revolver and demanded, "Give me all the money in the register."

Morgan complied, handing over about $40 in small bills and change. The gunman then ordered him to go into the back room and stay there.

Morgan called police a few minutes later. He thought the robbers might have made their get away in a grey car which had been parked across the street.

Man Found By Roadside Tells Of Death Try

A man whose car was found abandoned near the north end of the Golden Gate Bridge, and who said he had jumped from the bridge-end into mud, was discovered lying on the ground beside Highway 101 near the Corte Madera overpass early yesterday.

He is Robert W. Bradley, 22, of San Mateo. A note in the car suggested a suicide attempt. He was placed in the Marin County Jail.

His coupe was found parked 300 feet north of the bridge at 5:10 a.m. The Coast Guard was notified and it searched waters under the bridge but found nothing.

A citizen phoned the California Highway Patrol at 8:10 a.m. telling of a man lying by the road shoulder near the overpass, and an ambulance was sent.

But the "body" arose and fled. Bradly was pursued and caught, subdued and taken to Marin General Hospital where he was found unharmed but said he had jumped from the north end of the bridge, only to land unharmed in mud, after which he walked north.

A sister, Joan Wagner of San Francisco, told police that her brother was extremely despondent and had said Saturday he was thinking of suicide.

The patrol arrested Roger C. Eagle-Taylor of San Francisco, a furniture designer, as he was walking south on the bridge at 1:20 a.m. and crying. He was taken to San Francisco General Hospital and held for observation.

Lights Taken

Mrs. Charles A. Doll reported to police at 12:45 a.m. Saturday that 12 lights were taken during the night from her outdoor Christmas tree before her home at 195 Buena Vista Avenue in Mill Valley.

Magazine Says Gov. Barnett Made 'Deal' Over Ole Miss

NEW YORK (AP) — Mississippi's Gov. Ross Barnett—despite public vows of defiance—had made a secret deal with U. S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy to enroll Negro James H. Meredith at the University of Mississippi, an article in the surrent issue of Look magazine says.

The article says Barnett conferred by telephone with Kennedy through the four days preceding the Sept. 30 riot at the university and proposed a plan that would allow Meredith to enter Ole Miss.

Reached by telephone for comment on the article, Barnett said:

"I haven't seen it. I don't know anything about it, and I have no comment."

Look reported:

The plan called for Barnett and Lt. Gov. Paul Johnson to stand at the university's gate, backed up by unarmed state patrolmen. Kennedy was to have Chief U. S. Marshal James McShane and 25 to 30 marshals bring Meredith to the gate.

"Barnett would refuse to let Meredith in. At this point, McShane would draw his gun, and the other marshals would slap their hands on their holsters. Barnett would then step aside and allow Meredith to register. The Mississippi highway patrol would maintain law and order.

"In his talk with Kennedy, the governor worried about how the scene would look to 'a big crowd.' If only one man drew his gun, Barnett felt that he could not back down. So Kennedy reluctantly agreed to have all the marshals draw their guns, Ross Barnett could surrender to prevent bloodshed."

The article said that on Sept. 30 Barnett telephoned the attorney general and suggested a new plan. The next morning, according to the plan, Barnett "would wait at the university gate backed by a phalanx of state troopers, who would be backed by sheriffs, who would be backed by citizens and students."

"Meredith should arrive with a large army force," the article went on. "The governor would read a proclamation barring him from Ole Miss. Then, Kennedy's men should draw their guns. Barnett would, he said, step aside."

The attorney general was incensed, said the article, and warned that "unless Barnett cooperated and helped maintain law and order while Meredith went on campus, the president would go on television and tell the country that Barnett had broken his word. To prove it, the president would tell all about the behind-scenes dickering."

The article continued: "This had a devastating effect. The governor's resistance seemed to melt away. Again and again, Barnett asked that the president say nothing on television that would unveil the nature of the secret phone calls."

MEREDITH TREATED LIKE DOG, HE SAYS

OXFORD, Miss. (UPI)—James Meredith returned to classes today following a weekend at home where he charged police trailed him and treated him "like a dog" when they arrested him on a traffic charge.

"They cursed me, called me a 'Nigger,' ordered me to say 'sir' to them and searched my car," the 29-year-old Negro student said.

Meredith said the incident happened in his hometown of Kosciusko, Miss., where he went to spend the weekend with his family. Police officials there refused to comment on the charges.

Meredith said a police car began following him when he left a barbershop and stopped him a short distance from his home. He was charged with failing to yield the right-of-way and posted $10 bond.

Trial on the charge is scheduled for city court Wednesday, and Meredith has indicated he will fight the charges rather than forfeit the fine.

"It was typical of the way Negroes are treated in Mississippi," he said. "This kind of intimidation is deplorable."

He charged that police officials searched his car while he was in the police station.

While Meredith was away for the weekend, handbills proclaiming him "still the most segregated 'kneegrow' in the United States" were distributed on the campus.

The handbills, carrying a replica of the Confederate flag at the top, were signed by the "rebel underground," an organization which claims to have strong support among university students.

"Despite the fact that the student spy ring has been increased, the rebel underground is becoming solider each passing day," the pamphlets said.

The handbills also lashed out at President John F. Kennedy and those advocating friendly acceptance of the Negro student.

Would-Be Thief Takes A Look, Gets No Loot

A would-be burglar made a lot of maneuvers at Zack's by the Bay in Sausalito early yesterday but left, apparently, without any loot.

Owner Sam Zakessian reported to police at 10:40 a.m. that someone had entered his restaurant at Bridgeway and Turney Street sometime between 2:30 and 5:30 a.m. Zakessian said the left drawer of the cash register was forced open, but nothing was kept in the register. The safe in an upstairs office had been moved, on its rollers, to the top of the stairs but was left there unopened.

French doors in the south wing of the building had large pry marks on them, Zakessian said, and one had been pried open. Someone had got onto the roof and broken a window to gain entrance tot he office.

Zakessian said he missed nothing but would make an inventory of his liquor.

Rambunctious Laughton Is Dead At 63

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A giant of the movies, Charles Laughton, who rambled through memorable films like a rambunctious elephant, is dead of cancer at 63.

Laughton died Saturday night at his home of cancer of the spine, a few weeks after ending a four-month hospital stay.

When the British-born actor left Cedars of Lebanon on Nov. 30, a friend confided:

"Charles knows he is going to die and, blustery as ever, says he's going to die in his own bed."

With him when he died wefe actress Elsa Lanchester, his one and only wife, and his younger brother Frank, retired from the family hotel business.

Mrs. Laughton, who married the actor in 1929 and became an American citizen with him in 1950, took the death very hard, Laughton's brother said.

"She has been with him every day through it all—for almost a year," said the brother.

High spots of a career that made Laughton the movies' top character actor for 30 years:

The sadistic Captain Bligh of the original "Mutiny on the Bounty"; the lecherous Henry VIII—the 1933 best actor Academy Award performance—or the lovable English butler reciting the Gettysburg address in a frontier saloon for "Ruggles of Red Gap."

The late Lou Costello once apologetically asked Laughton to play Captain Kidd in "Abbott and Costello Meet Captain Kidd."

"I was afraid to ask this great actor to do some of the hokum we had in the movie but after the first day, he was showing me how to hoke up the slapstick for more belly laughs," Costello once said.

Before he came to Hollywood, Laughton had won critical acclaim for his realistic portrayal of an American gangster in a London play.

His last movie role was that of Sen. Seab Cooley, a Southerner, in "Advise and Consent."

Little was known about Laughton's private life. He loved art—and had a collection of Renoirs, Utrillos, Cezannes and other French impressionists that few ever saw.

Laughton, educated at England's Stonyhurst College, was sent to London to learn the family profession—innkeeping—at Claridge's.

Instead, he spent all of his spare time and most of his money at the theater. During World War I, he enlisted as a private and was gassed at the front. Five years later, his father financed him at London's Royal Academy of Dramatic Art.

Before long, Laughton won the academy's highest award for his portrayal of Prof. Henry Higgins in George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion."

A decade ago, Laughton directed and starred in a critical and financial success of Shaw's "Don Juan in Hell."

The staging of this work had defied managers for 50 years. The work is the seldom-played third act of "Man and Superman."

Laughton, with actress Agnes Moorhead, Charles Boyer and Sir Cedric Hardwicke, played it in college towns before hitting Broadway.

27 Vehicle Accidents On Weekend

Twenty-seven vehicular accidents were reported on Marin County highways Saturday and yesterday by California Highway Patrol.

Most of the mishaps were minor, involving rear-end collisions with few injuries.

A Mill Valley woman and 13-year-old girl suffered shin bruises on the Richardson Bay Bridge at 7:40 p.m. yesterday when a car driven by Patrick M. Byrne of 16 Hilarita Avenue, Mill Valley, skidded into a car driven by Richard A. Peterson of San Bruno, who had halted because of a blown-out tire.

Slightly injured were Elizabeth Lentz and 13-year-old Sherrill Lentz, both of 81 Roque Moraes, Mill Valley, riding in the Byrne car. Byrne was cited on a charge of operating at unsafe speed.

Walter B. Webb of Tomales suffered minor head injuries when his sedan skidded off a curve of the Shoreline Highway, and into a dirt bank, at 12:10 p.m.

He was given medical attention at the Tomales home of Alice Cassity, a nurse.

Great Books On Radio

Machiavelli's "The Prince" will be discussed on the Great Books program on radio KTIM tomorrow at 9 p.m. by a discussion group from Mill Valley led by Mrs. Marjorie Scott.

Chamber Orchestra, Gwen Curatilo Draw An Enthuiastic Audience

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Hugo Rinaldi's San Rafael Chamber Orchestra and soprano Gwen Curatilo shared top honors last night in two exceptionally interesting works.

For the orchestra it was the "Double Concerto for Two String Orchestras, Piano and Tympani" by Martinu, and for the lovely guest artist it was "Bachianas Brasileiras No. 5" by Villa-Lobos.

The concert was the opening one in the orchestra's current series, and it drew a good sized and enthusiastic audience at San Rafael High School despite the rain.

The young San Francisco Opera soprano demonstrated why she is a gradually rising star on the operatic horizon. She is most attractive and has a naturally fine and well trained voice, but perhaps most appealing is her ability to communicate the feeling of what she is singing and its full dramatic values.

The Villa-Lobos work, accompanied by eight celli, was both a technical tour de force and an exquisitely lyrical piece, and her singing of Mimi's famous aria in Act I of "La Boheme" made one wish to hear her in this role.

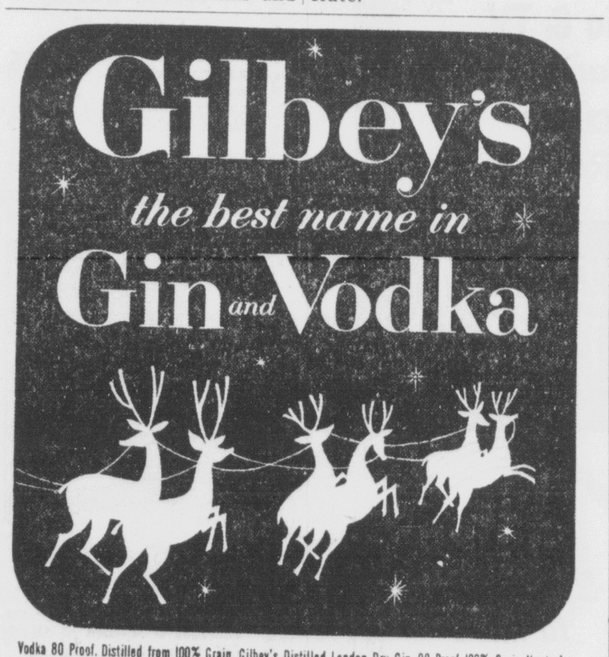

Under Rinaldi's direction the orchestra gave a vigorously dynamic performance of the Martinu Double Concerto—a work that would test the metal of any orchestra. So difficult are its driving polyrhythmical patterns that some obvious time counting was to be pardoned in view of the successful projection of its surging power and tensions and foreboding mood.

Pianist Faith Franco, because she seems to have a special talent for interpreting the modern dissonant and percussive idiom, was an excellent choice for the playing of the important piano part.

In the "Double Concerto in D minor for Two Violins and Orchestra" by J. S. Bach the duo violin performance of Everett O'Bannon and Ferdinand Claudio was notable for beauty of tone and technical mastery, and the work as a whole was good, but we have heard it done better.

The impressionistic "Night Piece for Flute and Strings" by Arthur Foote was idyllic with young Wendy Eisler showing great facility and producing a fine fluent tone on the flute.

Little was known about Laughton's private life. He loved art—and had a collection of Renoirs, Utrillos, Cezannes and other French impressionists that few ever saw.

Laughton, educated at England's Stonyhurst College, was sent to London to learn the family profession—innkeeping—at Claridge's.

Instead, he spent all of his spare time and most of his money at the theater. During World War I, he enlisted as a private and was gassed at the front. Five years later, his father financed him at London's Royal Academy of Dramatic Art.

Before long, Laughton won the academy's highest award for his portrayal of Prof. Henry Higgins in George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion."

A decade ago, Laughton directed and starred in a critical and financial success of Shaw's "Don Juan in Hell."

The staging of this work had defied managers for 50 years. The work is the seldom-played third act of "Man and Superman."

Laughton, with actress Agnes Moorhead, Charles Boyer and Sir Cedric Hardwicke, played it in college towns before hitting Broadway.

27 Vehicle Accidents On Weekend

Twenty-seven vehicular accidents were reported on Marin County highways Saturday and yesterday by California Highway Patrol.

Most of the mishaps were minor, involving rear-end collisions with few injuries.

A Mill Valley woman and 13-year-old girl suffered shin bruises on the Richardson Bay Bridge at 7:40 p.m. yesterday when a car driven by Patrick M. Byrne of 16 Hilarita Avenue, Mill Valley, skidded into a car driven by Richard A. Peterson of San Bruno, who had halted because of a blown-out tire.

Slightly injured were Elizabeth Lentz and 13-year-old Sherrill Lentz, both of 81 Roque Moraes, Mill Valley, riding in the Byrne car. Byrne was cited on a charge of operating at unsafe speed.

Walter B. Webb of Tomales suffered minor head injuries when his sedan skidded off a curve of the Shoreline Highway, and into a dirt bank, at 12:10 p.m.

He was given medical attention at the Tomales home of Alice Cassity, a nurse.

Great Books On Radio

Machiavelli's "The Prince" will be discussed on the Great Books program on radio KTIM tomorrow at 9 p.m. by a discussion group from Mill Valley led by Mrs. Marjorie Scott.

Chamber Orchestra, Gwen Curatilo Draw An Enthuiastic Audience

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Hugo Rinaldi's San Rafael Chamber Orchestra and soprano Gwen Curatilo shared top honors last night in two exceptionally interesting works.

For the orchestra it was the "Double Concerto for Two String Orchestras, Piano and Tympani" by Martinu, and for the lovely guest artist it was "Bachianas Brasileiras No. 5" by Villa-Lobos.

The concert was the opening one in the orchestra's current series, and it drew a good sized and enthusiastic audience at San Rafael High School despite the rain.

The young San Francisco Opera soprano demonstrated why she is a gradually rising star on the operatic horizon. She is most attractive and has a naturally fine and well trained voice, but perhaps most appealing is her ability to communicate the feeling of what she is singing and its full dramatic values.

The Villa-Lobos work, accompanied by eight celli, was both a technical tour de force and an exquisitely lyrical piece, and her singing of Mimi's famous aria in Act I of "La Boheme" made one wish to hear her in this role.

Under Rinaldi's direction the orchestra gave a vigorously dynamic performance of the Martinu Double Concerto—a work that would test the metal of any orchestra. So difficult are its driving polyrhythmical patterns that some obvious time counting was to be pardoned in view of the successful projection of its surging power and tensions and foreboding mood.

Pianist Faith Franco, because she seems to have a special talent for interpreting the modern dissonant and percussive idiom, was an excellent choice for the playing of the important piano part.

In the "Double Concerto in D minor for Two Violins and Orchestra" by J. S. Bach the duo violin performance of Everett O'Bannon and Ferdinand Claudio was notable for beauty of tone and technical mastery, and the work as a whole was good, but we have heard it done better.

The impressionistic "Night Piece for Flute and Strings" by Arthur Foote was idyllic with young Wendy Eisler showing great facility and producing a fine fluent tone on the flute.

Ship Said Ready For Havana

WASHINGTON (AP)—Loan of a ship to the Red Cross and reports of activity in the Baltimore port have stirred speculation that negotiations for release of 1,200 Cuban prisoners may be nearing a climax.

The speculation was heightened by these developments yesterday:

The Red Cross said the African Pilot had been made available to it for use if necessary, to ship medicines and supplies to Cuba as barter for the captives.

The Baltimore Sun said the African Pilot was raising steam and had signed most of her crew for a sailing time of noon today for Port Everglades, Fla., to pick up the cargo.

REPORT FROM WIFE

The wife of James B. Donovan, New York lawyer who has been negotiating with Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro for the prisoners' release said last night he had left New York, possibly for Washington.

The prisoners were captured in the ill-starred attempt to invade Cuba at the Bay of Pigs in April 1961. Donovan has been negotiating with Castro since August and at one point reportedly was close to an agreement: the prinsoners in exchange for medicine and other non-military items in short supply on the Communist island.

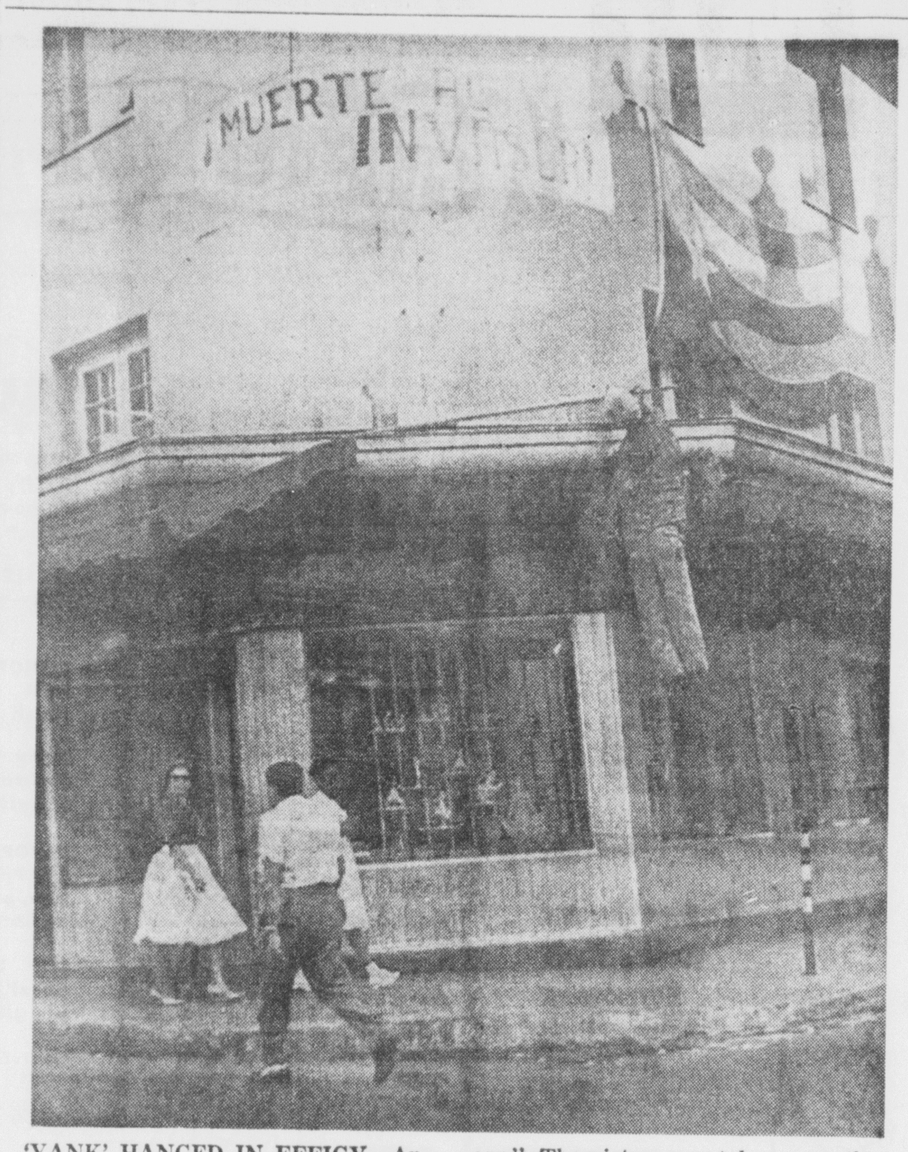

Castro had asked a ransom of 62 million dollars.

SHIP ON LOAN

Roy Johnson of the American Red Cross said the African Pilot has been loaned by the Farrell Lines. But he said he had no information about the prisoner negotiations.

The Sun said the ship apparently would not be unloaded in Cuba until the prisoners were en route by air to the United States, probably Miami.

Donovan, who negotiated the swap of Russian spy Rudolph Abel for American U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers, said he is representing the prisoners' families in the negotiations. There have been published reports the administration has taken an active behind-the-scenes role.

'YANK' HANGED IN EFFIGY—An effigy of a "Yanqui" was hanged in effigy on a street corner in Havana. The sign says "Death to All Invaders." The picture was taken recently by a Turkish newspaperman who returned to the U.S. earlier this month from a visit to Cuba. (AP Wirephoto)

Newsman Visits Cuba, Says Most People Are Against Reds, Castro

NEW YORK (AP)—A Turkish newspaperman just back from Havana says at least 90 per cent of the Cuban people "and probably more — are against the Communists and against Castro, too."

Goksin Sipahioglu, a free-lance reporter from Istanbul, said in an interview that there but the organizations cannot get together.

The newsman was in Cuba from mid-October until early December. He said Cubans told him:

The peasants, who were major supporters of Fidel Castro's revolution, angrily but passively as resisting the Communists. The peasants are angry because Castro collectivized the farm lands instead of distributing them among the peasants, as he promised.

Probably 9,000 peasants have been jailed ofr refusing to work in the fields. They refused because, even if paid, there was nothing to buy.

The skimpy food ration list for one person includes five eggs a month, three-fourths of a pound of meat a month, one banana a week, oranges only for the sick, a pound of potatoes a week and six pounds of rice per month.

On the virtually nonexistent list are cheese, milk, bacon, many kinds of vegetables, soap, wools and linens. Medicines are in very short supply.

Sipahioglu said he was told the Russians have two major camps in Cuba, one near Holguin in Oriente Province, and one in central Cuba near Ciego de Avila. Cubans are barred from the areas.

Castro rarely is seen in public. He spends most of his time at Havana University, arguing with the students who have been among the chief supporters of his regime. He denounces Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev violently.

The students are reported highly critical of the revolutionary government.

The newsman said he believes Castro is supported now only by those working for the regime, young men who like to carry guns and people who were misfits before the revolution.

Airman Booked On Charge Of Car Tampering

A Hamilton Air Force Base airman was booked in Marin County Jail last night by San Rafael police on car tampering and burglary charges after stolen flashlights, credit cards and other items were found on him.

Airman Basic Robert Edsel Sauve, 20, of the 78th Civil Engineer Squadron, was held on $3,150 bail in jail.

Police Officer Philip Green noticed Sauve arguing with Carol Lee Whitman and James Detels, both residents of apartments at 142 Park Street, San Rafael, at 10:18 p.m.

Sauve, according to police, had tried to start the Whitman car, parked in front of the apartments. He had in his possession articles taken from the car of Richard Schmidt of 1210 Grand Avenue while it was in the Schmidt garage. Schmidt identified the stolen items, police said.

Unity Goal Of State's Republicans

FRESNO (AP) — Unity is the order of the day—for the moment, at least—as divergent elements of California's Republican Party embark together on a search for the key that will return them to power.

The key, state GOP Chairman Caspar Weinberger told a weekend meeting of top state party leaders, is "a program of progress" which cannot stand intra-party wrangles and which requires the junking of labels such as "conservative" or "liberal" within the party.

AGAINST LABELS

"We must emphasize the goal and purposes that unite the GOP," he declared Saturday. "We must avoid being trapped in lengthy discussions of labels and spend more time in developing an efficient political weapon in California, stressing the role of the individual in contrast to the Democrats' view of narrowing it."

Conservatives, who had indicated they might challenge Weinberger's leadership, did not do so at the meeting of the executive body of the state central committee. No one showed up at a Friday night meeting called to explain how California Republicans should reorganize along conservative lines.

KNOWLAND SPEAKS

Former U.S. Sen. William F. Knowland provoked a standing ovation as he said, "I am prepared to get together with Dick Nixon, Tommy Kuchel, Goodie Knight and Joe Shell in the task necessary to carry forth a victory in 1964 and '66."

Weinberger told the 125 persons present that it would be premature to select a titular head of the state party—unoccupied since Nixon's defeat — until the GOP gubernatorial nominee for 1964 is picked.

Because of the earth's centrifugal force, 5,000 tons of cargo loaded on a ship in the vicinity of the equator would weigh 25 tons more at the poles.

HIGH COURT DISMISSES CHALLENGE TO BLUE LAW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Over a sharp dissent from Justice Douglas, the Supreme Court dismissed today a challenge of the constitutionality of Kentucky's Sunday closing law.

But in another case touching on the religion vs. state powers issue, the high court agreed to rule on the question of whether the rights of a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church were violated when she was denied unemployment compensation after refusing to work on Saturdays. This case comes from South Carolina.

And, in an action of major importance in an era when many manufacturing plants are moved because of tax inducements or other reasons, the high court declined to review and thus let stand a lower court ruling that employees have no vested right to jobs when a plant is moved from one state to another.

The actions were the highlights of the Supreme Court's last opinion day before a Christmas-New Year's recess. It will next hand down opinions on Jan. 7.

Kentuckys blue law differs from the no-work-on Sunday laws in other states in that it contains a clause reading as follows:

"Persons who are members of a religious society which observe as a Sabbath any other day in the week than Sunday shall not be liable to a penalty if they observe as a Sabbath one day in each seven."

The law does not mention by name any particular religious group.

The Supreme Court majority, presumably in an 8-1 division, dismissed the challenge of the law with a simple order saying no substantial federal question was presented.

But Justice Douglas filed a dis saying the clause in the law about observing a Sabbath other than Sunday plainly made it "an aid to all organized religions."

The case the court agreed to hear is an appeal by Adell H. Sherbert, 57, who said she was employed for 35 years in the Beaumont plant of Spartan Mills in Spartansburg, S. C.

In 1957, she said, she joined the Seventh-day Adventist Church and later was discharged for refusal to work on Saturday, her Sabbath.

South Carolina's Employment Security Commission denied her unemployment benefits, citing a state law requiring applicants for compensation must be available for work. The law also provides for disqualification of an applicant if the worker fails to accept available jobs without good cause.

The appeal said Adell Sherbert applied to other mills for work but they were on a six-day basis and she was unwilling to work on her Sabbath. The appeal cited the First Amendment's protection against impairment of free exercise of religion.

Girl, 5, Treated For Wreck Injuries

A five-year-old Mill Valley girl was reported in satisfactory condition today at Marin General Hospital after an automobile collision at 9:08 p.m. yesterday at Montford and Miller avenues. A second person was treated at the same hospital and sent home.

Megan Eaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Don Eaton of 63 Roque Moraes Drive, was reported by police to have struck the windshield of the car driven by her father when his car collided with a car driven by Glenn W. Coon Jr., 24, of Newark, Alameda County.

Miss Eaton was treated for chest bruises and admitted for observation. Coon's wife, Kathleen, 22, was examined and released.

Marin Labor Issues Warning On 'Journal'

Business concerns in Marin County have received mailed solicitations for advertising from a purported "labor journal" which local labor spokesmen believe has no official labor sponsorship or sanction.

The solicitation, printed in the form of a billing statement, is from the "California Union Labor Journal" in San Francisco. At the bottom of the sheet is a line of small print stating "this is a solicitation, not a bill."

Hugh Cassidy, secretary-treasurer of the Marin County Labor Council, said that as far as he knew the concern had no connection with any labor union.

"I never heard of it," he said.

Harold Rossman, editor of the North Bay Labor Journal, said he also knew of no official labor connection.

"There is an outfit that has been doing this sort of thing for years," he said. "They send these things out and maybe they print a few hundred of some kind of publication and drop a few bundles around labor halls."

Rossman said official labor publications have waged a continual battle to try to curb "fly-by-night operators."

Commission Due

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan today announced issuance of a notary public commission to Forrest E. Partridge, 49 Cascade Drive, Mill Valley.

Marinite Promoted

James R. Halsey, son of Mrs. Lenore G. Halsey, 139½ Laurel Avenue, San Anselmo, has been promoted to master sergeant in the U. S. Air Force at Ramstein Air Base, Germany.

Hearing Due In Liquor Charges

Charges against two Marin liquor licensees will be aired Dec. 26 in the Labor Council Building, 701 Mission Avenue, San Rafael, by the State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control.

An alleged license violation by Stanley Adams and Clyde Kong, proprietors of the Kau Kau Basket, 1919 Bridgeway, Sausalito, is to be heard at 10 a.m. before hearing officer Lloyd H. James. The accusation stems from Kong's arrest Sept. 23 in San Francisco on a charge of soliciting a person to commit a lewd act.

Scheduled for 1:30 p.m. is an accusation that Thirty Nine Main Street, Inc., at 39 Main Street, Tiburon, is not being operated as a bona fide eating place.

Board Meets At Civic Center Tomorrow

When the Marin County Board of Supervisors opens its first regular meeting in the new Civic Center at 9 a.m. tomorrow, one of the first orders of business will be consideration of the next phase of the Civic Center project.

Acting Auditor Michael said he is prepared to present to the board a proposed timetable for continued pay-as-you-go financing of the center's second wing, which will house the courts and related law enforcement departments.

"We should be able to contract for the second phase construction in August of 1966," Mitchell said. He estimates the second phase will cost about six million dollars at that time.

Other Civic Center matters which supervisors may discuss include staffing of the information booth, guided tours, and traffic.

County Administrator Alan Bruce will present information to the board concerning sweeping reclassifications and salary raises for about 70 county employees. The board last spring adopted a new policy whereby personnel changes for all departments will be considered in May and December of each year.

Novato Zoning Issue On Tap

Rezoning from retail business to restrictive commercial of five and one-half acres belonging to A. H. Tresch at Joan Avenue and Center Road, Novato, will come before the Novato planning commission at 8 o'clock tonight in the community building.

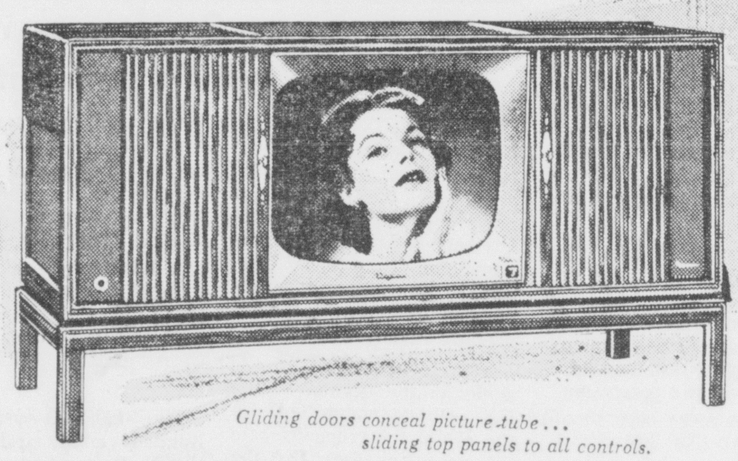

Mrs. Katherine Palau of 679 Cherry Street is asking to split approximately 19,000 square feet at Chase and Cherry streets into two lots.

The commission will also set the date for a public hearing on rezoning from limited agricultural to planned residential of approximately nine acres between Adrienne Street and Oleander Lane, requested by Gus Ravetz.

Marin Labor Issues Warning On 'Journal'

Business concerns in Marin County have received mailed solicitations for advertising from a purported "labor journal" which local labor spokesmen believe has no official labor sponsorship or sanction.

The solicitation, printed in the form of a billing statement, is from the "California Union Labor Journal" in San Francisco. At the bottom of the sheet is a line of small print stating "this is a solicitation, not a bill."

Hugh Cassidy, secretary-treasurer of the Marin County Labor Council, said that as far as he knew the concern had no connection with any labor union.

"I never heard of it," he said.

Little Leon DeLisle Grew Into Big Man In Marin Life

Some men go into public office and others grow in public office.

The latter describes Leon A. DeLisle, who died last week after serving for 25 years as the county's auditor.

Leon took the job when Marin County was small, before the Golden Gate Bridge began to empty thousands of new residents into the county daily. As his county grew, as his job grew, so did DeLisle.

His appearance wouldn't create this impression. Small of stature and quiet of voice, nervous and sometimes ill at ease, he seemed so shy it seemed unlikely he would be progressive, forward-looking in his professional life. And yet Leon DeLisle was one of the leaders in the Courthouse.

He led the way in the mechinization of county business procedures. He was in the forefront crying the need for adequate office facilities for county workers. He was a working member of the Civic Center committee which considered scores of architects and then selected Frank Lloyd Wright to design our newly opened government center.

The fact is that quiet, friendly, little Leon DeLisle knew what he wanted to do and how to go about doing it. He wasn't afraid to say what he thought in his subdued way, or, when necessary, his voice could come faster and his eyes spark as he made sure you knew he felt strongly about the situation.

It was possible to talk to Leon, to argue, to explain your position, to offer facts. He'd listen. Then, after he'd make up his mind, he'd stand up to anyone and make it clear what he believed.

Thus it was that he had many friends. Also many political supporters who, election after election, returned him to office, most recently only last June when he won a tremendous, unopposed affirmation of the public's trust.

Ironically, he was never able to occupy his new office in the Civic Center he had helped create. Had he lived only one more day, he could have been moved in. But it was not to be.

We're sure we speak for thousands of Marinites when we offer our deepest sympathy to his widow, Mary, and his family. Their loss also is ours.

Marin's Holiday Decorations

It is said that the American custom of having an evergreen tree at Christmas dates back to the Revolutionary War. Then, the homesick Hessian mercenaries, hired by the British to down the upstart colonists, brought their holiday custom with them.

We believe the Christmas berry custom came from England where the holly berries and holly leaves have been an integral part of the holiday tradition for generations.

But one would have to go far to find a place where Nature took better care of the holiday decorations than in Marin. On Tamalpais we have the king of the conifers—the Coast Redwoods. We have the holly-like leaves of our native live-oaks. And we have an abundance of bright red toyon berries.

Nature has decorated Marin well for the holidays.

WHEN PARENTS ABDICATE

The ultimate in child disobedience was probably reached recently when a 12-year-old girl and her brother, 9, established a reign of terror over their parents.

Details of the dictatorship came from a probation officer after the children were brought into juvenile court.

The children told their parents when to retire, setting 9:30 p.m. as the curfew hour.

Both youngsters went to school only when it pleased them. They drank alcoholic beverages at home. The boy took his father's cigarettes.

When the mother was asked how the whole thing started, she replied that it was failure to discipline both youngsters during their early years.

Children are cheated and exposed to living distorted lives if deprived of the devoted, thorough and long-range training that in God's plan only their parents can provide.

"The rod of correction gives wisdom, but a boy left to his whims disgraces his mother."

(Proverbs 29:15)

Grant to all parents, O Lord, the wisdom and patience they need to fulfil their noble role.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Mr. Ryan has just cause for taking pen in hand and expressing his shock and chagrin at the thought of this world's inhabitants embracing that facet of Rousseau's philosophy dealing with revolution and radicalism.

I agree with Mr. Ryan that as a man and philosopher, Rousseau left much to be desired and risks condemnation for many of his actions and opinions.

However, in regards to his concept of God and religion (that is Deism) I am in total accordance with, and if Mr. Ryan would re-read my letter he would find that this is what I was referring to—not Rousseau's doctrine of social upheaval, but his doctrine of social and religious justice.

Also, I would like to say at this time in recognition of Rousseau's worthwhile contributions, that his writings did much to influence social class leveling by instilling in the common man, the sentiments and ideals of brotherhood, freedom, and equality, and to deny and condemn Rousseau's advancement of democratic practice and theory along with his contributions to humanism as sick and insignificant would be in my opinion utterly absurd.

In conclusion, Mr. Ryan depicts Rousseau as a blackguard and fanatic; in this letter, I have attempted to correct that impression of Mr. Rousseau's character by presenting the better and more acceptable side of his nature and philosophy.

Fire Extinguisher For Every Car?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Every time I see one of these (a picture of a burned automobile) in the news—or in person on the highway—I wonder why insurance companies do not demand—and news agencies advertise the wisdom of every car having in its glove compartment a fire extinguisher.

I have carried one for years and have to my credit as a passing motorist TWO saved cars that would otherwise have burned completely. So far I have not needed it myself, thank goodness.

Wrote to A.A.A. and urged that this be written up in their monthly magazine but to date have not seen any such item.

How about the I-J doing a bit of work on this idea?

Reprehensible To Quiz Women

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The action of the House Un-American Activities Committee in investigating Women Strike for Peace is the most reprehensible in its career.

The women who vigorously protest the poisoning of the atmosphere by nuclear testing, and the increasing preparations for war, do so because they are members of the human race, and are deeply concerned for its future. The investigation is really into their affiliation with humanity, which the committee apparently finds un-American.

If mankind is to continue, the voices of reason and peace must be heard, to counteract both extremism and apathy in America.

REMEMBER WHEN

10 YEARS AGO

Persistent rumors of flying saucers over Marin County were declared by Hamilton Air Force Base officials to have originated in flights of jet planes around a giant B-36 aircraft.

R. M. Stelmack, legislative auditor's analyst, issued a report saying that the Golden Gate Bridge management did not follow standard accounting practice and that "manipulates in various funds" 14 million dollars in cash reserves.

20 YEARS AGO

Farmers having troubles about transportation, and holding war necessity certificates, were given opportunity to interview an Office of Defense Transportation examiner at the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce.

Corte Madera was in an uproar over dogs, one group complaining to the city council over recent poisoning of three dogs, and another group insisting that dogs are unlimited in number and all given to noisy barking which should be curbed by night.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

One of the deans at N.Y.U. recently engaged a young history professor in a game of ping-pong. The young professor, too eager to show his prowess, was way off form and was soundly trounced. "You tightened up too much," the dean told him when the match was over. "After this, try to remember an adage I've repeated to myself since I was a boy: a teacher should never be taut."

A pompous history professor from the U.S. was invited to address a group of university students while he was visiting Tokyo. The Japanese dean acted as interpreter, writing the gist of the professor's remarks in Japanese symbols on the blackboard. Soon, however, the Japanese dean put down his chalk and stopped writing. Later the American professor asked him why. "Here in Japan," explained the dean with a respectful bow, "we only write when the speaker says something."

Woman Wants To Give Away Good Clothing But No One Wants It

In this "Age of the Outstretched Hand" it sometimes seems as though it's difficult to give away something of value without going through channels.

Such a frustrated would-be donor was a lady who called the Independent-Journal the other day. Her feelings were a bit bent, and perhaps with good reason.

She said she had a quantity of perfectly good clothing that she was sure someone could use, but could find no one who would come and pick them up.

SHE HAD CALLED one charitable agency, she said, which gave her a big bag in which to put the clothing—but never came to pick it up as promised.

She called another charitable agency, but it wasn't interested in coming after the stuff. So she quickly concluded that nobody really wanted it, although both of the agencies she contacted are well known for their continual appeals for unwanted but usable goods.

"This isn't junk," said the lady. "It's all perfectly wearable, and I washed and pressed everything."

SHE SAID SHE has dresses, two good women's coats, men's and women's hats and other articles.

"I don't drive or I'd take them somewhere," she said. "There are probably a lot of other people in Marin who had this same experience. I guess the only thing for me to do is burn the things, but it seems such a waste."

Are those who ask for gifts in the name of charity becoming too choosy? Should an offer of a gift be ignored because the giver won't also deliver it?

ONE MIGHT BE reminded of the story about a seedy panhandler who approached a prospect on the street and asked for five dollars for a cup of coffee.

"Five dollars for a cup of coffee!" exclaimed the astounded man on whom the bite was put.

"Sure," replied the panhandler. "I need a shave and my suit pressed; you don't expect me to go into a restaurant looking like this, do you?"

U.S. Backdown On Hungary Vote A Setback For Self-Determination

WASHINGTON — Is the Kennedy administration about to back down on the strong stand which the United States has always taken to rally the UN behind its continued condemnation of the Soviet invasion of Hungary and its imposition by force of the repressive Kadar regime?

The Hungarian issue is again on the agenda of the UN political committee. On the eve of the crucial debate it is not yet apparent that the U. S. is prepared to put its full weight behind another vigorous resolution assuring the Hungarian people that the conscience — if not the force—of the free world is on the side of their ultimate liberation.

THE BEST THING that could happen is the passage of a U. S. resolution calling on the Soviet Union to comply with the past UN demands that it abandon its colonial policy, withdraw its troops from Hungarian soil, hold free elections in Hungary under UN supervision, and let Hungary be neutralized on the Austrian model.

The worst thing that could happen would be for the United States to accept some weak, pusillanimous resolution which would take the Soviet-run Kadar regime off the hook of UN ostracism and serve notice to the subject peoples of Moscow's nine captive nations in Eastern Europe that all hope of freedom and self-determination must be abandoned.

IT MAY TAKE public and congressional pressure to persuade the President and Secretary of State Rusk to try to hold the line against UN retreat and some quick footwork by Ambassador Adlai Stevenson to make up for the time lost by the failure to recide U. S. policy before the last minute.

The latest report of "Hungary Under Soviet Rule," prepared by the American Friends of the Captive Nations, the Assembly of Captive European Nations, and the Hungarian Committee shows:

That the Kadar regime, propped up by the continued presence of 80,000 Soviet troops, still rules Hungary with an iron fist.

That while there has been some superficial easing of repression, these concessions do not involve the restoration of a single fundamental political right.

That any action by the UN —and particularly by the United States—to "write them off" would have the most depressive effect on the Hungarians and tempt them to become resigned to their fate, because they would be without friends.

That if the U. S. acquiesces in a weak UN Hungarian resolution, the free world will lose some of its strongest allies in the peoples of Eastern Europe and its position vis-a-vis the Soviet Union will be weaker.

IT SEEMS TO me that the Kennedy administration and the U. S. senators and congressmen, who in the past have given their unanimous moral support to the peoples of the Eastern European captive nations in their hope for ultimate liberation, will do well to heed this conclusion from the report on "Hungary Under Soviet Rule."

"The handling of the Hungarian issue at this session of the General Assembly is more important as a barometer of U. S. policy than the vote of the Assembly itself.

"But if the majority decides to abandon the strong stand on Hungary—which expressed the conscience of the whole free world—the honor and prestige and influence of the UN itself is bound to suffer.

"It will mean the official elevation of a double standard which would press for freedom and self-determination for peoples of Africa and Asia, but deny this to the peoples of Eastern Europe.

"People will forgive the UN for its inability to get Soviet troops out of Hungary, but they will not forgive a UN failure to stand by its own resolutions when they are totally defied."

If the United Nations wants to abandon the cause of self-determination for the peoples of Eastern Europe, there is no reason the U. S. should join the enterprise.

WHEN PARENTS ABDICATE

The ultimate in child disobedience was probably reached recently when a 12-year-old girl and her brother, 9, established a reign of terror over their parents.

Details of the dictatorship came from a probation officer after the children were brought into juvenile court.

The children told their parents when to retire, setting 9:30 p.m. as the curfew hour.

Both youngsters went to school only when it pleased them. They drank alcoholic beverages at home. The boy took his father's cigarettes.

When the mother was asked how the whole thing started, she replied that it was failure to discipline both youngsters during their early years.

Children are cheated and exposed to living distorted lives if deprived of the devoted, thorough and long-range training that in God's plan only their parents can provide.

"The rod of correction gives wisdom, but a boy left to his whims disgraces his mother."

(Proverbs 29:15)

Grant to all parents, O Lord, the wisdom and patience they need to fulfil their noble role.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Mr. Ryan has just cause for taking pen in hand and expressing his shock and chagrin at the thought of this world's inhabitants embracing that facet of Rousseau's philosophy dealing with revolution and radicalism.

I agree with Mr. Ryan that as a man and philosopher, Rousseau left much to be desired and risks condemnation for many of his actions and opinions.

However, in regards to his concept of God and religion (that is Deism) I am in total accordance with, and if Mr. Ryan would re-read my letter he would find that this is what I was referring to—not Rousseau's doctrine of social upheaval, but his doctrine of social and religious justice.

Also, I would like to say at this time in recognition of Rousseau's worthwhile contributions, that his writings did much to influence social class leveling by instilling in the common man, the sentiments and ideals of brotherhood, freedom, and equality, and to deny and condemn Rousseau's advancement of democratic practice and theory along with his contributions to humanism as sick and insignificant would be in my opinion utterly absurd.

In conclusion, Mr. Ryan depicts Rousseau as a blackguard and fanatic; in this letter, I have attempted to correct that impression of Mr. Rousseau's character by presenting the better and more acceptable side of his nature and philosophy.

Fire Extinguisher For Every Car?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Every time I see one of these (a picture of a burned automobile) in the news—or in person on the highway—I wonder why insurance companies do not demand—and news agencies advertise the wisdom of every car having in its glove compartment a fire extinguisher.

I have carried one for years and have to my credit as a passing motorist TWO saved cars that would otherwise have burned completely. So far I have not needed it myself, thank goodness.

Wrote to A.A.A. and urged that this be written up in their monthly magazine but to date have not seen any such item.

How about the I-J doing a bit of work on this idea?

More Universal Meaning Now

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Once again as the season of Christmas approaches we are looking forward to the traditional Nativity Scene being displayed before the County Court House in San Rafael.

This year the message of "peace to men of good will" has more of a universal meaning than ever.

EDITOR,

I am writing to protest the inaccurate reporting which falsely quoted me as saying that I thought my son "a little bit crazy." Service to his country in Antarctica and the ability to withstand prolonged hardship seem to me anything but crazy.

I would like to go on record as saying that I am tremendously proud of him and I think it should be clearly understood that being included in this outstanding scientific project is a great honor.

Perhaps more boys should be "crazy" like this.

Reprehensible To Quiz Women

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The action of the House Un-American Activities Committee in investigating Women Strike for Peace is the most reprehensible in its career.

The women who vigorously protest the poisoning of the atmosphere by nuclear testing, and the increasing preparations for war, do so because they are members of the human race, and are deeply concerned for its future. The investigation is really into their affiliation with humanity, which the committee apparently finds un-American.

If mankind is to continue, the voices of reason and peace must be heard, to counteract both extremism and apathy in America.

10 YEARS AGO

Persistent rumors of flying saucers over Marin County were declared by Hamilton Air Force Base officials to have originated in flights of jet planes around a giant B-36 aircraft.

R. M. Stelmack, legislative auditor's analyst, issued a report saying that the Golden Gate Bridge management did not follow standard accounting practice and that "manipulates in various funds" 14 million dollars in cash reserves.

20 YEARS AGO

Farmers having troubles about transportation, and holding war necessity certificates, were given opportunity to interview an Office of Defense Transportation examiner at the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce.

Corte Madera was in an uproar over dogs, one group complaining to the city council over recent poisoning of three dogs, and another group insisting that dogs are unlimited in number and all given to noisy barking which should be curbed by night.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

One of the deans at N.Y.U. recently engaged a young history professor in a game of ping-pong. The young professor, too eager to show his prowess, was way off form and was soundly trounced. "You tightened up too much," the dean told him when the match was over. "After this, try to remember an adage I've repeated to myself since I was a boy: a teacher should never be taut."

A pompous history professor from the U.S. was invited to address a group of university students while he was visiting Tokyo. The Japanese dean acted as interpreter, writing the gist of the professor's remarks in Japanese symbols on the blackboard. Soon, however, the Japanese dean put down his chalk and stopped writing. Later the American professor asked him why. "Here in Japan," explained the dean with a respectful bow, "we only write when the speaker says something."

Woman Wants To Give Away Good Clothing But No One Wants It

In this "Age of the Outstretched Hand" it sometimes seems as though it's difficult to give away something of value without going through channels.

Such a frustrated would-be donor was a lady who called the Independent-Journal the other day. Her feelings were a bit bent, and perhaps with good reason.

She said she had a quantity of perfectly good clothing that she was sure someone could use, but could find no one who would come and pick them up.

SHE HAD CALLED one charitable agency, she said, which gave her a big bag in which to put the clothing—but never came to pick it up as promised.

She called another charitable agency, but it wasn't interested in coming after the stuff. So she quickly concluded that nobody really wanted it, although both of the agencies she contacted are well known for their continual appeals for unwanted but usable goods.

"This isn't junk," said the lady. "It's all perfectly wearable, and I washed and pressed everything."

SHE SAID SHE has dresses, two good women's coats, men's and women's hats and other articles.

"I don't drive or I'd take them somewhere," she said. "There are probably a lot of other people in Marin who had this same experience. I guess the only thing for me to do is burn the things, but it seems such a waste."

Are those who ask for gifts in the name of charity becoming too choosy? Should an offer of a gift be ignored because the giver won't also deliver it?

ONE MIGHT BE reminded of the story about a seedy panhandler who approached a prospect on the street and asked for five dollars for a cup of coffee.

"Five dollars for a cup of coffee!" exclaimed the astounded man on whom the bite was put.

"Sure," replied the panhandler. "I need a shave and my suit pressed; you don't expect me to go into a restaurant looking like this, do you?"

U.S. Backdown On Hungary Vote A Setback For Self-Determination

WASHINGTON — Is the Kennedy administration about to back down on the strong stand which the United States has always taken to rally the UN behind its continued condemnation of the Soviet invasion of Hungary and its imposition by force of the repressive Kadar regime?

The Hungarian issue is again on the agenda of the UN political committee. On the eve of the crucial debate it is not yet apparent that the U. S. is prepared to put its full weight behind another vigorous resolution assuring the Hungarian people that the conscience — if not the force—of the free world is on the side of their ultimate liberation.

THE BEST THING that could happen is the passage of a U. S. resolution calling on the Soviet Union to comply with the past UN demands that it abandon its colonial policy, withdraw its troops from Hungarian soil, hold free elections in Hungary under UN supervision, and let Hungary be neutralized on the Austrian model.

The worst thing that could happen would be for the United States to accept some weak, pusillanimous resolution which would take the Soviet-run Kadar regime off the hook of UN ostracism and serve notice to the subject peoples of Moscow's nine captive nations in Eastern Europe that all hope of freedom and self-determination must be abandoned.

IT MAY TAKE public and congressional pressure to persuade the President and Secretary of State Rusk to try to hold the line against UN retreat and some quick footwork by Ambassador Adlai Stevenson to make up for the time lost by the failure to recide U. S. policy before the last minute.

The latest report of "Hungary Under Soviet Rule," prepared by the American Friends of the Captive Nations, the Assembly of Captive European Nations, and the Hungarian Committee shows:

That the Kadar regime, propped up by the continued presence of 80,000 Soviet troops, still rules Hungary with an iron fist.

That while there has been some superficial easing of repression, these concessions do not involve the restoration of a single fundamental political right.

That any action by the UN —and particularly by the United States—to "write them off" would have the most depressive effect on the Hungarians and tempt them to become resigned to their fate, because they would be without friends.

That if the U. S. acquiesces in a weak UN Hungarian resolution, the free world will lose some of its strongest allies in the peoples of Eastern Europe and its position vis-a-vis the Soviet Union will be weaker.

IT SEEMS TO me that the Kennedy administration and the U. S. senators and congressmen, who in the past have given their unanimous moral support to the peoples of the Eastern European captive nations in their hope for ultimate liberation, will do well to heed this conclusion from the report on "Hungary Under Soviet Rule."

"The handling of the Hungarian issue at this session of the General Assembly is more important as a barometer of U. S. policy than the vote of the Assembly itself.

"But if the majority decides to abandon the strong stand on Hungary—which expressed the conscience of the whole free world—the honor and prestige and influence of the UN itself is bound to suffer.

"It will mean the official elevation of a double standard which would press for freedom and self-determination for peoples of Africa and Asia, but deny this to the peoples of Eastern Europe.

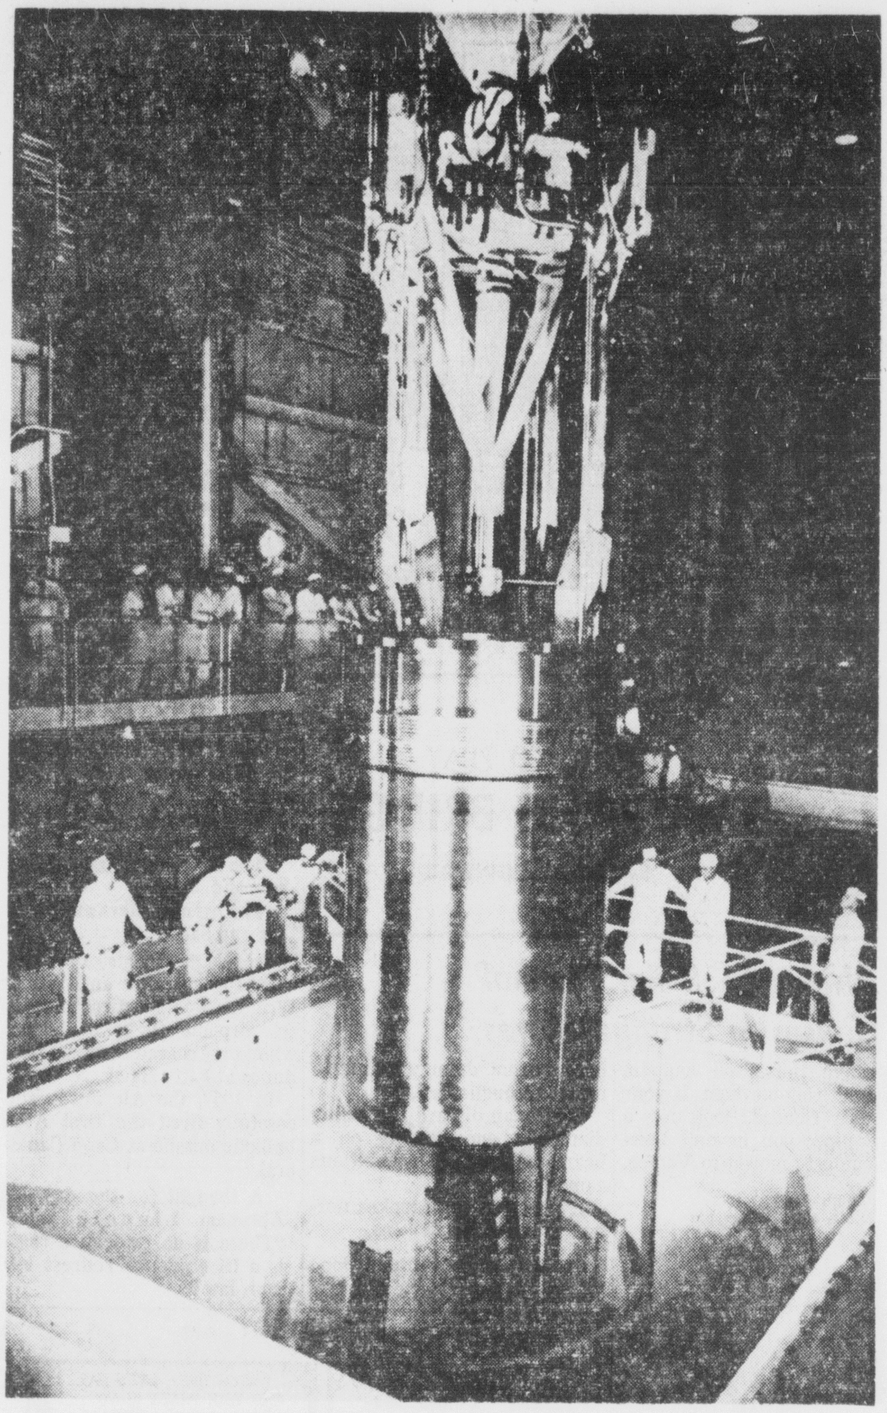

"People will forgive the UN for its inability to get Soviet troops out of Hungary, but they will not forgive a UN failure to stand by its own resolutions when they are totally defied."

If the United Nations wants to abandon the cause of self-determination for the peoples of Eastern Europe, there is no reason the U. S. should join the enterprise.

Atom-Power Keeps Electricity Flowing

By JOHN A. CARROLL

U. P. International

It was 12:39 by the clock on the wall in the big control room.

Jack Waugaman, a switchboard operator, stepped in front of a huge panel dotted with dials, pushbuttons, flashing lights and other assorted indicators. He fingered the instruments expertly and brought a turbine generator into synchronization.

In so doing Wantaugh activated the world's first full-scale atomic electric power plant designed exclusively for peaceful purposes.

The place was Shippingport, Pa., a small Ohio River town about 25 air miles northewst of Pittsburgh. The date, Dec. 18, 1957—five years ago tomorrow.

The Shippingport Atomic Power Station, a joint venture of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission and Doquesne Light Co. of Pittsburgh, initially went into operation on a test basis.

Now, some 1,153,000,000 kilowatt hours later, a housewife in Beaver, Pa., flips a switch and her electric mixer swirls into action.

A class bell rings and children hurry down a corridor of a junior high school in Monaca.

The street lights come on in Midland.

There is a good chance the electricity that powered the mixer, rang the class bell and give Midland light came from the atomic reactor at Shippingport.

The atomic-produced power and that from conventional sources mix together to serve the Western Pennsylvania area.

"We do not know exactly which communities in our system receive power from Shippingport," a Duquesne Light spokesman said. "But it's a good bet that towns and cities like Monaca, Beaver and others in the immediate vicinity of the atomic plant get their share."

At present, the Shippingport plant is temporarily out of service. It is being refueled for the third time since that eventful day in 1957. Electrical output is halted during refueling.

But progress is being made even in this highly technical maneuver.

When the fuel for the 58-ton nuclear core was changed the first time the proces took five months, between November, 1959, and April, 1960. The second refueling last year was completed in two months.

This time, the process was begun on Nov. 23 and the plant will be operative again in January — or about six weeks time.

The Shippingport station was designed to supply enough power to privde for the residential needs for a city of 250,000 residents.

The 1,153,000,000 kilowatt hours produced at Shippingport since it opened represent enough power to supply 100,000 average homes for about four years.

The town of Shippingport has 383 residents. The population hasn't changed since the atomic power station was built. But feelings have changed.

Mrs. Carl Calhoon operates a restuarant in town. When construction of the plant began back in 1953, her business picked up. She also got to know the workers because they usually had lunch at her place.

"Quite a few people had fears at the time," she recalled. "Occasinally, it would be mentioned that the plant might blow up, but I never felt that way. The workers assured me there was no danger."

Mrs. Louis Dydek, mother of three children ranging in age from 4 to 10 years, said initally she was frightened by thoughts of an atomic power plant. "But that fear is all over now."

"At first I was afraid . . . I wanted to move out," she said. "Now, I don't even give it (the plant) much thought."

San Rafael Cafe Owner Sells Out

D. L. Camenos, 55, who has been in the restaurant business in San Rafael all his life, sold his Paris Cafe, at 809 B Street, Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gonzales, who will specialize in Mexican-American dishes.

Camenos has owned the restaurant for three years. He said he did not know exactly what he would do next.

"My plans are up in the air," he said, "but you can say I'm going to get some rest."

He has worked in the cafe from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. every day and has just had one person helping him.

His father, the late Louis D. Camenos, once operated a restaurant on Fourth Street.

"I have always been in this business," Camenos said.

He was a little sad when he put in his last day Saturday, mainly because he will not be able to wish his customers Merry Christmas from his place at the counter.

"I want to take this opportunity to say Merry Christmas now," he said.

Would-Be Auto Thief Hit By Barefoot Owner

A would-be car thief got knocked down twice Saturday night by two punches thrown by a San Rafael resident who caught the thief trying to start his car.

Jack Lee Buttruy of 1441 Lincoln Avenue told police his wife heard a car horn blow in front of their residence at about 11:30 p.m. and saw a man trying to start their car.

Buttruy rushed out of the house in his bare feet, caught the man behind the wheel and punched him twice, knocking him to the ground. The man fled south on Lincoln Avenue. Police searched the area but were unable to find a suspect.

Soil Directors File For Positions

The three directors of the Marin County Soil Conservation District filed Friday for reappointment by the county board of supervisors when their terms expire March 5.

Board chairman Waldo Giacomini and directors Louis Albini and Thomas Furlong Jr. are seeking reappointment to the board unopposed.

Santa Claus Getting Lots Of Mail But There Are Answers Aplenty

Again this year Santa Claus is being swamped with mail, but he is finding lots of helpers in Marin.

The students in Mrs. Frank Scott's eighth grade English class at Santa Venetia Junior High School take on the job each December.

They answer letters addressed to "Santa Claus, North Pole," collected by Mrs. Scott from the San Rafael Post Office.

There is also a YMCA group which has taken up the job of answering Santa's mail for the first time this year.

Mrs. Scott's students like like their assignments so much they often join Mrs. Scott after school to answer overflow letters. The last replies are mailed so they arrive at the children's homes Dec. 24.

"They can't wait to start answering the letters," said Mrs. Scott. "They start asking for them in November, and I let them start in December. This year we've already replied to more than a hundred."

The students pretend to be Santa or his elves, said Mrs. Scott.

"They don't promise anything," she said, "because, of course, they don't know the circumstances of any of the families."

Mrs. Scott began her writing project "more years ago than the students are old," she said, "but I don't tell them that. The students regard writing the letters as a privilege and guard it closely. They're afraid I may let my seventh graders do it."

A number of the young ones worry whether Santa will visit them, and the students often must reassure them. "Don't worry," wrote one, "I come to every house."

"I am sitting in a rocking chair by the fire," wrote another student, "and Mrs. Santa Claus is making a big bowl of soup."

Many of the youngsters are apprehensive about their behavior and the rewards it might reap. One wrote she had brushed her teeth; another that she had made her bed for the first time.

Requests, said Mrs. Scott, are generally "down to earth. But one boy asked Santa to bring his mother a big black poodle, and another boy said he doesn't care if Santa brings him anything if he just brings a baby to his mama."

But the class favorite, said Mrs. Scott, came from a five-year-old who wrote: "I have been working ever since June. I only wet my bed once. I hope you will come to my house."

Claudia Chunche, 15, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Chunche, 125 Jewell Court, San Rafael, said she suggested to her San Rafael YMCA group that they take up answering Santa Claus letters. So far they have answered 14.

Claudia, a sophomore at San Rafael High School, said the strangest letter was one asking only for some ribbon.

"Most of the letters fill a whole page listing things they want," she said.

The letters Claudia liked best simply said:

"Dear Santa—I love the presents you gave me last Christmas day."

Student Debate On Free Trade

Free trade was debated by high school students for junior high school students today in San Rafael.

Four members of the Tamalpais High School Speech Club debated the proposition, "Resolved: That the United States should develop a policy of free trade with non-communist nations," before Davidson Junior High School students in the Davidson gymnasium.

Sixth graders from neighboring Laurel Dell School and members of "more able learners" groups in upper grades of other San Rafael elementary school also attended. Debaters were Joyce Williams, Jim Cooper, Daniel Rein, and Elizabeth Goldblatt.

Named Art Editor

David Nightingale, a freshman at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Cambridge, Mass., has been appointed art editor of the campus humor magazine, VooDoo. Nightingale, who will visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Nightingale of Larkspur during the holidays, will take his new post next spring.

Interracial Group Attends Yule Party

About 20 members of the newly formed Protestant Interracial Fellowship attended a Christmas party yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pratt at 132 Del Casa Drive, Mill Valley.

Dr. Edward L. Kessel of Novato, chairman of the group, which is sponsored by the Marin Council of Churches, said it "will not be just another study group. . . . It will not be just another action group. . . . PIF will be what its name implies—a fellowship of believers united across racial and denominational lines."

Frightening Asthma Attacks End In Minutes As New Formula Unblocks Lung Passages Fast

New Medical Formula Restores Free Breathing Without Vaccines, Shots Or Narcotics. Calms Anxiety. No Prescription Needed.

New York, N.Y. (Special)—A team of scientists has announced a new formula that stops frightening asthma attacks in minutes and unblocks lung passages fast.

Medical tests prove this formula promptly restores free breathing, so calms anxiety and relieves the worst symptoms of asthma—the straining for breath, the gasping, the wheezing, the terrible fear of suffocation. All without vaccines, painful shots or habit-forming drugs. This formula is so safe when used as directed, it can be sold without prescription in tiny tablets called BRONITIN®.

Doctors know that when asthma strikes, breathing tubes become swollen, lung passages become blocked, so air is "trapped" inside lungs and less and less oxygen can enter. Now BRONITIN, with two asthma relieving medicines that doctors prescribe for their patients, acts quickly to open bronchial tubes and loosen the mucus that blocks lung passages. Trapped air is released and new vital oxygen enters the lungs.

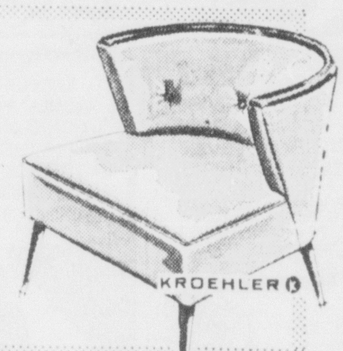

The result is: free breathing is restored, tension eased and so fears are calmed in minutes. Sufferers can now look forward to restful sleep.

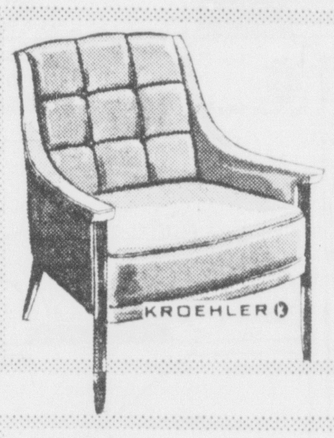

Get BRONITIN—available at all drug stores without prescription.

Board chairman Waldo Giacomini and directors Louis Albini and Thomas Furlong Jr. are seeking reappointment to the board unopposed.

Santa Claus Getting Lots Of Mail But There Are Answers Aplenty

Again this year Santa Claus is being swamped with mail, but he is finding lots of helpers in Marin.

The students in Mrs. Frank Scott's eighth grade English class at Santa Venetia Junior High School take on the job each December.

They answer letters addressed to "Santa Claus, North Pole," collected by Mrs. Scott from the San Rafael Post Office.

There is also a YMCA group which has taken up the job of answering Santa's mail for the first time this year.

Mrs. Scott's students like like their assignments so much they often join Mrs. Scott after school to answer overflow letters. The last replies are mailed so they arrive at the children's homes Dec. 24.

"They can't wait to start answering the letters," said Mrs. Scott. "They start asking for them in November, and I let them start in December. This year we've already replied to more than a hundred."

The students pretend to be Santa or his elves, said Mrs. Scott.

"They don't promise anything," she said, "because, of course, they don't know the circumstances of any of the families."

Mrs. Scott began her writing project "more years ago than the students are old," she said, "but I don't tell them that. The students regard writing the letters as a privilege and guard it closely. They're afraid I may let my seventh graders do it."

A number of the young ones worry whether Santa will visit them, and the students often must reassure them. "Don't worry," wrote one, "I come to every house."

"I am sitting in a rocking chair by the fire," wrote another student, "and Mrs. Santa Claus is making a big bowl of soup."

Many of the youngsters are apprehensive about their behavior and the rewards it might reap. One wrote she had brushed her teeth; another that she had made her bed for the first time.

Requests, said Mrs. Scott, are generally "down to earth. But one boy asked Santa to bring his mother a big black poodle, and another boy said he doesn't care if Santa brings him anything if he just brings a baby to his mama."

But the class favorite, said Mrs. Scott, came from a five-year-old who wrote: "I have been working ever since June. I only wet my bed once. I hope you will come to my house."

Claudia Chunche, 15, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Chunche, 125 Jewell Court, San Rafael, said she suggested to her San Rafael YMCA group that they take up answering Santa Claus letters. So far they have answered 14.

Claudia, a sophomore at San Rafael High School, said the strangest letter was one asking only for some ribbon.

"Most of the letters fill a whole page listing things they want," she said.

The letters Claudia liked best simply said:

"Dear Santa—I love the presents you gave me last Christmas day."

Student Debate On Free Trade

Free trade was debated by high school students for junior high school students today in San Rafael.

Four members of the Tamalpais High School Speech Club debated the proposition, "Resolved: That the United States should develop a policy of free trade with non-communist nations," before Davidson Junior High School students in the Davidson gymnasium.

Sixth graders from neighboring Laurel Dell School and members of "more able learners" groups in upper grades of other San Rafael elementary school also attended. Debaters were Joyce Williams, Jim Cooper, Daniel Rein, and Elizabeth Goldblatt.

Named Art Editor

David Nightingale, a freshman at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Cambridge, Mass., has been appointed art editor of the campus humor magazine, VooDoo. Nightingale, who will visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Nightingale of Larkspur during the holidays, will take his new post next spring.

Interracial Group Attends Yule Party

About 20 members of the newly formed Protestant Interracial Fellowship attended a Christmas party yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pratt at 132 Del Casa Drive, Mill Valley.

Dr. Edward L. Kessel of Novato, chairman of the group, which is sponsored by the Marin Council of Churches, said it "will not be just another study group. . . . It will not be just another action group. . . . PIF will be what its name implies—a fellowship of believers united across racial and denominational lines."

Frightening Asthma Attacks End In Minutes As New Formula Unblocks Lung Passages Fast

New Medical Formula Restores Free Breathing Without Vaccines, Shots Or Narcotics. Calms Anxiety. No Prescription Needed.

New York, N.Y. (Special)—A team of scientists has announced a new formula that stops frightening asthma attacks in minutes and unblocks lung passages fast.

Medical tests prove this formula promptly restores free breathing, so calms anxiety and relieves the worst symptoms of asthma—the straining for breath, the gasping, the wheezing, the terrible fear of suffocation. All without vaccines, painful shots or habit-forming drugs. This formula is so safe when used as directed, it can be sold without prescription in tiny tablets called BRONITIN®.

Doctors know that when asthma strikes, breathing tubes become swollen, lung passages become blocked, so air is "trapped" inside lungs and less and less oxygen can enter. Now BRONITIN, with two asthma relieving medicines that doctors prescribe for their patients, acts quickly to open bronchial tubes and loosen the mucus that blocks lung passages. Trapped air is released and new vital oxygen enters the lungs.

The result is: free breathing is restored, tension eased and so fears are calmed in minutes. Sufferers can now look forward to restful sleep.

Get BRONITIN—available at all drug stores without prescription.

Opening lead — ♣ Q

South ruffed the second club, led a trump to the dummy, and returned a heart. East played low, and South put up the king. This cost him three heart tricks and the contract.

NORTH IRKED

North was not amused. "Didn't you hear that vulnerable overcall?" he asked.

"I've seen him bid before," South retorted. "He bids on garbage."

North pointed out that East had already shown up with the ace of clubs. How could East keep silent if he also held the ace of hearts?

Some day, if he lives long enough, South will be right. West will make a vulnerable overcall on a worthless hand, and East will fail to raise with two aces. Until that day dawns South will be better off making the normal assumption that an overcall shows strength and that a pass shows weakness.

LEAD NOW

After ruffing the second round of clubs, South should lead a low heart from his hand. If West has the ace of hearts there is no advantage in giving him anything but a low heart to capture.

West plays the nine, and dummy's ten forces out East's jack. South ruffs the club return and leads another low heart.

This time West must play the ace willy-nilly.

Now South can win the return, draw trumps, and lead hearts from dummy for a finesse through East.

South can discard the losing diamond from dummy on a heart, making his ambitious game contract.

Marin Catholic Wins Holiday Cage Tourney Title

VICTORY CELEBRATION—Jubilant Marin Catholic players whoop it up in locker room after winning the Marin Athletic League Christmas Basketball Championship Saturday night with 44-37 decision over San Rafael.

(Independent-Journal photos by Harold Mathias)

SCRAMBLE — Marin Catholic's Mike Ferrua (32) and San Rafael's Rick Ahern (41) scramble for loose ball in fourth period of championship game as Rod Monti (42) of San Rafael and Jim Langbehn (14) of Marin look on. Ferrua was star in Marin's victory.

Trade Sets Giants For '63 Flag Chase

The San Francisco Giants are all set for defense of their National League championship, Vice President Chub Feeney said today.

They don't anticipate any more trades this winter. In fact, they'll wait until spring training to look for any more weaknesses on the club.

With their six-man swap with Baltimore now on record, the Giants feel they are ready. Here are the men obtained since the club went down to defeat to the New York Yankees in the World Series:

—Pitcher Billy Hoeft, 30, a left-handed relief ace.

—Pitcher Jack Fisher, 23, right-handed starter.

—Catcher Jim Coker, 26, just out of the Army.

—Infielder Joey Amalfitano, 28, a former Giant.

"We believe we are set now," says Feeney. "We aren't even looking around. We'll wait until spring training to see if any weaknesses develop."

TO ORIOLES

To get these men, the Giants sent pitchers Stu Miller and Mike McCormick and catcher John Orsino to Baltimore for Hoeft, Fisher and Coker; and to get Amalfitano from Houston they parted with southpaw hurler Dick LeMay and outfielder Manny Mota, both of whom saw very little service with the champs.

This is Amalfitano's third tour of duty with the Giants—and this time he may stick. He can play third, second and short and is a fairly good hitter.

Feeney admits that parting with the trio of Miller (5-8) and McCormick (5-5) is a gamble; and also that the records of the new men isn't anything to shout about. Hoeft was 4-8, mostly in relief roles; and Fisher was 7-9.

IT'S A GAMBLE

"But you always take a gamble when you make a trade," said Chub. "And you don't know until two or three years later how you come out."

The Giants figure Fisher as the key man in the trade as far as they are concerned; the Orioles think Orsino is the key for them.

Fisher is young, has a good variety of stuff; fine control and an intense desire to win. Hoeft also has good control, and appeared in more than 50 games last year.

Fisher probably will work into a starting berth, behind Juan Marichal, Jack Sanford and Billy O'Dell, possibly along with Bob Bolin, who may be promoted from relief roles.

IN THE BULLPEN

Hoeft will be working with Don Larson, possibly Bolin and one or two others in the bullpen.

Coker will be behind Tom Haller and Ed Bailey in the catching department — if he sticks with the club.

49ers Were Left With Mud On Their Faces, A Losing Season

RANDOL

Kezar Stadium played host to rain, mud, seagulls, the Cleveland Browns and the San Francisco 49ers, and about 15,000 masochcistic, diehard football fans Saturday.

The Brownies left town with the soggy game ball, some mud-soaked uniforms, and an unpalatable 13-10 win over the home towners. The 49ers were left with mud in their faces and the bitter memories of a losing season. Even the seagulls were complaining over their dividend of empty bottles and soggy hot-dog buns.

True enough, there were some moments of high interest, especially during the first half. But any resemblance to a great football game was purely incidental.

THE THING that sticks in my craw is the way some football coaches can't see the woods for the trees. Thousands of dollars and endless hours are spent to bring each club near a peak of perfection each weekend, and then the game is thrown away for lack of preparation for some small detail.

At the end of the first half, the 49ers were definitely in the game, and John Brodie was pitching brilliantly in spite of the elements. With drives going in the third and fourth quarter, both Brodie and the tireless J. D. Smith were showing obvious annoyance at being unable to dry their hands between plays.

The only towel available was on the backside of one of the 49er linemen, and it was as muddy and soggy as any of the players. Not until late in the fourth quarter did Coach Red Hickey send in a clean towel. Maybe the front office brass have started a new austerity program.

ONE OF the funnier sights of the fourth quaretr was the entry of re-activated back Kay McFarland with his clean jersey. That wasn't affection the 49er ball handlers were showing him, it was just a new and cleaner place to wipe off the mud.

After the game, quarterback Brodie complained that it was almost impossible to pick out a pass receiver in the second half as players of both teams were so mud-coated they could not be differentiated. It would seem to me that a new, clean set of jerseys would have solved the problem and turned the tide in favor of the Hickeymen. No soap. The tattletale grey stayed in and the game was lost.

The small crowd was of little immediate concern to the front office. The money for the season tickets was already in the bank. In the long run, however, this will catch up to the team would have filled the stands, rain or no rain.

THE FANS who did show up were real football filberts, and they gave their cheers heartily to their favorites who have been putting out valiantly but vainly all year. The biggest applause was awarded to Bob "Muddy" Waters, the forgotten man behind John Brodie, who finally got in as a defensive back.

And the only booing of the ment on the public address system that the 49er management wished to thank all the loyal fans who have supported the team all year. If owner Vic Morabito's heart condition will take it, he should give some thought to this expression of displeasure by his "loyal" fans.

Well, it's all over now but ofr the championship game on Dec. 30th. That should be a good one if the weather man will cooperate for one day.

FUTURE PLANS

49ers To Depend On Young Players

After completing what he terms the longest and most frustrating season he's ever been through, Coach Red Hickey of the San Francisco 49ers says the key to '63 lies with the club's younger players.

"Jimmy Johnson, Dan Colchico, Charlie Krueger, Leon Donohue and Clark Miller are just coming into their own," he commented after the 49ers lost in the mud to Cleveland 13-10 on Saturday and finished the National Football season with a 6-8 record.

"Our key to next year lies with our younger men maturing like they started to toward the end of this season," Hickey commented. "We've got to have help from our draft list, but it's tough to come right into the league and star."

Two veterans indicated they might possibly retire. Guard Ted Connolly said "it's 50-50 right now," while St. Clair indicated his decision might rest on how an injured heel responds to treatment. He was out the latter part of this season with the injury.

Jim Brown scored both touchdowns for Cleveland on runs of 5 and 12 yards in sloggy Kezar on Saturday in the nationally-televised game. But after rushing 108 yards in the first half, he fell four short of the 1,000 mark when the 49ers limited him to 27 after the intermission.

49ER SCORES

San Francisco's scores came on a one-yard end sweep by quarterback John Brodie in the opening quarter and a 14-yard field goal by Tommy Davis in the second. Davis missed a 41-yard try in the fourth that would have knotted the count.

"I don't have much to say," Hockey commented after the game. "I'm glad it's over. It's been a long, frustrating season, longest and most frustrating I've ever gone through. We've got some boys who are coming on and who are going to be fine ball players.

"But so many things happened to us that can't happen to you if you're going to be a winner. Fumbles, interceptions, penalties and injuries all at the wrong times hurt us. We were banged up early and got the squad back together and then really got banged up again."

Seven regulars didn't see action in the finale.

The 49ers already have signed their first three draft choices headed by UCLA halfback Kermit Alexander. Before he agreed to terms, the club had signed Walter Rock, a 6-foot-5 tackle from Maryland weighing 255, and Don Lisbon, a 190-pound Bowling Green halfback, the second and third choices.

Colchico, a second year pro from San Jose State College, was the winner of the 1962 Len Eshment Memorial Award as the most inspirational player on the squad.

M.V. Cagers Win

The Mill Valley Boy's Club won its third straight varsity basketball game yesterday when the cagers whipped Marist Seminary 74-45. Terry Jarcik led M.V. with 33 points, followed by Ken Goodreau with 11.

Wildcats In 44-37 Win Over Bulldogs

By RALPH CHATOIAN

The Marin Catholic High School basketball team has given notice it will be a group after big things this season on the Marin prep scene.

The Wildcats whipped San Rafael High in the finals of the Marin Athletic League cage tourney, 44-37, Saturday night in the Terra Linda High School gymnasium, pointing the way toward a successful year.

Although Marin Catholic won by seven points, it was a close game throughout. The battle was decided in the final quarter when Marin Catholic scored 14 points while the Bulldogs could only bucket six. That eight-point margin in the last quarter broke the game open as San Rafael had to settle for second place in the tourney.

In consolation action, Redwood outscored Petaluma High School 42-38 for third place; Tamalpais dropped Drake 41-37 for fifth place, and Terra Linda knocked off Novato 42-36 to wind up in seventh place.

The Saturday action left Petaluma in fourth place, Drake in sixth place and Novato in the last spot of the eight-team tournament.

BIG MAN

Mike Ferrua, a 6-1 junior for the Wildcats, proved to be the big man in the Marin Catholic lineup as he exploded for nine points in the last period to break open the game. His four baskets and one free throw provided the difference in the battle.

All his scoring for the game came in that crushing period when Ferrua hit on a 15-foot jump shot, a tip-in and a pair of well-executed lay-ins which caught the San Rafael cagers flat-footed, plus his free throw.

Ferrua's final period spurt put him second in indidvidual scoring for the Wildcats. Ron O'Connell led the scoring with five field goals and five free tosses for 15 points.

High man for San Rafael was Bruce Wold, a little 5-6 senior guard, with 11 points. Second high scorer was John MacKennon with nine points.

EARLY LEAD

Marin Catholic pulled out in front with a 10-5 lead over the Bulldogs in the opening minutes of play but San Rafael scored three more by the end of the first quarter. By halftime the score was 21-19, Marin Catholic having the bulge.

San Rafael, which didn't have the luster of the night before when it whipped Redwood 66-32, outscored the Wildcats in the third stanza 12-9 to pull out in front 31-30.

But then the final quarter came and it was all Marin Catholic.

In consolation action, Redwood got back some of its spark which was lacking the night before when the Giant cagers were massacred by San Rafael. It was Dave Auerbach who led the Giant scorers with 16 points.

High man for Petaluma was Tim Tower with 11 to his credit.

INDIANS WIN

In the game for fifth place, Robin Prosch scored 11 points and Jim Durbin hit for 10 to lead the Tam Indians to victory. Drake's John McBride scored almost half of Drake's 37 points as he meshed 18 in the Pirates' losing cause.

Terra Linda's Don Dreusike scored 13 and Ed Connell scored 12 to highlight the Trojans' win over Novato for seventh place in the tourney. For Novato it was Kelly French with 14 points to lead the Novato scorers.

Trade Sets Giants For '63 Flag Chase

The San Francisco Giants are all set for defense of their National League championship, Vice President Chub Feeney said today.

They don't anticipate any more trades this winter. In fact, they'll wait until spring training to look for any more weaknesses on the club.

With their six-man swap with Baltimore now on record, the Giants feel they are ready. Here are the men obtained since the club went down to defeat to the New York Yankees in the World Series:

—Pitcher Billy Hoeft, 30, a left-handed relief ace.

—Pitcher Jack Fisher, 23, right-handed starter.

—Catcher Jim Coker, 26, just out of the Army.

—Infielder Joey Amalfitano, 28, a former Giant.

"We believe we are set now," says Feeney. "We aren't even looking around. We'll wait until spring training to see if any weaknesses develop."

TO ORIOLES

To get these men, the Giants sent pitchers Stu Miller and Mike McCormick and catcher John Orsino to Baltimore for Hoeft, Fisher and Coker; and to get Amalfitano from Houston they parted with southpaw hurler Dick LeMay and outfielder Manny Mota, both of whom saw very little service with the champs.

This is Amalfitano's third tour of duty with the Giants—and this time he may stick. He can play third, second and short and is a fairly good hitter.

Feeney admits that parting with the trio of Miller (5-8) and McCormick (5-5) is a gamble; and also that the records of the new men isn't anything to shout about. Hoeft was 4-8, mostly in relief roles; and Fisher was 7-9.

IT'S A GAMBLE

"But you always take a gamble when you make a trade," said Chub. "And you don't know until two or three years later how you come out."

The Giants figure Fisher as the key man in the trade as far as they are concerned; the Orioles think Orsino is the key for them.

Fisher is young, has a good variety of stuff; fine control and an intense desire to win. Hoeft also has good control, and appeared in more than 50 games last year.

Fisher probably will work into a starting berth, behind Juan Marichal, Jack Sanford and Billy O'Dell, possibly along with Bob Bolin, who may be promoted from relief roles.

IN THE BULLPEN

Hoeft will be working with Don Larson, possibly Bolin and one or two others in the bullpen.

Coker will be behind Tom Haller and Ed Bailey in the catching department — if he sticks with the club.

49ers Were Left With Mud On Their Faces, A Losing Season

RANDOL

Kezar Stadium played host to rain, mud, seagulls, the Cleveland Browns and the San Francisco 49ers, and about 15,000 masochcistic, diehard football fans Saturday.

The Brownies left town with the soggy game ball, some mud-soaked uniforms, and an unpalatable 13-10 win over the home towners. The 49ers were left with mud in their faces and the bitter memories of a losing season. Even the seagulls were complaining over their dividend of empty bottles and soggy hot-dog buns.

True enough, there were some moments of high interest, especially during the first half. But any resemblance to a great football game was purely incidental.

THE THING that sticks in my craw is the way some football coaches can't see the woods for the trees. Thousands of dollars and endless hours are spent to bring each club near a peak of perfection each weekend, and then the game is thrown away for lack of preparation for some small detail.

At the end of the first half, the 49ers were definitely in the game, and John Brodie was pitching brilliantly in spite of the elements. With drives going in the third and fourth quarter, both Brodie and the tireless J. D. Smith were showing obvious annoyance at being unable to dry their hands between plays.

The only towel available was on the backside of one of the 49er linemen, and it was as muddy and soggy as any of the players. Not until late in the fourth quarter did Coach Red Hickey send in a clean towel. Maybe the front office brass have started a new austerity program.

ONE OF the funnier sights of the fourth quaretr was the entry of re-activated back Kay McFarland with his clean jersey. That wasn't affection the 49er ball handlers were showing him, it was just a new and cleaner place to wipe off the mud.

After the game, quarterback Brodie complained that it was almost impossible to pick out a pass receiver in the second half as players of both teams were so mud-coated they could not be differentiated. It would seem to me that a new, clean set of jerseys would have solved the problem and turned the tide in favor of the Hickeymen. No soap. The tattletale grey stayed in and the game was lost.

The small crowd was of little immediate concern to the front office. The money for the season tickets was already in the bank. In the long run, however, this will catch up to the team would have filled the stands, rain or no rain.

THE FANS who did show up were real football filberts, and they gave their cheers heartily to their favorites who have been putting out valiantly but vainly all year. The biggest applause was awarded to Bob "Muddy" Waters, the forgotten man behind John Brodie, who finally got in as a defensive back.

And the only booing of the ment on the public address system that the 49er management wished to thank all the loyal fans who have supported the team all year. If owner Vic Morabito's heart condition will take it, he should give some thought to this expression of displeasure by his "loyal" fans.

Well, it's all over now but ofr the championship game on Dec. 30th. That should be a good one if the weather man will cooperate for one day.

FUTURE PLANS

49ers To Depend On Young Players

After completing what he terms the longest and most frustrating season he's ever been through, Coach Red Hickey of the San Francisco 49ers says the key to '63 lies with the club's younger players.

"Jimmy Johnson, Dan Colchico, Charlie Krueger, Leon Donohue and Clark Miller are just coming into their own," he commented after the 49ers lost in the mud to Cleveland 13-10 on Saturday and finished the National Football season with a 6-8 record.

Terra Linda Gridders Win

The Terra Linda Junior Trojans are back in Marin today after winning the Pop Warner Football Bowl Saturday in Phoenix, Ariz.

The Junior Trojans, undefeated champions of the Marin Pop Warner Football League, dropped the Southern Browns of Phoenix, 19-14, in sweltering 82 degree temperature.

The Marin team scored in the first, second and third quarters. The first touchdown was scored by Dan Caveney on a pass from quarterback Chris Bowman. Caveney caught the aerial on the Brown's 30-yard stripe and packed the ball into the end zone for the score.

Then in the second stanza, halfback Pat Carney made a dazzling 63-yard scamper behind brilliant downfield blocking to give the Trojans their second touchdown.

Carney scored the other Terra Linda touchdown in the third quarter on a 30-yard pass from fullback Rod Powell.

The Browns scored in the first and final periods of the game. Each team had one touchdown called back. Terra Linda's Coach Dave Bowman and his assistants Jim Finnegan, Mike Robert and Steve Marshall were very pleased with their team's showing.

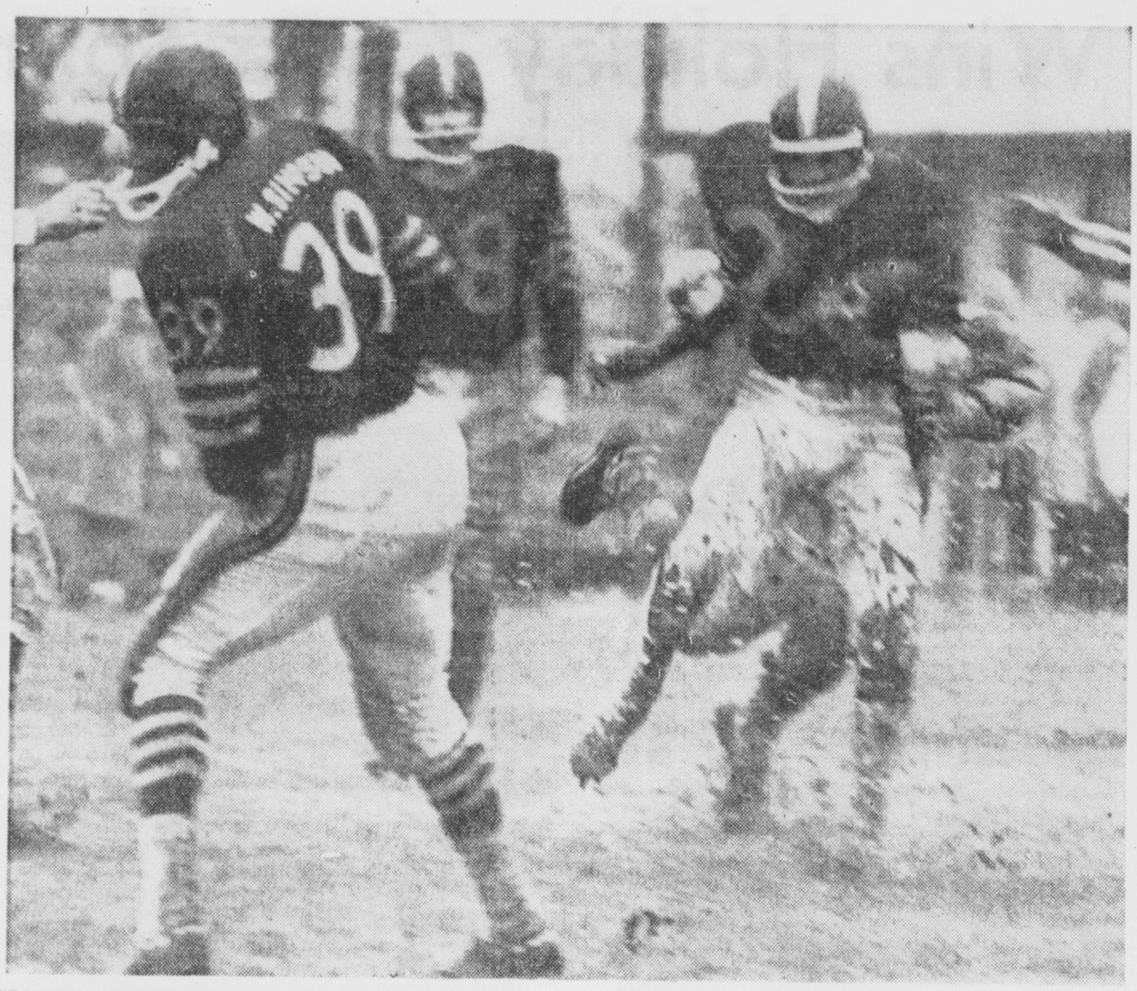

WEATHER CHANGES

While in Phoenix, the boys were guests of the home team as they welcomed the change in weather from Marin to humid Phoenix. The young gridders arrived back to San Francisco International Airport last night at 8:30.

The Marin Pop Warner League plans to hold a bowl game in Marin next year in which one of the nation's top Pop Warner teams will be invited to play the winner of the Marin League.

Funds to support next year's bowl game are being received from the sale of Christmas trees at the Marin Boys Club Christmas tree lot at the Purity Store in Mill Valley.

With the bowl victory under their belts, the Junior Trojans completed the season with a perfect 6-0 win-loss record.

Bulletin! Raiders Win A Game, 20-0

OAKLAND (AP)—The Raiders finally won a game—a shutout at that—and with the victory snapped a 19-game losing streak that is an all-time American Football League high—or low—if you're an Oakland fan.

The victory yesterday came at the expense of the Boston Patriots, 20-0, in rainy muddy Youell Field before some 8,000 of the Oakland faithful.

Accordingly, with apparently no place to move to, Oakland will open its 1963 season a winner.

Quarterback Cotton Davidson was the big man for Oakland against the Patriots who were without their quarterback, Vito Perilli.

Davidson hooked up for 75 yards with halfback Clem Daniels on a second period touchdown heave and set up a third period TD with a 34-yard toss to end Bo Roberson.

Ben "Old Man River" Agajanian opened Oakland's scoring with a 19-yard field goal in the first period and rang down the curtain on this longest Raider season with a 21-yard goal in the final period.

Ageless Ben also booted a conversion after each Raider TD.

BOSTON MISSES

Boston missed on four field goal attempts from 38, 44, 33 and 28 yards and when the Patriots finally got even closer—the four-yard line in the final seconds—Oakland intercepted. It was Tommy Morrow's 10th steal of the season for the AFL pass-defense champion Raiders.

Oakland led Boston in yards gained passing, 217-86, but trailed in rushing, 71-82, and in first downs, 10-11.

Thirteen of Oakland's losses came this year and six last year, dating to Nov. 5.

Green Bay Wins; NFL Marks Fall

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Green Bay clinched the Western Conference title and set up a rematch with the New York Giants for the National Football League championship Dec. 30 at New York on the final Sunday of the season as records tumbled from coast to coast.

The Packers didn't have to beat Los Angeles but they did, 20-17, for the word already had been received that the runner-up Detroit Lions had lost to the Chicago Bears, 3-0.

The frustrated Lions, only team to stop the Packers in the 14-game season, had to settle for a Jan. 6 date with Pittsburgh in the Playoff Bowl for runner-up teams at Miami.

In the course of the Packers' victory, Jim Taylor broke the league record by scoring his 19th touchdown and Green Bay set a new high for first dawns in a season, 281.

TITTLE RECORD

The Giants' Y. A. Tittle topped the league's mark for touchdown passes in a season with 33 by throwing six in New York's 41-31 decision over Dallas.

The Giants had some anxious moments until X-rays proved negative after Tittle was taken to a hospital with a badly bruised back. The Giants, who clinched the Eastern crown two weeks ago, wound up with nine straight victories and a 12-2 record.

Lou Michaels, Pittsburgh's defensive end, added to the NFL field goal record he set last week by kicking two against Washington for a season's total of 26 in the Steelers' 27-24 triumph.

Norm Snead, Washington's sophomore quarterback, suffered a shoulder separation in the first quarter and George Izo, who hadn't played all year, came through with three touchdown passes. The Redskins lost seven of their last eight.

The College of Marin basketballers lost their semi-final game of the Golden Valley Conference Tournament Saturday when they were knocked out of the competition by American River Junior College of Sacramento, 70-56.

The Tar cagers could not find the range as they hit for only 23 per cent from the floor as compared to 36 per cent for American River. The Tars outrebounded the winners but shooting was the difference in the game.

The halftime score saw ARJC in front with a 33-26 bulge.

Dave Neumann led the Marin scorers with 24 points and Mike Kavanagh hit in the double figures with 15.

College of Marin gained the semi-finals after a victory Friday over host Yuba College 85-78 in first round action.

Marin Star Blum Signs With Cubs

Ron Blum, a three-letterman at College of Marin, has signed a contract with the Chicago Cubs of the National League, it was announced today.

Ray Perry, ex-Seal great and present Cub scout for the west coast area, announced that Blum will report to spring training with the Cubs in Mesa, Ariz., on March 1.

Perry said the Cub organization had been very impressed with the play of Blum in the Alameda Winter League, where he is the top hitter and fielder for the Billings-Hutchison Builders.

"Blum has one of the finest arms in the Bay area and the Cubs are certain that he has the ability and agility to develop into a major leaguer," said Perry. "His ability and progress in spring training will determine what classification baseball he will play in 1963."

Blum was signed by the Pittsburgh Pirates of the National League last year but was released in mid-season. He had been expected to sign with another ball club after his release.

The former College of Marin athlete is the first player on the Builders' team to ink a contract, but according to reports, the scouts continue to follow other members of the team.

Terms of Blum's contract were not disclosed.

Packers' Taylor Is NFL Scoring Champ—114 Points

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Taylor, the hard-hitting fullback of the Green Bay Packers, succeeded teammate Paul Hornung yesterday as the National Football League scoring champion, in a season that saw three point-making marks fall.

Taylor collected 114 points on 19 touchdowns, a league mark for TDs, and edged Lou Michaels of the Pittsburgh Steelers, who amassed 110 points on 26 field goals and 32 extra points.

Michaels' was a league record for kickers, replacing the 108 points compiled by Lou Groza of the Cleveland Browns in 1953. Actually, Michaels ran over one of his conversions when the pass from center was bobbled, but his 109 points with the toe is still a kicking mark.

Baker, Mira Sparkle In Bowl Games; More TV Tilts Slated

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

With the financial flops out of the way, the football bowl season now moves into its more affluent period but it will be tough to top the field performances of two of college football's brightest stars before tiny audiences.

All-Americas Terry Baker and George Mira thrilled two of the smallest bowl gatherings of any year, a liberally estimated combined 23,214 Saturday in the Liberty Bowl at Philadelphia and the Gotham Bowl at New York.

Baker, Heisman and Maxwell Trophy winner and A.P. Back of the Year, went 99⅔ yards from scrimmage for the only touchdown in a 6-0 Oregon State victory over surprisingly rugged Villanova at Philadelphia.

AERIAL SHOW

Mira, the flashy Miami junior, staged a pro-like aerial show against Nebraska in the Gothem battle but it fell just short as the Cornhuskers eked out a 36-34 decision.

Only 17,048 were in the 100,000-seat Philadelphia Stadium, and the Gotham Bowl had an announced throng of 6,166.

Actions shifts to more suitable Bowl climes next Saturday, with Georgia Tech and Missouri tangling in the Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston. Some 60,000 are expected for the nationally televised (CBS) game.

Also on Saturday, the North-South All-Star game will be played at Miami, Fla., with television (ABC) cameras and some 50,000 looking on.

The Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Fla., the same day, is expected to draw about 15,000 for Miami of Ohio and Houston. There is no television.

Baker's run came early in the game, played in 22-degree weather with both teams wearing sneakers on the frozen field. A Villanova punt was down a foot from the Oregon State goal. On first down Baker took off around left end on a quarterback rollout, shook off a tackler in the end zone, another about the 3-yard line and went untouched the rest of the way.

'FANTASTIC'

Mira's performance, which included 24 completions in 46 tries for 321 yards and two touchdowns, brought a comment of "fantastic" from Nebraska Coach Bob Devaney.

In two other bowl games Saturday, quarterback Dunn Marteen kicked two field goals, scored a touchdown and ran for a two-point conversion to lead Santa Ana Junior College to a 20-0 victory over Pasco, Wash., in the Junior Rose Bowl at Pasadena before 41,709.

In the Missile Bowl at Orlando, Fla., Ernie Wheelwright, 220-pound fullback, paced Ft. Campbell, Ky., to a 14-10 victory over Lackland Air Force Base, Tex., for the service championship.

Al (Cappy) Lavin, chairman of the Drake English Department, played basketball at University of San Francisco for four years through 1952 when he was graduated. He was team captain for two years and was a member of the USF team which won the National Invitational cage tourney in 1949.

Terra Linda Gridders Win

The Terra Linda Junior Trojans are back in Marin today after winning the Pop Warner Football Bowl Saturday in Phoenix, Ariz.

The Junior Trojans, undefeated champions of the Marin Pop Warner Football League, dropped the Southern Browns of Phoenix, 19-14, in sweltering 82 degree temperature.

The Marin team scored in the first, second and third quarters. The first touchdown was scored by Dan Caveney on a pass from quarterback Chris Bowman. Caveney caught the aerial on the Brown's 30-yard stripe and packed the ball into the end zone for the score.

Then in the second stanza, halfback Pat Carney made a dazzling 63-yard scamper behind brilliant downfield blocking to give the Trojans their second touchdown.

Carney scored the other Terra Linda touchdown in the third quarter on a 30-yard pass from fullback Rod Powell.

The Browns scored in the first and final periods of the game. Each team had one touchdown called back. Terra Linda's Coach Dave Bowman and his assistants Jim Finnegan, Mike Robert and Steve Marshall were very pleased with their team's showing.

WEATHER CHANGES

While in Phoenix, the boys were guests of the home team as they welcomed the change in weather from Marin to humid Phoenix. The young gridders arrived back to San Francisco International Airport last night at 8:30.

The Marin Pop Warner League plans to hold a bowl game in Marin next year in which one of the nation's top Pop Warner teams will be invited to play the winner of the Marin League.

Funds to support next year's bowl game are being received from the sale of Christmas trees at the Marin Boys Club Christmas tree lot at the Purity Store in Mill Valley.

With the bowl victory under their belts, the Junior Trojans completed the season with a perfect 6-0 win-loss record.

Green Bay Wins; NFL Marks Fall

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Green Bay clinched the Western Conference title and set up a rematch with the New York Giants for the National Football League championship Dec. 30 at New York on the final Sunday of the season as records tumbled from coast to coast.

The Packers didn't have to beat Los Angeles but they did, 20-17, for the word already had been received that the runner-up Detroit Lions had lost to the Chicago Bears, 3-0.

The frustrated Lions, only team to stop the Packers in the 14-game season, had to settle for a Jan. 6 date with Pittsburgh in the Playoff Bowl for runner-up teams at Miami.

In the course of the Packers' victory, Jim Taylor broke the league record by scoring his 19th touchdown and Green Bay set a new high for first dawns in a season, 281.

TITTLE RECORD

The Giants' Y. A. Tittle topped the league's mark for touchdown passes in a season with 33 by throwing six in New York's 41-31 decision over Dallas.

Bulletin! Raiders Win A Game, 20-0

OAKLAND (AP)—The Raiders finally won a game—a shutout at that—and with the victory snapped a 19-game losing streak that is an all-time American Football League high—or low—if you're an Oakland fan.

The victory yesterday came at the expense of the Boston Patriots, 20-0, in rainy muddy Youell Field before some 8,000 of the Oakland faithful.

Accordingly, with apparently no place to move to, Oakland will open its 1963 season a winner.

Quarterback Cotton Davidson was the big man for Oakland against the Patriots who were without their quarterback, Vito Perilli.

Davidson hooked up for 75 yards with halfback Clem Daniels on a second period touchdown heave and set up a third period TD with a 34-yard toss to end Bo Roberson.

Ben "Old Man River" Agajanian opened Oakland's scoring with a 19-yard field goal in the first period and rang down the curtain on this longest Raider season with a 21-yard goal in the final period.

Ageless Ben also booted a conversion after each Raider TD.

BOSTON MISSES

Boston missed on four field goal attempts from 38, 44, 33 and 28 yards and when the Patriots finally got even closer—the four-yard line in the final seconds—Oakland intercepted. It was Tommy Morrow's 10th steal of the season for the AFL pass-defense champion Raiders.

Oakland led Boston in yards gained passing, 217-86, but trailed in rushing, 71-82, and in first downs, 10-11.

Thirteen of Oakland's losses came this year and six last year, dating to Nov. 5.

Dick Bass Voted Most Valuable Player For Rams

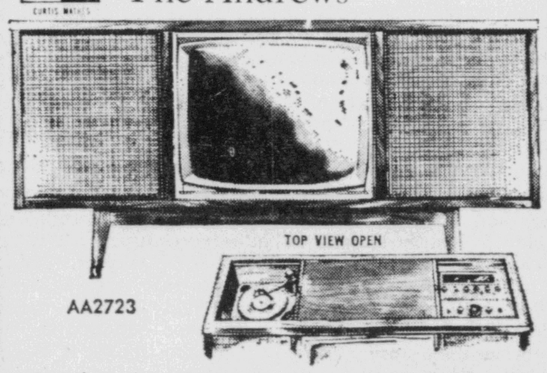

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Fullback Dick Bass, as expected, owns most of the laurels ladled out by Ye Olde Rams, a group of former Los Angeles Ram football players.

Bass, who became the first Ram to gain 1,000 yards in a season (he hit 1,033 yesterday against the Green Bay Packers) was voted the Rams' most valuable player and most valuable offensive back.

Seals In Second Place After Win Over L.A.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Continuing their sharp play on home ice, the San Francisco Seals have skated into a tie for second place in the Western Hockey League's Southern Division by beating the team they had to beat.

The resurgent Seals have dulled the Los Angeles Blades 5-4 in their last game Saturday, and tied the Southern Californians at 30 points each. The Blades have a better won-lost mark, 15-9 to the Seals' 15-14, but in hockey it's the points that determine position.

San Francisco takes on a tough customer in its next game, facing Northern Division-leading Seattle at the Cow Palace Wednesday night.

A turnout of almost 7,000 witnessed Saturday's overtime win in the first match at San Francisco between the intrastate rivals. Ray Cyr punched in a short goal after the teams had tied 4-4 after the regulation three periods.

As soon as the winning goal went into the net, Blade Marc Boileau skated out of the penalty box and resumed an argument with referee Bill Papp, who immediately gave him his second misconduct penalty of the night, although no one knows when he will serve it.

Blade goalie Jack McCarten and Seal Luke Edmundsen also got into a fight during a wild third period in which four goals were scored.

Machen's Manager Forbidden To Visit Ill Boxer

NAPA (AP) — Top-ranked heavyweight boxing contender Eddie Machen remained in Napa State Hospital today. His manager Sid Flaherty, was forbidden to see him.

Flaherty arrived yesterday to visit Machen who was detained at the mental institution last Wednesday after police found him with a loaded gun apparently contemplating suicide.

A hospital spokesman said visitors to the former Redding, Calif., boxer who now fights out of Portland, Ore., are being limited to members of his immediate family.

Machen, who offered no resistance to police who found him, knocked out two hospital attendants shortly after being taken to Napa. Police said Machen complained of being despondent because of a lack of fights and consequently a lack of money.

A hearing is scheduled Tuesday in Solano County Superior Court for a report from hospital authorities.

Jones KO's Zora Folley

NEW YORK (AP) — Doug Jones' heart is with the light heavyweights but his punch belongs to the heavyweights.

The tall, hard-hitting New Yorker still longs for another shot at the light heavy title although he now belongs among the heavyweight elite on the strength of his seventh round knockout of heavyweight contender Zora Folley Saturday night.

A solid right to the jaw dropped the sixth-ranking heavy for the full count at 1 minute, 58 seconds of the seventh round of the television scrap, blasting Folley's hopes of some day getting a crack at the heavyweight crown.

It was the fifth time Folley (195¾) was stopped. His record now is 62-6-2. Jones, a pro only four years, has a 21-3-1 record, including 13 knockouts. He never has been stopped.

WEEKEND FIGHTS

NEW YORK — Doug Jones, 185, New York, knocked out Zora Folley, 195¾, Chandler, Ariz., 7.

MILAN, Italy — Duilio Loi, 137¾, Italy, outpointed Eddie Perkins, 138¾, Chicago, 15 (for world junior welter title).

BOGOTA, Colombia — Bernardo Caraballo, 114, Columbia, knocked out Ronnie De Cost, 113, Brockton, Mass., 1.

SINGAPORE — Nai Manchai, 143, Thailand, outpointed Golden Huff, 141, Indonesia, 10.

TOKYO — Tadao Kawamura, 117, Japan, outpointed Manual Magallanes, 117, Mexico City 10.

Warriors Fall Into NBA Cellar

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Fourteen losses in their last 15 games have dropped the San Francisco Warriors into the cellar position in the National Basketball Assn's Western Division.

The Warriors fell victims to the Syracuse Nationals last night after a 50-point first quarter for the visitors. The final score was 144-137.

The win pushed the Nats up within three games of the Boston Celtics, Eastern Division leaders.

Syracuse clipped off 19 consecutive points in the first period to pull away easily from a 23-22 score. Lee Shaffer hit 5-for-5 field goals to lead the assault. He got 32 points for the night. Teammate Hal Greer had the same total.

Wilt Chamberlain notched 43 for San Francisco.

Chuck Parke, youngest of five brothers who were jockeys from Idaho, succeeded his brother five years ago as trainer for Fred W. Hooper's horses. Last year the Hooper stable was third in the nation in money won with $623,715.

Stiff Test This Week For Injuns

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The unbeaten Stanford basketball team, which had a scare Saturday before clipping University of San Francisco 44-43, has a four-game test this week which should show just how good the Indians are.

Coach Howie Dallmar's Indians, ranked seventh nationally, play Oregon at Eugene tonight and tomorrow and then come home to entertain out-of-state delegations from Wyoming and Texas this weekend.

The scrappy Dons of USF kept the pressure on Stanford through the low-scoring second half Saturday. Stonfard didn't half Saturday. Stanford didn't Hollie Moore sank two free throws with 46 seconds left, making the score 44-41.

Another unbeaten West Coast five, the Southern California Trojans, heads east this week for a weekend pair with Nebraska. The Trojans pulled away in the second half Saturday and disposed of Oklahoma 66-51.

CAL SPLITS

The major disappointment among the coast teams is Oregon State. The Beavers (2-2) split two games with California (5-1) during the weekend. This week they go to Lexington, Ky., for the Kentucky Invitational Tournament. In the Beaver lineup for the first time this season will be football star Terry Baker, the Heisman Trophy winner who was a regular on the basketball team last season.

Most of the other western teams are on the road this week. UCLA, which beat Missouri and Oklahoma over the weekend, plays Butler tomorrow, Northwestern Thursday and Wisconsin Saturday.

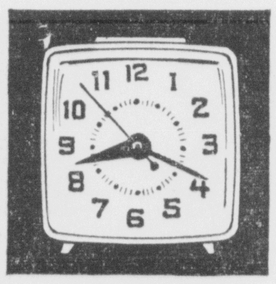

The touring St. Mary's Gaels, who bowed to Marquette 82-70 Saturday, meet St. Norbert's at West De Pere, Wis., tonight, then take on Creighton at Omaha, Neb., and Utah at Salt Lake City on the way home.

Big Mel Counts led Oregon State to a 70-60 victory over Cal at Corvallis Saturday. Counts hit 28 points to help avenge a 61-59 beating the Bears handed the Beavers Friday.

Bay Meadows Winner

SAN MATEO (AP) — Switchback ($8.80) slogged through the mud to score a neck victory Saturday in the $15,000 San Mateo Handicap at Bay Meadows.

California's Boom Is A Big One

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of a series regarding California's population explosion which has rocketed this state into the nation's largest. The series will deal with its politics and problems, aviation and agriculture.)

By JOHN MORGANTHALER

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Come Dec. 28, all 17.4 million Californians have been asked to sound in unison their nine million auto horns or whatever other noisemaker is handy.

The mighty din is proposed by the Chamber of Commerce Managers Assn. to salute California's emergence as the most populous state.

At least one chamber manager demurred, saying the whole idea smacks of Texas braggadocio.

Governor Brown, fresh from an election victory and aware that population brings political power, proclaimed four days of celebration starting Dec. 29.

He proclaimed Dec. 31 a holiday for state workers. It won't apply to federal employees, and many cities and counties say they won't or can't give their workers the day off. Among these was Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco.

Brown said it isn't bigness alone he wants celebrated, but California's pre-eminence in agriculture, industry, education, the arts, social progress, water development, recreation, national defense and the space effort.

First reaction was yawns from Yreka to San Ysidro. There were also remarks about smog, taxes, traffic, urban sprawl, and crowded beaches, parks and schools. However, celebration committees are at work and may bring it off yet.

Actually, Brown says, California passed New York about Thanksgiving. New York and the Federal Bureau of the Census say it won't happen until spring.

Whenever it does, or did, California will pull away from then on.

It is adding 600,000 people a year, more than twice as many as arrived during 10 years after the discovery of gold in 1848. Economic opportunity is still the lure, although the climate, scenery, and informal way of life may be factors.

The newest gold mines are defense plant payrolls, with California getting one-fourth of the national defense expenditure. The defense-centered economy is already cause for alarm in some parts of the state, but personal income in above the national average, and unemployment below.

Of the total annual population increase, about 350,000 a year arrive from elsewhere. More are from Texas than anywhere else at the moment.

The remaining 250,000 are accounted for by an excess of births over deaths, a condition unknown to many 49ers, who died young.

The current immigration is still concentrated in the 20-34 age group, but since 1950 women have outnumbered men.

California has never received an undue proportion of older immigrants. For years the biggest problem has been finding schoolrooms for the new children. But the war babies have grown older and the new crisis is building college classrooms for an enrollment expected to increase from the present 400,000 to 765,000 by 1975.

Experts predict the state's population will be 25 million by 1975, 40 million by 2000.

When the Spanish arrived in the 16th century, historians guess there were between 100,000 and 150,000 Indians in California. The climate was healthful, peace reigned, and California probably had one-eighth of all the Indians in the country. That may soon be the state's share of the U.S. population.

Spanish missionaries found the Indians "sluggish and tractable" and baptized 90,000 in the 21 missions they founded along El Camino Real—then the only through highway. Now it's part of the world's biggest road net, including 2,500 miles of multi-lane divided highways with another 10,000 miles due for completion by 1980.

When California became a state in 1850, there were between 140,000 and 165,000 inhabitants. The first census in 1860 showed 379,994.

Of those who came in the Gold Rush, nearly 39 per cent were foreign born, and one-quarter of those were Chinese. By 1930 Japanese were the largest minority group, but they were soon outnumbered by Negroes.

The 1960 census showed 883,861 Negroes, 157,317 Japanese and 95,600 Chinese.

There are even more Mexican-Americans in California, although the exact number is obscure. They objected to being listed as a racial group in census reports, and the bureau now calls them "white persons of Spanish surnames." There were 695,643 such in Los Angeles County alone in 1960.

The number of children with Spanish surnames in California's public schools increased 87.6 per cent during the 1950s.

The Gold Rush made San Francisco the metropolis. By 1870 it had 150,000 citizens, 10 times the number in Los Angeles. The southern city has grown faster ever since, passed San Francisco in the 1910 census, and soon will be 10 times its size.

The 1.75 billion dollar state water plan, just underway, will bring thousands more acres into production by 1970.

When will the boom end? Experts say people will stop moving to California when the economic opportunity is no better than elsewhere, and the areas of pleasant climate are full.

The birth rate increase will continue indefinitely.

Nation's Skills Aided By Large Immigration

WASHINGTON (AP) — Almost as many engineers immigrated to the United States in the past decade as were turned out by the nation's engineering schools in their 1961 graduating classes.

The figures are included in a Labor Department study of the occupational distribution of the more than 3.5 million immigrants arriving in this country in the 15-year period of 1947-61.

The study concluded that instead of glutting the U.S. labor force which has experienced high levels of unemployment in recent years the newcomers from abroad have helped fill shortages in such skilled occupations as engineering, science and the medical profession.

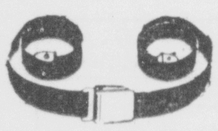

"There can be no doubt," Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz commented on the study, "that by providing a haven for the oppressed, the nation has reaped great profits."

Wirtz cited the contributions of such men as scientist Enrico Fermi, mathematician Albert Einstein, Felix Frankfurter, recently retired Supreme Court justice; Igor Sikorsky, airplane designer, and Eugene Ormandy, symphony conductor.

The nation is not so aware, Wirtz said, of benefits received from many lesser known professional, technical and skilled workers who have entered the United States in recent years.

California's Boom Is A Big One

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of a series regarding California's population explosion which has rocketed this state into the nation's largest. The series will deal with its politics and problems, aviation and agriculture.)

By JOHN MORGANTHALER

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Come Dec. 28, all 17.4 million Californians have been asked to sound in unison their nine million auto horns or whatever other noisemaker is handy.

The mighty din is proposed by the Chamber of Commerce Managers Assn. to salute California's emergence as the most populous state.

At least one chamber manager demurred, saying the whole idea smacks of Texas braggadocio.

Governor Brown, fresh from an election victory and aware that population brings political power, proclaimed four days of celebration starting Dec. 29.

He proclaimed Dec. 31 a holiday for state workers. It won't apply to federal employees, and many cities and counties say they won't or can't give their workers the day off. Among these was Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco.

Brown said it isn't bigness alone he wants celebrated, but California's pre-eminence in agriculture, industry, education, the arts, social progress, water development, recreation, national defense and the space effort.

First reaction was yawns from Yreka to San Ysidro. There were also remarks about smog, taxes, traffic, urban sprawl, and crowded beaches, parks and schools. However, celebration committees are at work and may bring it off yet.

Actually, Brown says, California passed New York about Thanksgiving. New York and the Federal Bureau of the Census say it won't happen until spring.

Whenever it does, or did, California will pull away from then on.

It is adding 600,000 people a year, more than twice as many as arrived during 10 years after the discovery of gold in 1848. Economic opportunity is still the lure, although the climate, scenery, and informal way of life may be factors.

The newest gold mines are defense plant payrolls, with California getting one-fourth of the national defense expenditure. The defense-centered economy is already cause for alarm in some parts of the state, but personal income in above the national average, and unemployment below.

Of the total annual population increase, about 350,000 a year arrive from elsewhere. More are from Texas than anywhere else at the moment.

The remaining 250,000 are accounted for by an excess of births over deaths, a condition unknown to many 49ers, who died young.

The current immigration is still concentrated in the 20-34 age group, but since 1950 women have outnumbered men.

California has never received an undue proportion of older immigrants. For years the biggest problem has been finding schoolrooms for the new children. But the war babies have grown older and the new crisis is building college classrooms for an enrollment expected to increase from the present 400,000 to 765,000 by 1975.

Experts predict the state's population will be 25 million by 1975, 40 million by 2000.

When the Spanish arrived in the 16th century, historians guess there were between 100,000 and 150,000 Indians in California. The climate was healthful, peace reigned, and California probably had one-eighth of all the Indians in the country. That may soon be the state's share of the U.S. population.

Spanish missionaries found the Indians "sluggish and tractable" and baptized 90,000 in the 21 missions they founded along El Camino Real—then the only through highway. Now it's part of the world's biggest road net, including 2,500 miles of multi-lane divided highways with another 10,000 miles due for completion by 1980.

When California became a state in 1850, there were between 140,000 and 165,000 inhabitants. The first census in 1860 showed 379,994.

Of those who came in the Gold Rush, nearly 39 per cent were foreign born, and one-quarter of those were Chinese. By 1930 Japanese were the largest minority group, but they were soon outnumbered by Negroes.

The 1960 census showed 883,861 Negroes, 157,317 Japanese and 95,600 Chinese.

There are even more Mexican-Americans in California, although the exact number is obscure. They objected to being listed as a racial group in census reports, and the bureau now calls them "white persons of Spanish surnames." There were 695,643 such in Los Angeles County alone in 1960.

The number of children with Spanish surnames in California's public schools increased 87.6 per cent during the 1950s.

The Gold Rush made San Francisco the metropolis. By 1870 it had 150,000 citizens, 10 times the number in Los Angeles. The southern city has grown faster ever since, passed San Francisco in the 1910 census, and soon will be 10 times its size.

The 1.75 billion dollar state water plan, just underway, will bring thousands more acres into production by 1970.

When will the boom end? Experts say people will stop moving to California when the economic opportunity is no better than elsewhere, and the areas of pleasant climate are full.

The birth rate increase will continue indefinitely.

Specialist Pryor is an ammunition agent in Service Battery of the division's Sixth Artillery in Gelnhausen. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pryor, 120 Highland Lane.

Yuletide's The Season To Burn Candles

Stout, Tall And Even Scented, All Have Special Glow

By BARBARA HOSMER

In modern terms candlelight means festivity, and the Yuletide season is the time when the special glow and decorative quality of the candle is most appropriate. The wise holiday hostess knows this, and some 65 per cent of the year's candle purchases are made in the months of November and December.

BUT IF "CANDLE" to you means the traditional tall taper in pink or white, you haven't been candle-conscious lately. Decorative candles come fat, skinny, tall, in pairs, clusters, crowds, as clowns, crowns, tulips, bauble trees and even as marbelized obelisks resembling the Washington monument. There are pine scented and bayberry candles, rope candles and peg-lites, an original design of clear or colored glass adapted from peg base oil lamps of 1840 made to convert old candleholders into oil lamps and now used to fit any standard candleholder or candelabrum.

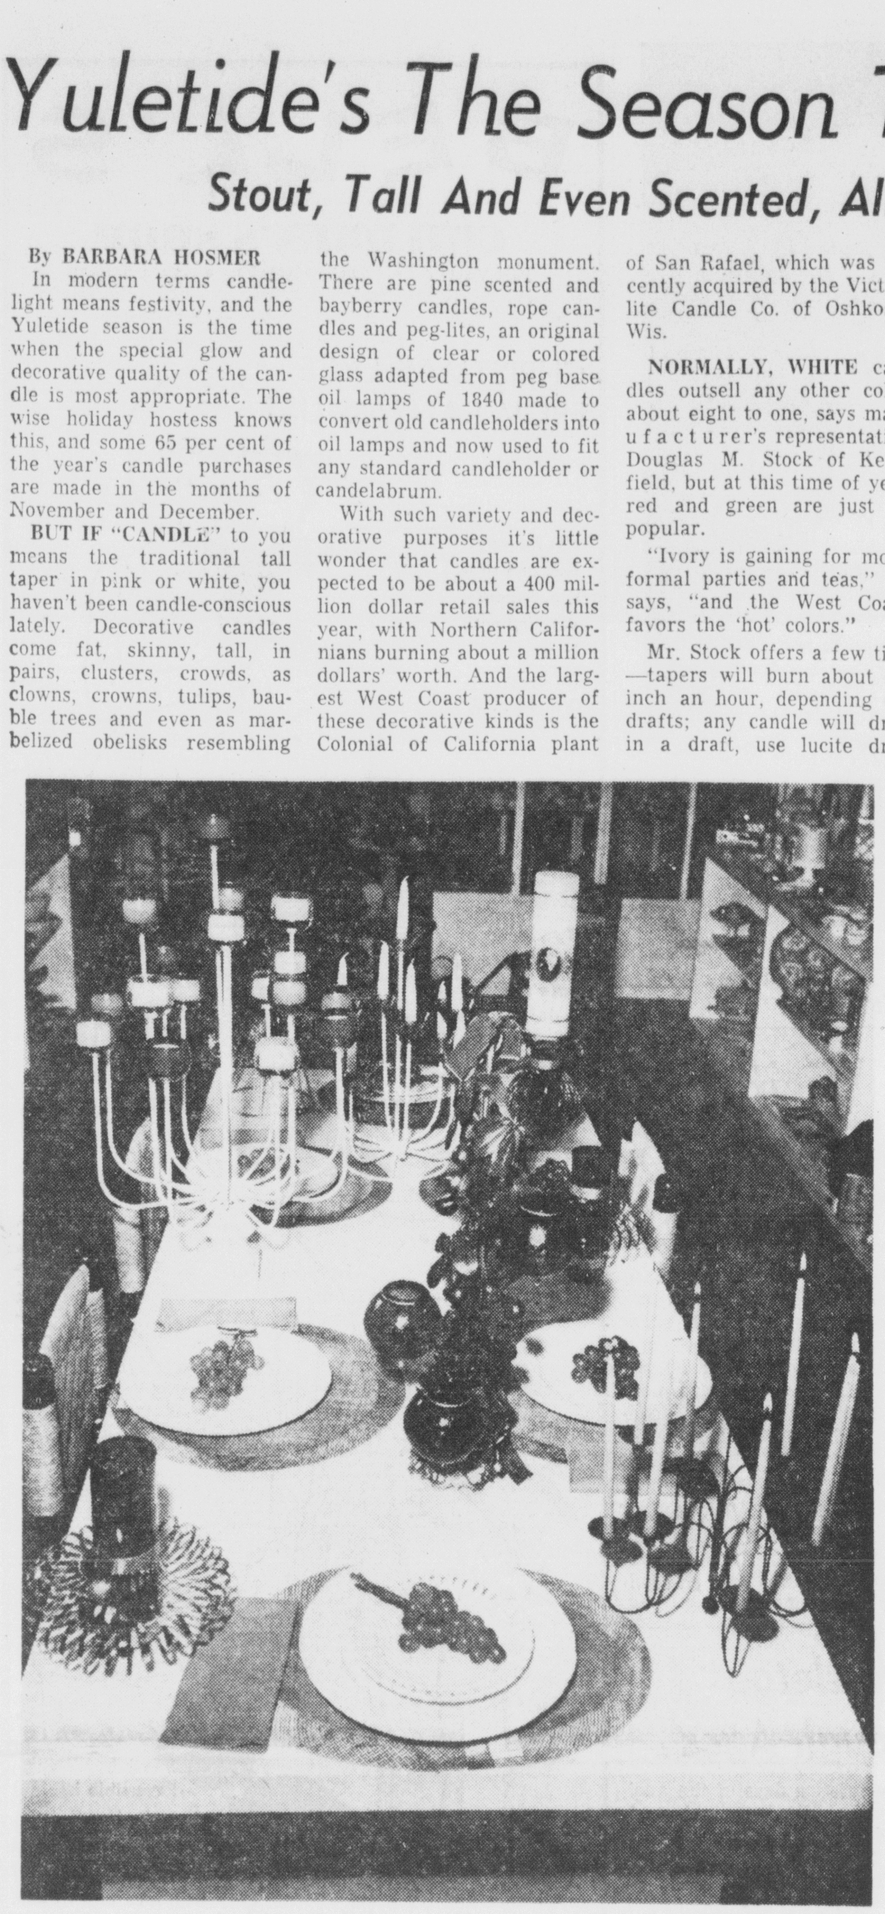

With such variety and decorative purposes it's little wonder that candles are expected to be about a 400 million dollar retail sales this year, with Northern Californians burning about a million dollars' worth. And the largest West Coast producer of these decorative kinds is the Colonial of California plant of San Rafael, which was recently acquired by the Victrylite Candle Co. of Oshkosh, Wis.

NORMALLY, WHITE candles outsell any other color about eight to one, says manufacturer's representative Douglas M. Stock of Kentfield, but at this time of year red and green are just as popular.

"Ivory is gaining for more formal parties and teas," he says, "and the West Coast favors the 'hot' colors."

Mr. Stock offers a few tips —tapers will burn about an inch an hour, depending on drafts; any candle will drip in a draft, use lucite drip protectors around the base or decorative holders; for formal affairs wicks should be darkened or burned before actual lighting; as a general rule use tall candles with short holders and vice versa.

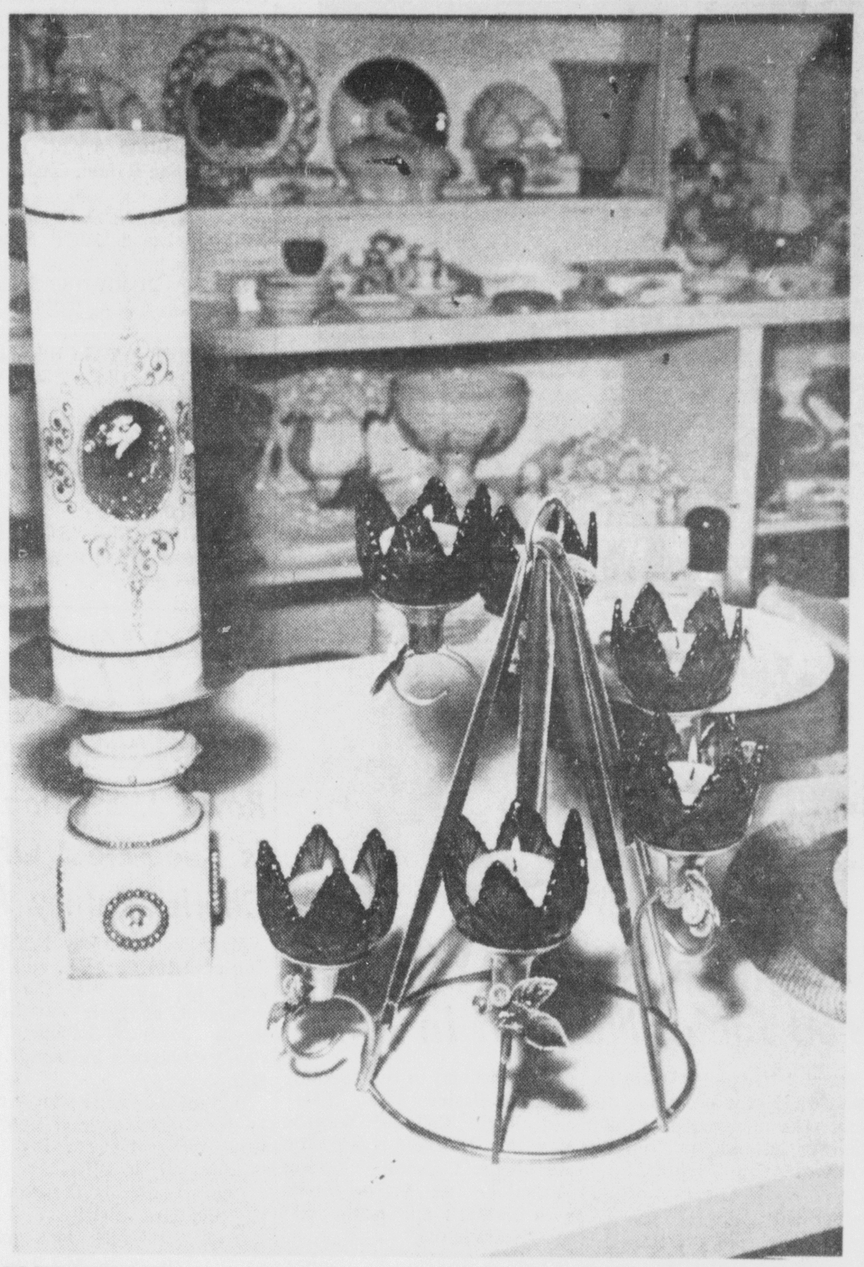

FROM NOW UNTIL the new year Marinites are combing shops in San Rafael, Larkspur, Sausalito and Belvedere for the particular candle design around which to create an original decorative arrangement for mantel, sideboard or table centerpiece.

MAJESTIC GLOW of candles is reflected in wide variety on a single table. Lower left, the festive light in red or green glass trunk with red, green or gold swirl that changes design with a flick; above it the 17 candelabra with jewel-like balloon shaped glass containers; rear center the jewel candolier; center front the popular Christmas bauble tree with glowing round red containers and red pears trimming the green leafed "tree"; at right the graceful eight tiny taper labra which also can be hung from the ceiling.

THE PEG LITE fits easily into candelabra or any candleholder. Shown here in red, the clear or colored swirled glass design was adapted from peg base oil lamps of 1840 that converted candleholders into oil lamps. The glass peg has rubber gripper that fits any standard candleholder.

ELEGANT AND nearly two feet high, the giant Christmas candle and base featured a trumpeting angel soaring through a gold-lined opening in the white candle with its gold decoration and gold or white finished wood base. With it is the decorated six candle tree holder of golden wrought iron decorated in the Victorian manner with frosted fruit, leaves and moss green velvet ribbon. Red tulip lights are filled with pine scented candles, to give off a tangy scent as well as rosy glow. (Independent-Journal photos by Jim Kean)

CHRISTMAS COOKIES?

'Aunt Dolly Makes The Best'

By DOROTHY NEWELL

"Christmas cookies? No — we're not interested. We make and test our own in our own home laboratory." It was the voice of a magazine editor.

"Christmas cookies? Look, lady, we have them coming out of our ears . . ."

"Christmas cookies? Why, I've never seen anything like these." This was the voice of a member of the staff of the women's section of the Independent-Journal.

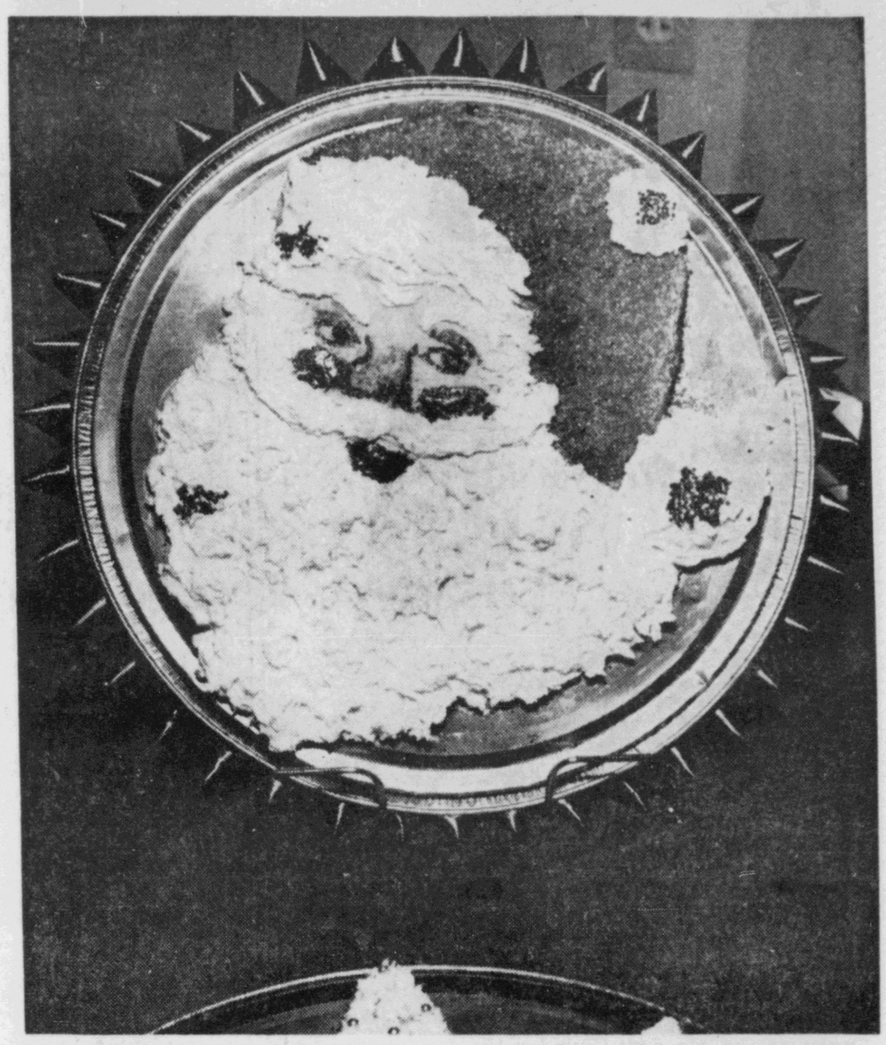

And finally, after many attempts to display her painstaking artistry in making Christmas cookies Mrs. Dolly Shaw of Novato found someone interested.

HER SIMPLE TOOLS in these cookie creations are a toothpick and frosting.

Mrs. Shaw lives with her family—three generations of them. Included are her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Akers and their family — Ronald Akers, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar F. Akers and their children, Vickie and J. D. Each of them helps in the production line of either the Christmas cookies or decorations for the home.

Beginning with a pattern from Christmas wrappings or cards, Dolly cuts a design on plain white paper, with the designs ranging from 1½ inches up to the size of a pizza platter.

I'M A BUILT-IN grandmother," Mrs. Shaw kiddingly says, speaking of her great niece and nephew, "and I even raid their toy boxes to get some of their little knives which I use to cut out the cookies from a basic cookie recipe."

A GREEN PIZZA platter is the background for this large Santa cookie which Mrs. Dolly Shaw decorated with the most minute detail with a toothpick and frosting.

Mrs. Shaw, who learned the art of cookie and candy making from her mother, has been baking since the age of 10 years when she started making bread. She has been decorating cookies since she was 18.

Mrs. Shaw begins with a basic cookie recipe. Beat ¾ cup shortening (½ margarine, ½ butter) and 1 cup sug-

How To Select Safe Yule Tree

NEW YORK (UPI)—When you buy a Christmas tree, choose one which appears freshly cut.

Before buying, run your hand over the needles to determine if they are firmly attached. Needle fall indicates the tree is dry.

Keep the tree outdoors until you are ready to decorate. Wait until just before Christmas to set up the tree—in the coolest part of the room, away from radiators, heaters and the fireplace. This will keep the tree from drying and reduce the chance of fire.

More Children Learning Where Havana Is, As Geography 'In'

Geography is coming back, praise be. Once more children are learning where Havana is, as well as Berlin and Moscow. That's good, isn't it?

I can remember when teachers had to apologize for using maps in class. I once was scolded for drilling my eighth grade pupils on the names of the states and their capitals. A "progressive" school supervisor told me I was a fool, in so many words. "Don't you know," he asked me, "that geography is passe? Children don't need it any more." Whew!

The result? A generation of geographically illiterate boys and girls. Some California kids didn't know where their own state was located. On a famous test in New York hundreds of pupils said Canada was our neighbor to the south, and that Mexico lay to the north of us. On another test some Florida pupils said Washington, D.C. was somewhere in the southwest. Thousands of boys and girls confused Alabama with Albania, and Montana with Monaco.

The last few years have brought a big change. Modern classrooms are equipped with maps that are used. Globes are on hand, too. Current events are followed carefully. Time is taken to memorize names and places; drill is common. Geography books, well-written and well-illustrated, have reappeared. The once unpopular subject is popular again, and most children love it.

Who says we aren't improving? Welcome back, geography!

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "What are the social studies?"

Mrs. M. R.

(A) The social studies are an attempt to blend the previously separate subjects of history, civics, and geography. The theory is good. In many places the results were fine from the start. As I see it, the loss of name and place geography was the greatest weakness. However, nothing stands still. That weakness has been overcome, in most places.

Powers Of The Mistletoe Have Varied Through Ages

NEW YORK (AP)—A tip to the Casanova who wants to impress an intellectual girl this Christmas:

When you catch her under the mistletoe:

1. Kiss her.
2. Tell her about mistletoe's roots in folklore.

Does she know that despite mistletoe's popular reputation as the yuletide promoter of romance, it also is known as a criminal killer of forests, and superstition credits the plant with still another evil role?

THE SUPERSTITION says that if the yuletide mistletoe bough isn't removed from the house by Candlemas Eve—Feb. 1—each leaf left will produce a goblin to plague the careless occupants during the year.

The use of mistletoe as a symbol of love, peacemaking and goodwill survives from the pre-Christian days of the ancient Scandinavian light god, Balder, whose palace stood in the Milky Way.

The beloved Balder, according to myth, was slain by a mistletoe arrow but was restored to life through the intercession of the other gods.

CUSTODY OF THE mistletoe plant was then entrusted to the goddess of love who ordained that henceforth anyone passing beneath its bough should receive a kiss in token of love, not vengeance. As long as the mistletoe was held high it never could be used as a power for evil.

Change May Be Coming Soon In Our Coeducational Education

Should we have separate classes and separate courses of study for boys and girls? Or should we continue coeducational education? What do you think?

For generations we've had coed public schools, assuming they are best. We've taught boys and girls as though they were equal mentally. We've acted as though they should and could learn the same things, in the same way, at the same time. Experts have said that separation would make boys nasty, and cause girls to become boy crazy. You've heard the arguments, haven't you?

But a change may be coming. Some psychologists now tell us that the differences between the ways boys and girls learn are so great that they ought to be separated. They think the advantages of separation would outweigh the disadvantages. The facts are impressive. Girls mature faster than boys. They're at least one year ahead of them mentally and physically all through the grade school level. Boys' minds usually are different from girls' minds; they are apt to excel in mechanical activities, in math, and in science. Even their interests and goals differ. Boys are less docile than girls. They ask more questions and argue more. Have you noticed?

Schools today are aimed at girls. They're taught by women. The courses are adjusted to female needs and interests. The discipline is suited to girls. It is no wonder that four times as many boys get into trouble at school. It's no wonder more of them fail and play hookey, and drop out.

I first suggested that schools experiment with separate classes many years ago. A few schools are trying it out now. So far the results are good. I'll keep track of what's happening and keep you posted in future columns.

(Q) "Is it true that there are more male geniuses than female?"

Mrs. L. M.

(A) Yes, by quite a margin. It also is true that there are more male morons, by about the same margin.

Bundle Gifts The Neatest You Can

NEW YORK (UPI)—Neatness counts when wrapping Yule gifts.

Cut paper the right size, allowing enough to go around the box, and to provide an overlap of about two inches. Paper should extend beyond the end of the box no more than three-quarters of the depth.

Tape the lid to the box to prevent bulges, then lay the box upside down on the paper, being sure to center the pattern. Fold the paper around the box and seal. Miter the corners at the ends and seal.

Once your gifts are neatly wrapped, decorate them. Use sparkling glitter to spell out a person's name when you have used a solid color foil wrapping. Write the name with adhesive and then dust on the glitter.

Christmas Music Program Tonight

The Old Mill School chorus will present Christmas music tonight at 7:30 at the Edna Maguire School auditorium in Mill Valley.

SEW SIMPLE

Simple Pattern, Lining Are Best To Make Brocade Dress

By EUNICE FARMER

"I have just purchased some lovely brocade for an after-five costume. This will be my first experience sewing brocade and I would like any helpful suggestions you could give."—Mrs. A.B.

Dear Mrs. A.B.:

First, be sure to choose a simple pattern. Too much detail and broken lines will detract from the beauty of the fabric. I would also suggest you underline the dress with a lightweight, firm sheath lining. You will be working with both layers of fabric as if they were only one and this will prevent the fabric from pulling apart at the seams and darts. If the brocade is scratchy, use a matching taffeta or satin material for all facings.

If you are making a dress and jacket, plan the fabric so that you can wear the jacket with a solid colored dress as well (very new this year) and get double-duty out of your ensemble.

WINNER of the week—"I sew constantly to keep myself and three girls clothed. After making pajamas for each girl, I quilted matching fabric for three robes. I used outing flannel and quilted the entire pieces of material before cutting it out. Quilting gives added warmth and body and the robes launder beautifully. If you live in a cold climate, you may wish to use the quilted material for the pajamas as well."

Mrs. Donald E. Shank, Fine, N.Y., is the winner of this week's tailor trix pressing board for this suggestion.

"My Christmas list contains many male relatives from their teens to middle age. I find it difficult to shop for them so I have decided to make them wool scarves. I'd like to know how to fringe the ends and also wonder how to finish the side raw edges to keep them flat?"—Mrs. M.A.M.

Dear Mrs. M.A.M.:

Fringe the ends to the desired length. Machine stitch with a small stitch, just above the last row of fringe. Be sure to cut the scarf on the lengthwise grain to prevent stretching. If the fabric doesn't ravel, simply turn over about ¼ inch and machine stitch close to edge. If you have a sewing machine that has a zig-zag stitch, you may use this to finish the raw edge. (You often can find enough suitable fabric for scarves among your fabric scraps.)

CHRISTMAS GIFT — Purchase a narrow striped cotton material and add a band about 5 inches wide to the hem of pillow slips and the top sheet. If you prefer, you may sew on strips of striped bias binding.

The monogram is made by cutting the striped cotton on the bias. If you have a sewing machine that has a zig-zag stitch, it will be perfect for applying the monogram. If not, turn under a narrow hem and hand applique.

This is a very special gift for a very special person on your list.

Mrs. E.J.K. says:

"A slick trick for chubby gals who like gathered skirts. To eliminate the extra 'bulk' around the waistline and still keep the fullness of the lower edge of the skirt, make 1-inch darts about 4 inches long every 6 inches across the skirt. Now gather as usual and see how 'slim' it makes you look."

YOUR SEWING GLOSSARY: Lengthwise grain: This is the direction of the grain which runs the length of the selvage. Any arrow on your pattern that refers to the lengthwise grain means that any point on this line must be the same distance from the selvage edge of your fabric.

We put the package in this ad... so you'd remember what to look for when you buy pop corn!

The straight jacket isn't such a mad idea after all. Designer Rudi Gernreich proved it by creating a suit with a jacket that looks as if it was put on backwards. It has a notched collar, three buttons down the spine, and a cutaway effect at the hips.

Vows In Cathedral For Buenz-Yaryan Nuptials Saturday

A nuptial Eucharist ceremony in the Great Choir, Grace Cathedral in San Francisco united in marriage Ruby Bell Yaryan, daughter of the Rev. Canon and Mrs. John Sturges Yaryan of Kentfield, and John Frederick Buenz Jr. on Saturday afternoon.

The Rt. Rev. James A. Pike officiated and the bride's father, the Rev. Canon Yaryan, celebrated the nuptial Eucharist. Assisting were the Rev. Thomas A. Bogard of Los Gatos, the Rev. John Wyatt of Menlo Park and Harold Hallett Jr. of Ross. Organist Richard Purvis and the adult male choir of the cathedral participated in the ceremony, which was followed by a reception at Cathedral House.

THE BRIDE recited vows in a gown of ivory silk peau de soie styled with long tapered sleeves and scooped neckline. The dress was trimmed with Princess Bruxelles lace, a family heirloom, and the skirt ended in a cathedral length train.

The attendants, the bride's sister, Eugenie Richardson Yaryan, maid of honor, and Patricia Roberts of Menlo Park, cousin of the bride, and Jacqueline E. Benton of Los Angeles, wore moss green silk velvet dresses.

John Frederick Bunez was best man for his son, and ushers were Capt. John S. Yaryan Jr. of Tucson, Ariz., Timothy Yaryan, the bride's brothers, and John F. Matthews of Palo Alto and John W. McDonald of Stanford.

THE COUPLE WILL take a wedding trip to San Antonio, where they will spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Buenz, the bridegroom's parents, and will return to live in Berkeley.

The bride was graduated from Stanford University and took two years of graduate study in psychology at University College, University of London on a Rotary Foundation fellowship. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Her husband attended the University of the South and was graduated from the University of Texas with an architectural engineering degree. He also attended the graduate school of business at Stanford University and is studying for Episcopal orders at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific in Berkeley.

Noni Belden To Be Bride In April Rite

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus C. Belden III of Kentfield announced the engagement of their daughter Nan (Noni) Van Zile Belden to Frederick Stevens Allen Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Allen of Ross at a small gathering of family and friends Saturday evening.

Miss Belden was graduated from the Katharine Branson School in Ross and attended Pine Manor Junior College in Wellesley, Mass. Her grandparents are Mrs. Augustus C. Belden of Kentfield, and the late Mr. Belden, and Cmdr. (U.S.N. Ret.), and Mrs. Richard H. Booth of Ross.

Mr. Allen was graduated from St. Georges School in Newport, R. I., and the University of Pennsylvania, where he was a member of St. Anthony Hall. He served in the U. S. Navy and is with the Pacific Telephone Company. His brothers are Jonathan Brooks Allen and Thomas William Allen, and his sister is Alice Rice Allen.

His grandparents are George W. H. Allen of Vero Beach, Fla., and the late Mrs. Gretchen B. S. Allen and Mrs. Chester W. Rice of Schenectady, N. Y., and the late Mr. Rice.

An April wedding is planned.

Christmas Cookies Involve Entire Novato Household

ar at high speed on electric beater until soft and creamy. Add 2 eggs unbeaten, ½ tsp. salt, 1 tsp. baking baking powder, and 1 tsp. each of lemon and vanilla extract. Continue beating until fluffy. Remove from mixer. Add 2½ cups sifted flour and blend well with hands.

Place in refrigerator for 1 to 2 hours. Roll out small portions of cookie dough, ¼-inch thick and cut in any desired shapes. Place on ungreased cookie sheets and paint eyes, nose and mouth on cookies before baking.

Then blend one egg yolk with ¼ tsp. water for the egg yolk paint. Divide into two parts— add a few drops of blue food coloring to one-half the mixture and a few drops of red to the other.

Bake in 400 degree oven six to eight minutes, until set but not brown.

BEFORE DECORATING the Santa Clauses, trees, or any of the other varied designs, Mrs. Shaw uses a very thin butter frosting, "about the consistency of thin pancake batter" and puts a glaze on the cookies, sprinkling the desired area, such as Santa's cap, or a green tree, with colored sugar. The cookies then must set for 24 hours or overnight before further decoration.

The basic butter frosting, for the final decoration, which she also thins down for the glaze, consists of 2 egg whites, ½ pound of sweet butter, hot water and sifted powdered sugar. Place the egg whites and butter in a large mixing bowl and beat at high speed until fluffy. Add the sifted powdered sugar, small amounts at a time until frosting is of desired consistency. If too stiff, add a few drop of hot water. The frosting must be firm enough to adhere to the toothpick, Mrs. Shaw advises.

SANTA'S BEARD, snow around a wreath, or a beautiful Christmas tree appear as Mrs. Shaw decorates with a toothpick.

The fourth generation of Mrs. Shaw's family is now helping to decorate cookies, with young Vickie and J. D. learning the art.

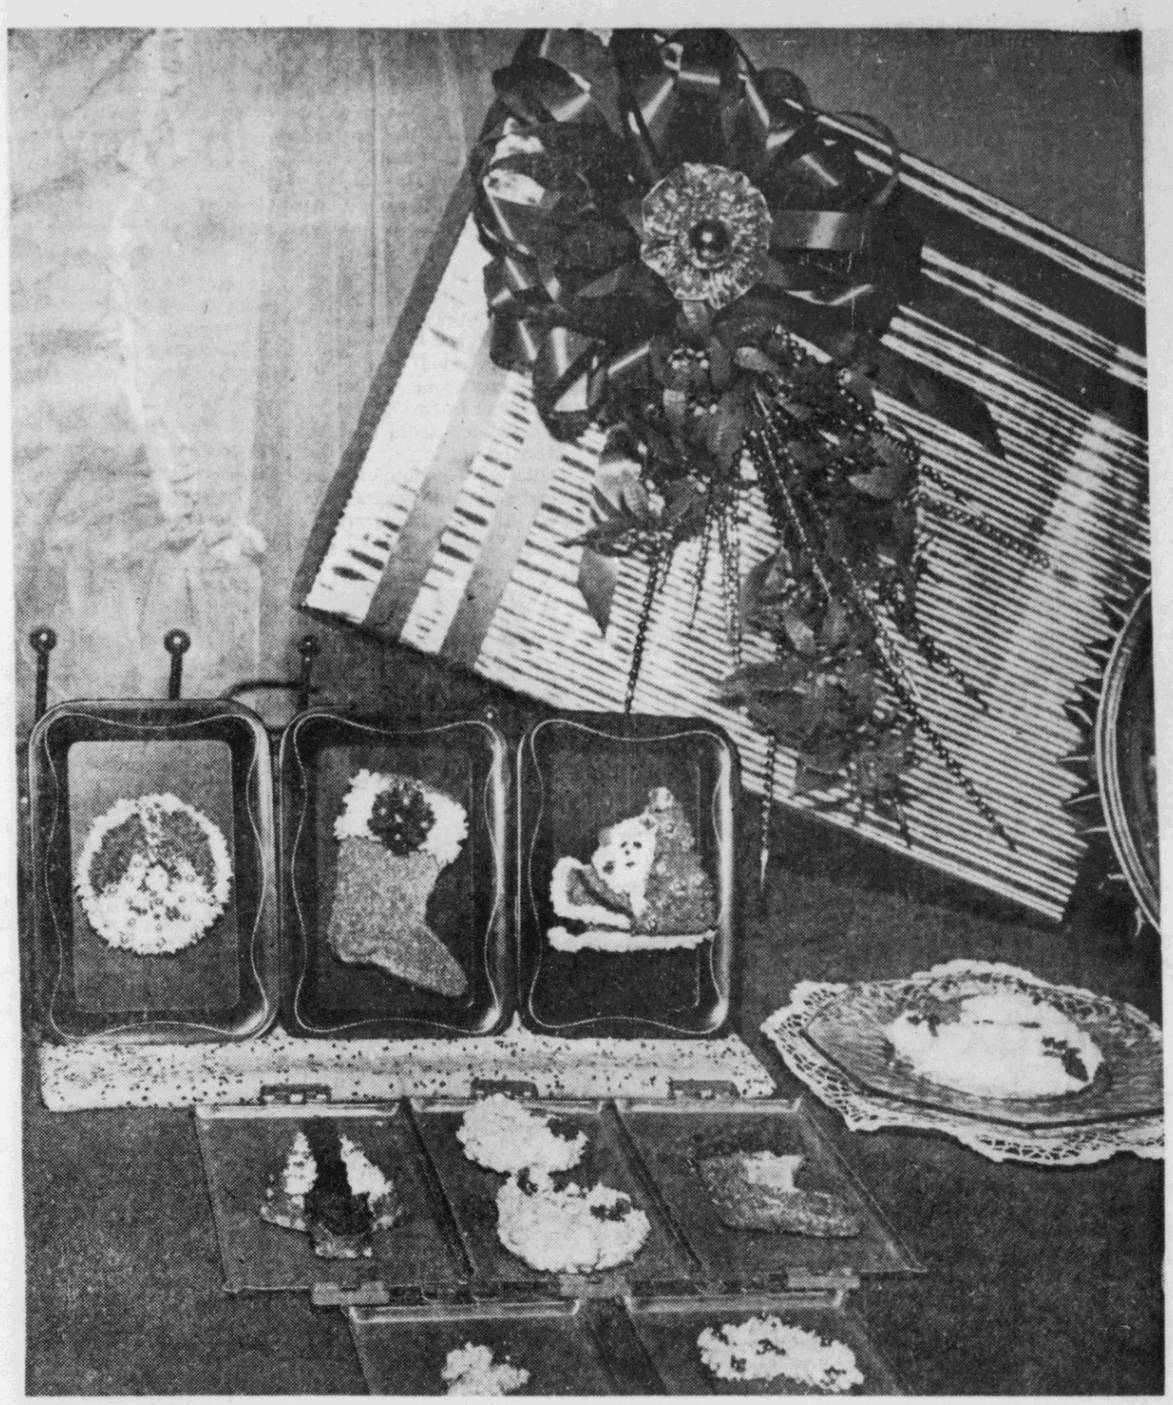

Her cookie baking has grown into such a large venture that she takes over the family kitchen for two days just to pack them for two hospitals and friends of the family.

Dolly's sister, Mrs. Frank Akers, humorously said, "We eat Chinese food and pizza while Dolly takes over the kitchen for her production line packing the cookies."

THE COOKIES ARE packaged in fancy boxes wrapped by Mrs. Akers, and the bows and other decorations are created by Mrs. Frank Akers. Ross Hospital employes and the mental health hygiene hospital in Cupertino receive several of these large boxes of cookies from Mrs. Shaw. She also makes 10 other types of cookies and home made candy to place in the boxes with her masterpieces.

The old time Christmas spirit prevails at the Akers home, where the large family lives and plays together and seems to enjoy every minute.

"We hold open house from Dec. 15 through New Year's day and welcome about 150 friends," Mrs. Frank Akers said.

THE ART WORK of Mrs. Dolly Shaw is shown in the various designs she creates and places in large gift wrapped boxes. Mesdames Frank and Edgar Akers wrap the gift packages as the one shown here. On small trays are some of the decorated cookies that go in each box. (Independent-Journal photos)

Sausalito Yacht Club Children To Have Yule Party

The third annual Christmas party for the children of members of the Sausalito Yacht Club will be held Dec. 23 at 3 p.m. at the clubhouse.

The Women's Auxiliary, which is in charge of the event, has planned an old fashioned tree trimming, and each child will bring an ornament to hang on the tree.

John Ward, as Santa Claus, will sail to the clubhouse aboard Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flowerman's "Triton," bringing gifts.

There will be prizes, special entertainment and refreshments for the children, says Mrs. Carl Lischeske, chairman. She is assisted by Mesdames Henry Bigall, Flowerman and John Steele.

Anti-Droop Tips For Yule Flowers

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Keep the holiday cut flowers fresh by heeding these tips, suggests the American Society of Florists:

Place stems in deep warm water. Pour warm water into the container in which they will be arranged. Cut stem ends diagonally with a sharp knife. Remove all foliage below the water level. Add a commercial flower preservative to the water.

Poinsettias and euphorbias have a milky substance or juice which should be sealed into the stem by quickly dipping stem ends one to two inches into boiling water.

When stem ends get soft or decayed, recut the stems to remove that portion. When flowers wilt, recut stems and place in warm water.

Decorate Yule Candles With Own Design

By VIVIAN BROWN

Make your Christmas gift candles works of art by simulating design effects seen on imported candles, says Peggy Weber Francis. Her family has been making candles in Salzburg, Austria, since 1583.

"You need not to be too ambitious in the beginning. A simple but effective design can be made by carving a little niche near the bottom of a candle, and inserting into it small nativity figures that may be bought in stores.

"TO TRIM THE EDGE of the niche, merely twist gold ribbon, dip it into parrafin and apply around the opening. Apply the gold ribbon by pouring hot wax from an old candle over it very carefully until decoration and candle are welded."

Pretty designs may be made with ordinary white or gold fashion cord, pine, holly, little stars or scroll effects that may be cut out of gold paper doilies, she says. Dip them into melted wax to look like real wax effects seen on authentic candles, she explains.

Powdered fabric dyes may be put into hot wax to color candles, although some people use crayons that have been chopped up and melted.

"THE ARTIST USES a forceps heated over a gas flame to sculpture designs on the surface of the candle, although geometric designs or bas relief figures may be imprinted on sheets of wax and applied to the candle, sometimes covered with gold leaf, sometimes given an antique patina. Some Motif are produced in special wooden molds.

"Failure in candle making results from cutting corners in making the candles from old candle stubs or from using the wrong materials for wicks," she advises.

BEESWAX WITHSTANDS heat and burns longer but too soft. She suggests combining paraffin (30 per cent) and beeswax (about 70 per cent.)

Heavy cotton must be used for the wick, an inadequate flame will be drowned by the candle. A heavy white shotlace is good. So is strong cotton that is twisted, braided and switched to hold it.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Chemicals In Food Not Threat Some Would Have You Believe

VAN DELLEN

It has been said America could not feed itself without the aid of chemicals. These additives are not as poisonous as some "nature" enthusiasts want to believe. They make it possible to provide many more wholesome foods at a cost we can afford and during all seasons of the year.

There are two types of food additives. The intentional additives are introduced deliberately to accomplish a specific function in the food. The incidental additives become part of the food unavoidably and serve no useful purpose in the finished products.

THE NUTRITIONAL supplements are among our most important intentional food additives. These include vitamins, minerals, and amino acids. Flour and bread are enrished with thiamin, riboflavin, niacin, iron, and calcium. We may ask why these nutrients were removed from the flour in the first place. The old-fashioned flour spoiled rapidly and food scientists found ways to make it last longer. This meant removing that part of the wheat containing these vitamins. Restoring these nutrients and adding others provide a wholesome food for the masses of people.

Fortified cereals, idoized salt, vitamin D fortified milk, and vitamin A fortified margarine also are examples of the concept of enrichment and restoration of key nutrients in certain staple foods.

OTHER SUBSTANCES are added to enhance the flavor or act as a preservative. Salt, spices, essential oils, and aromatic chemicals are examples. Anti-oxidants delay the rancidity in fats; anti-mycotics prevent molding of bread, citrus fruits, and cheese; vitamin C prevents darkening of certain fruits and vegetables such as sliced apples, frozen peaches, and peeled potatoes. Various other additives are used to keep food products from separating and maintain a smooth, uniform texture. There also are maturing agents, acids, alkalies, and coloring.

The incidental or unintentional additives are creating more problems because they are not so easy to control. The headliners in this group are residuals of pesticides and fallout.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

HEALTH IN THE STOUT

C.H. writes: Is it true that fat people don't get sick as often as the thin?

REPLY

No, but when the obese get sick the outcome is not always as good as in the lean. In addition, the overweight are more likely to develop diabetes, high blood pressure, heart disease, or arthritis. They also have a higher mortality rate.

SPINAL CURVATURE

P.M. writes: Is curvature of the spine, caused by undernourished bones or rickets, hereditary?

REPLY

There are many causes of curvature of the spine, including rickets and hereditary and nonhereditary bone disorders. Other causes inciude poor posture and differences in the lengths of the legs.

SCARLATINA

J. V. writes: Years ago we used to hear about scarlatina. What has happened to this disease?

REPLY

Nothing. This disease still occurs, but under the name of scarlet fever. It is a mild form of the infection and is quickly kayoed by penicillin.

AT EASE

F.M.L. writes: How can an old-timer of 70 learn to relax?

REPLY

By doing what comes naturally. He must have learned how years ago to have reached 70, and probably is more relaxed than he realizes.

6 Counties Actually Losing Population

(EDITOR'S NOTE: California is gaining 50,000 residents a month but—six counties are actually losing. And such cities as Oakland and Richmond are beating back from decreases, here's how.)

By HAROLD V. STREETER

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—California, adding 50,000 a month to its more than 17 million residents, recently passed New York as the nation's most populous state.

But—would you believe it?—some half dozen of the 58 counties have lost people.

One is the city-county of San Francisco. Between 1950 and 1960, it had a deficit of more than 34,000, then picked up 4,000. The present 745,000 are sardined into 46.5 square miles, 45.4 of it at the tip of a peninsula. And suburbia is calling.

That's more than 16,000 people to the square mile if you take in everything: downtown, Golden Gate Park, school grounds, the beach, Alcatraz prison, Yerba Buena Island, Treasure Island and the Farallon Islands 25 miles out in the Pacific.

But if you want to be realistic and use the 23.3 square miles where they actually live, it comes to almost 32,000 a square mile—ouch, move over; you're crowding!

Every day by plane, train, bus, car and ship an average of 250,000 more—working commuters, tourists — crowd into San Francisco. And where do I park?

The Army Corps of Engineers, using a fast pencil, has come up with the calculation of 937,600 in the city by 1990. Without annexation, there is the impulsive vision of people standing on people.

Another population loser is the little central mountainous county of Mariposa—named for another part of the population, butterflies. Every year, it has more than a million visitors. But they don't stay. They have come to see the wonders of Yosemite National Park.

Near the north end of the Gold Rush country — where the population explosion started in the first place, back in 1849 — is a tier of four counties which lost people. But it certainly wasn't for lack of room.

In just two, Modoc and Lassen, you could put all 8,257 square miles of the state of Massachusetts and still have land left.

Modoc, in the extreme northeast corner of California, has another and less migratory population—90 per cent of the nation's mule deer.

It also has a historical record of a previous population decline. In the 1860s, the Indians massacred so many white people that Ft. Bidwell had to be built in Surprise Valley to put a stop to it.

Four of the 1950-1960 population losers, Modoc, Lassen, Plumas and Sierra, are crowded with something other than people—trees. Five-sixths of Sierra's 958 square miles are forested. Not counting the vast national forests, these four counties alone have a saw timber reserve of 50 billion board-feet.

"It is not anticipated that population growth in Modoc, Lassen, Plumas and Sierra counties will keep pace with that of the state," reads an analysis prepared for The Associated Press by the Economic Development Agency.

"The economies of the four counties are presently based on lumbering and agriculture. It would appear that the only significant possibility for rapid growth would be found in major expansion of lumbering. This is not, however, anticipated in the near future."

But what about San Francisco? Nothing to worry about, say the experts on such matters. While its population dropped from 755,357 in 1950 to the current 745,000, the two counties below it on the same peninsula have soared from 526,206 to 1,252,900.

Just across the Golden Gate to the north, Marin County has advanced since 1950 from 85,619 to a current 166,700. So San Francisco's trading power has gone nowhere but up.

Actually, even its population losses spell progress. More than 7,000 are accounted for by elimination of temporary war housing. South of Market Street, substandard dwellings gave way to such crying needs as parking lots. That dispatched another 6,500. Demolitions in the Western Addition to make way for new construction caused a loss of nearly 15,000.

Freeways also took their toll.

Three redevelopments, planned or in progress, promise 6,908 new housing units, the bulk of them apartments. And the Department of City Planning, looking to the future, has the revamped city's holding capacity at 848,530.

Across the bay Oakland offers another interesting situation. It's a city with many big, old houses.

"You never saw anything like it during the war," recalls Forrest Michell, assistant superintendent of schools and an avid student of population changes.

"Families in the basement, families upstairs, a family in the attic. Some of the places still had old barns and water tanks for windmills, used in a previous generation.

"Even they were converted to living quarters."

The war ended and away went the people. Oakland slumped from 384,575 in 1950 to 367,548 in 1960. The latest count by the city's planning department puts it at 372,046.

But the surrounding trade area has blossomed. Oakland's county of Alameda went up from 740,315 in 1950 to a current 946,700. Nearby Contra Costa has shot up from 298,984 to 448,200.

An interesting sidelight, observed with much concern by Michell, is the rapidly shifting school population.

"While the city's population went down, school attendance didn't," he points out.

"But the turnover is a headache. A class of 35 may wind up the year even a little bit larger but with scarcely a child in it at the end who was there at the start."

Oakland's landscape is changing. In the past five years, 2,583 single family units, 9,375 multiple-apartment-units and 125 multiple public housing units have sprung up — while 5,064 were destroyed to make way for freeways and schools.

But if you want to look at startling change, consider Richmond, a city that lost more than 27 per cent of its population in 10 years. War gave it a booming shipyard, a plant making shell casings, another doing milling work on bombers.

Peace gave it a shocking kick in the pants. Down fell the population from 99,545 in 1950 to 71,854 in 1960. Cooler heads took stock. Six years ago, leading citizens created an industrial commission. It hired an industrial coordinator.

Beckman Instruments moved in. United Grocers set up headquarters. Eyesore war housing went out. New housing units, such as the 800 on the east shore, went up. A postwar civic center was built, including a library with a circulation of more than half a million volumes. Richmond hasn't come all the way back. But it's on the way.

And that sums up the story of The Losers. The other side of the population coin isn't always bright. But it's being polished.

Trend Toward Leasing Equipment

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market break and the profit squeeze were among the things this year that boosted the trend toward leasing rather than owning production and office equipment. And the new depreciation rules and the more optimistic feeling should further its growth in 1963.

That's the view of leaders in the leasing business, as you might expect, when they assess the changes in their rapidly growing form of financing. One change is the lengthening of the term of leases and another is lower rates in many instances.

Leasing is done either by the manufacturers themslves who rent out their products rather than sell them, or by outside firms specializing in this form of financing.

They estimate that American companies this year leased $900 million of production and office equipment, for a gain of 25 per cent over 1961. This doesn't include the renting instead of owning of plants, stores, hotels, commercial buildings and other real estate.

The financing firms estimate the total for production and office equipment should top $1 billion in 1963. And the trend toward longer terms should continue. Extension of the life of loans market other lending institutions this year and last. The big leasing companies estimate that this year up to 90 per cent of their business was done on a five-year or longer basis. When leasing of equipment started some 10 years ago terms generally were for only a year or two.

Some half dozen leasing corporations that operate on a national basis have grown to the point where they now can obtain funds in the money market at lower interest than when they started as small concerns. This has allowed them to bring lease rates down, an important sales point in the increasingly competitive world of finance.

"The profit squeeze in many industries is helping our business," says Robert Sheridan, president of Nationwide Leasing Company, Chicago, "because it cuts the cash flow and increases the need for other financing of new equipment wanted for cost cutting.

"The stock market break also led to more leasing by companies that formerly turned to the public for new long term capital.

"The new depreciation rules for tax purposes, as they spark increased capital spending, will help our business because we are allowed by the law to pass on the credit to our lessees."

Big leasing corporations have turned to many specialized functions. One is financing mergers and acquisitions by buying the assets of the smaller company and leasing them back to the merged company. Another is underwriting the growth of medium sized family-owned businesses. Leasing permits them to expand without diluting their equity or surrendering control of their firms.

Other functions leasing corporations stress in their sales talk is the converting of fixed assets into working capital by sale and lease-back, and allowing companies in highly competitive fields to acquire new equipment without draining their current funds.

Why Fly South In Social Democracy?

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Some four hundred swans, by nature migratory birds, have abandoned their natural ways for the Swedish system of benevolent social democracy.

Instead of heading south at the first sign of winter, as any biology textbook would have them do, they land on the North Stream in downtown Stockholm.

There, on a raft moored just below the opera house, they are treated to vitamin enriched foods, veterinary care and, if necessary, laundry service.

And the gentle currents of the Stream keeps the water ice free enough for a daily constitutional swim across to the Royal Palace.

For more than 20 years, the city fathers have maintained a number of feeding stations for nonmigratony birds and fowl during the inclement winter season. Some eight years ago, a few swans got wise and joined the wintering gulls, terns and ducks around the feeding raft. Since then, the number of wintering swans has increased to about 400 by last estimate.

Each day during the winter, the city parks department distributes some 15 sacks of bread crumbs, some 200 pounds of wheat and corn kernels and some 200 pounds of cabbage, calcium and whale oil compound to provide the winter guests with a balanced diet.

Injured birds are taken ashore for veterinary treatment, and feather dresses damaged by waste oil from the ships in the harbor are washed at the Skansen Aimal Park.

"They sure know when they are well off, these swans," city caretaker Fritz Israelsson commented. "They know me all right, and they recognize my truck as well. They see me coming way off in the morning, and make a beeline for the feeding raft."

The swans, along with the gulls and ducks, are fed each morning at 8. It is a great show for the tourists.

But Stockholm tourist boss Eric Thor doesn't like it just the same:

"We're upsetting the balance of nature," he said. "We are extending the welfare state idea into the animal kingdom . . ."

JANITOR SERVICES for Swedish swans are handled by the Stockholm Parks Department. Here a Parks Department employe chips ice off the edge of the swans' feeding raft.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Most Of Us Are Lucky Considering Fire Hazards Created At Christmas

VAN DELLEN

Make this a safe Christmas. Most of us are lucky, considering the fire hazards that we create year after year. There are parties, festivities, gift wrappings, decorations, and loads of special fun. And we usually add to this scene one of the most highly flammable objects in the world—the Christmas tree. It burns like fury unless dipped in or sprayed with a flame proofing or flame retarding compound.

Most yule trees must be cut well in advance of the season and may be dry by the time they reach the retail outlet. When too dry, they shed needles easily; their branches are brittle and they burn faster.

AUTHORITIES TELL me that the best way to test a tree is to bounce the butt hard on the ground. If the needles shower down, it is too dry. The needles should offer some resistance when pulled out, and a stump that is sticky with resin may be messy but it means the tree is fresh and moist, and is less likely to burn.

The next step is to keep the tree outside in a bucket of water until ready to put up. Then saw off one inch from the trunk before it is set up and keep the tree in water as long as it remains in the house. Don't put it near heat or the stairs.

No one uses open flame candles but the electric lighting gadgets can cause trouble, especially when the tree is dry. Check the cord and sockets for fire and shock hazards.

CHRISTMAS WRAPPINGS tend to accumulate unless thrown out every day; don't burn them in the fireplace. Decorations made of noncombustible material such as metal, glass, or asbestos are preferred.

In addition, keep plenty of ash trays handy but no matches. Be emphatic about "no smoking" near the tree. Several years ago two families were made homeless by a young man who had a cigarette dangling from his mouth while trimming the tree. And don't smoke while playing Santa Claus; those whiskers ignite easily and burn quickly unless flameproofed.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

DRY, PEELING SKIN

W. B. writes: Parts of my feet (bottom and sides) are very dry and always peeling. Is there any way to stop this condition?

REPLY

Yes, if dryness and peeling represent an allergic reaction to materials in the shoes or hose. If sensitivity is not responsible for the symptoms, the best thing to do is to keep the skin lubricated with oils or creams.

COFFEE OVERSTIMULATION

J. K. writes: I'm a big, healthy man with a problem. I can't drink coffee. Even if I take only one cup at breakfast, it makes me nervous, upsets my bowel, and keeps me from sleeping at night. What is the reason for these effects?

REPLY

You are hypersensitive to the caffeine in coffee. Why not try a decaffeinated brand?

INJECTION INTO ARM

M. W. writes: What reactions would a person have to a tetanus shot and an antibotic injection at the same time?

REPLY

None, but the tetanus shot might make the arm sore for 24 hours.

MISHAP DURING SEIZURE

R. W. writes: Did you ever hear of an epileptic whose right shoulder slips out of place during a convulsion?

REPLY

Yes. In some epileptics, the shoulder comes out of place so often during seizures, chronic dislocation ensues.

$10,000 Per Year Comes From Cows

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A check of profits made by 125 Ohio dairymen show that seven of the group make their cows pay them $10,000 or more a year.

This is cash income for their labor and management, after paying a 5 per cent charge for capital in land, buildings, livestock, machinery and feed. The analysis was made by Ohio State University agricultural economists.

Somebody Thought Table Really Free

GASTONIA, N.C. (AP)—"Free Picnic Table," read the roadsign beside U.S. 29 near here.

Somebody took it literally, Gaston County Rural Police reported, and hauled off the table during the night.

True Service From Airline

WEST END, Grand Bahama, B.W.I. (AP)—A Mackey Airlines four-engine airliner took off from Marsh Harbour for West End, then w heeled about and returned to the field.

Two men climbed aboard and the craft took off.

An American tourist later asked the pilot what had happened. The pilot replied that after takeoff he spotted the two men waving, so went back. He said, "If I hadn't gone back they couldn't have caught another plane until next week.

Planes stop at Marsh Harbour thrice weekly.

NOTICE INVITING SEALED BIDS
IN THE MATTER OF THE CONSTRUCTION AND ACQUISITION OF IMPROVEMENTS IN CHULA VISTA ASSESSMENT DISTRICT, CITY OF SAN RAFAEL, MARIN COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

Pursuant to the provisions of the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 and to resolution of the City Council of the City of San Rafael, Marin County, California, directing this notice, said City Council hereby invites sealed bids and proposals for doing the work and improvements described in Resolution of Intention No. 2647 in the above entitled matter. Said Resolution of Intention is hereby referred to for a description of said work and improvements, the lines and grades to which it is to be done, a description of the district to be assessed to pay for the costs and expenses thereof, the bonds to be issued, and for all further particulars contained in said Resolution of Intention. Reference is hereby further made to the plans and specifications and detailed drawings for said work on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of San Rafael, in accordance with which said work shall be done.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that the City Council of the City of San Rafael has heretofore established a prevailing rate and scale of wages for work to be done, in accordance with the provisions of Sections 1770 and 1773 of the California Labor Code. Said scale of prevailing rates so determined is, by this reference, incorporated herein and made a part hereof.

The contractor shall, in the performance of the work and improvements, conform to the Labor Code of the State of California and other laws of the State of California applicable thereto, with the exception only of such variations as may be required under the special statutes pursuant to which proceedings hereunder are taken and which have not been superseded by the provisions of the Labor Code. Preference to labor shall be given only in the manner provided by law. Veterans and resident local labor shall be given preference by the contractor whenever possible, if skill and working ability permit without increasing the ultimate cost of the work and improvement to the City Council of the City of San Rafael.

All proposals or bids shall be accompanied by a check payable to said City of San Rafael and certified by a responsible bank for an amount which shall not be less than ten per cent (10%) of the aggregate of the proposal or by a bond for said amount and so payable, signed by the bidder and two sureties who shall justify, before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double the said amount and over and above all statutory exemptions, or by a corporate surety in said amount satisfactory to the Engineer of Work.

Said proposals or bids shall be delivered on or before the hour of 2:00 P.M. on the 27th day of December, 1962, at the office of the City Clerk of the City of San Rafael, City Hall, San Rafael, California, which said time and place are hereby fixed as the time and place of a public meeting at which said bids will be publicly opened, examined and declared, will be calculated by the Engineer of Work of Chula Vista Assessment District, their report returned to the City Clerk, and the report of the results of the bidding and the calculations of the Engineer of Work will be reported to the City Council of the City of San Rafael at the next regular meeting thereof. The City Council of the City of San Rafael reserves the right to reject any and all proposals or bids should it deem this necessary for the public good, and also the bid of any bidder who has been delinquent or unfaithful in any former contract with the City of San Rafael.

Plans, specifications and contract documents are available at the office of the Engineer of Work, J. WARREN NUTE, 414 Fourth Street, San Rafael, California, upon the payment of a $15.00 deposit, $5.00 of which will be refundable upon return of the plans and specifications in good condition.

Deer Park School Yule Skits Slated

Students at Deer Park School in Fairfax will present a Christmas program of songs, skits and poems at the school Thursday from 10:30 a.m.

Principal Bruce McDonald announced that parents and friends are invited to the program. Several clesses, using the Spanish theme, will sing songs in Spanish.

Six classes and two kindergarten groups will take part in the one-hour program.

Chorus, Orchestras To Give Program

A program of Christmas music will be presented Thursday by the seventh and eighth grade chorus and the Sleepy Hollow - Hidden Valley school orchestras in the multi-purpose room of the Sleepy Hollow School at 7:30 p.m.

Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. a performance by the girls' Descant group, consisting of students in fourth through sixth grades under direction of Sue Howe, will be given. Dale Parker is director of the orchestra and chorus.

Students To Walk In Caroling Party

Mill Valley's Marin Terrace School children will conduct a walking caroling party starting at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at the school.

Carolers will proceed to the Almonte clubhouse at Almonte Boulevard and Wisteria Way. They will be accompanied by girls from Tamalpais High School, the Tres Altos, a Young Men's Christian Assn. group, plus those parents who wish to accompany them.

The club, which sponsors, will serve refreshments. Parents, Frank R. Little, president, said, may take tiny children direct to the clubhouse.

TAX FACTS

Cut In Tax Could Be Interesting

By PETER J. WIKEL, C.P.A.

President John F. Kennedy has stated that he will ask Congress for a tax cut for the year beginning Jan. 1, 1963.

P. J. Wikel

This has interesting possibilities.

If we have a tax cut, income received in 1963 instead of 1962 would be taxed at a lower rate.

Also, deductible expenses paid in 1962 would result in a greater tax saving than if these same expenses were paid in 1963.

This, of course, only holds true assuming that your income remains substantially the same for these two years.

With this thought in mind, it might be a good idea to pay both halves of your real estate taxes in 1962.

If you owe medical bills and already have sufficient medical expense for a deduction, it might be a good idea to pay all your medical expenses in 1962, including prepaying your deductible accident and health insurance for 1963.

You can also make your contributions for 1963 in December of 1962.

It might be possible to prepay the interest on your home loan in December of 1962.

Even if there is no tax cut, you may be able to lower your taxes by paying all your deductible 1963 expenses in December of 1962.

Itemize deductions for 1962, then pay little or no deductible expenses in 1963, and use the standard deductions for 1963.

Make Puppets

The 65 mimbers of Miss Betty Taylor's home economics classes at Central School in Fairfax made puppets and prepared refreshments for the 15 members of a mentally retarded class at Sleepy Hollow School for a Christmas party this afternoon.

THEY'RE PUPPETS

These handcarved puppets can be seen at 1 p.m. Saturday at Reed School Auditorium, 1199 Tiburon Boulevard, where the Berkeley Puppeteers will stage "Coyote — Tales From American Indians."

Taxpayer Group Boosts Vet Claim

The Marin County Taxpayers Assn. has adopted a resolution urging an increase in the limit on assessed valuation of property which a veteran may own and still receive a tax exemption.

The resolution, which has been sent to both the Marin County Board of Supervisors and to legislators in Sacramento states that the present $5,000 limit is based on 1911 values, with the result that many veterans have lost their exemption privilege through increase in valuations.

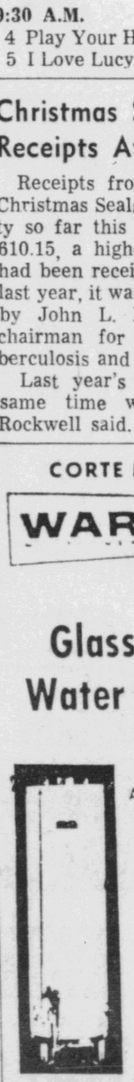

The resolution also urges that the exemptions be granted only on real property owned by the veteran himself.

Christmas Seal Receipts At $24,000

Receipts from the sale of Christmas Seals in Marin County so far this year total $24,610.15, a higher amount than had been received at this time last year, it was reported today by John L. Rockwell, drive chairman for the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn.

Last year's receipts at the same time were $23,313.12, Rockwell said.

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

By HARRY CRAFT

Marin Convention Center Planned On 12 Acres Near New Civic Center

A cherished dream, shared equally by the Marin County Development Assn., Marin Visitors Bureau and San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, may materialize in a project of three Marin businessmen who have partnered to give the county a huge convention center which will encourage large-scale business gatherings.

Shaun Wiltshire, William R. Forde and Harrol W. Laster have taken an option on 200 acres of the Smith Bros. Ranch extending east from the Redwood Highway above San Rafael, and propose to turn 12 acres of it just north of the new Civic Center into something that could be a key factor in promoting Marin's future development.

Contemplated for the site, according to preliminary plans now on the drawing board of architect Robert W. F. Severin, is an imposing circular administration building providing meeting facilities for 1,000 delegates, exhibit space, a large restaurant and a heliport on the roof—along with space for professional offices.

This will be surrounded by luxury motel buildings for at least 200 guests, swimming pool, tennis courts and a pitch-and-putt golf course. Balance of the 200 acres would be developed to "fit the future."

The trio, operating up to this stage as Wiltshire-Forde-Laster Properties, expect to have complete details on their project in about two weeks.

FIRST MERGER of small business investment companies in the U.S. involving SBA funds has been announced by Harold L. Moose Jr., executive vice president of the Western Small Business Investment Co., San Rafael and manager of York and Company's small business investment department.

The two companies involved are Western SBIC, organized early in 1959, and Central California SBIC. Merger has been approved by stockholders of both houses, the Federal Small Business Administration and the California Corporation Commissioner. It will be effective upon filing new articles of incorporation.

Combined operation will be managed from Western's San Francisco office. Branches will be maintained in San Rafael, Modesto an Los Angeles.

E. BUGNA, INC., San Rafael has opened a new specialized sales department to take care of small business and professional people on the same basis of national fleet accounts. Already active as a national Lincoln-Mercury-Comet fleet dealer, Bugna is the first one in the San Francisco district to be selected to operate this type of department. Service is under Glen Sawyer.

HAMMOND ORGAN CO. of Chicago has agreed to purchase the Everett Piano Co., 79-year-old manufacturer in South Haven, Mich. Hammond will continue to operate it as a wholly-owned subsidiary under the same management.

MOST TAXABLE RETAIL SALES in Marin County are in the automotive group. Eating and drinking places represent a much lower second place. Food stores' taxable sales are third and fourth. San Rafael's taxable sales are about the same as Santa Rosa's, though the latter city has roughly 10,000 more in population.

'Tour Of Tiburon' Scheduled Thursday

A conducted "Tour of Tiburon" is being scheduled for Thursday, sponsored by Main Street Properties and designed to bring people from San Francisco for an evening of wining, dining and shopping, according to Bart Talbott of Talbott of Tiburon Travel Agency, who is in charge of arrangements.

Les Crane of radio station KGO is tour director. Tickets may be obtained through Talbott.

Manufacturing industries have more than tripled their use of electricity since 1939.

Legion Building Lease On San Rafael Agenda

Lease of the American Legion Building for San Rafael's first city recreation center is scheduled for discussion at the San Rafael City Council meeting at 8 p.m. today.

The building at Fourth and Union streets housed the Marin County superintendent of schools' office until its move late last month to the Civic Center. It is now vacant. The city park and recreation commission has recommended it be leased for a recreation center.

How much time will be left for discussion of this proposal —or for other matters on the council's agenda — depends largely on how much time is devoted to a public hearing on proceeding with the Bret Harte Drainage Assessment District.

The district was set up to drain the Bret Harte industrial district at a total cost just under a million dollars. Owners of more than two-thirds of the affected property have sent written protests to the city clerk.

The meeting will start with opening of bids on the Chula Vista Assessment District, designed to provide sewerage and street improvements in Chula Vista Heights. Public hearing on annexation of lands owned by Patrick H. Tarrant is scheduled after the Bret Harte hearing.

If the council gets on to the rest of its agenda, it may hear from a man who seems to be of the same mind as the mayor and at least some of the councilmen. Hiram Johnson III of Belvedere has asked time for a presentation on behalf of the Anti-Digit Dialing League, which he heads. The San Rafael council last year expressed displeasure with all-number dialing — an attitude not changed by appearance of a Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. official who argued for the new system.

A report by City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen on how the city can finance a new city hall is also scheduled. A pleasant and decidedly non-controversial matter will be acceptance of 26 water color pictures by artist Betty Guy, offered for the city's use in the new city hall by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shell.

City Manager Andersen said he expects at least part of the 20-item agenda will be postponed to an adjourned meeting later in the week.
